 You surely will not say "no" to us, for nothing will give us or our readers more pleasure
 than to collect together, in one complete number,
 all that we can regarding the many beautiful
 things you have done for the West. We will honor your beloved
 Sierra, your forests,
 and birds in honor

2305 Fulton Street,
 Berkeley, August 27th

My dear Mr. Minn;
 Knowing that you
 may be very far away,
 and that it will be a long time before you receive my letter, I have written to your wife asking her to grant us permission

you and I am sure you will sympathize with us in our desire to turn the minds and hearts of Californians toward their great and good men and their beautiful country.

Professor Bradley and your friend Miss Grayson are to write the principal articles, and I with Mr. Peck and others of your friends help, am to have a little say as a student. We are to have the new photographs of the Sierras that Mr. Le Conte took this summer.

Were it not too presumptuous we would ask for a letter, a few lines written in the essay spirit from you. May I suggest ~~send~~ a thing? Among your papers is there not something short and unpublished that we may have?

Most cordially yours
 Henry Bell.
