Mission! - Angels might envy you of such a Mission!

Although I still cough some, my health is much better than in a long time - for which I am very grateful - Wishing you all a Very Happy New Year, I am
Yours with love,
Annie L. Munr. -

P.S. Your friend, Dr. Maclure, is still a very sick man - And I am told that John Cairns is very seriously sick too - His recovery is considered doubtful - if I am rightly informed -

Portage, Wis. - Jan. 19 - 1898.
My Dear Brother John - Many, many thanks to you for your New Year gift - And especially for the magazine. I have read and reread Miss Graydon's article with the greatest of pleasure - Was delighted, and more than delighted with it - It is an inspiration!
I wish I might make Miss Graydon's acquaintance.
Is she like Aunt Moor?
What do you know of Aunt's health now? I have heard nothing of her for a long time.
Would like to hear -

Could you give me Anna Merrill Foster's present address?
She wrote to me months ago, and I carelessly lost the address then given me, and as she did not write again I have no address of hers and so cannot reply to her last letter -

I enjoyed, yesterday, a swift & exhilarating sleigh ride out among the Caledonia bluffs. The day was sunny and bright: The temperature
freezing point: As we had previously had a rain which had gradually changed to ice, encasing each twig & limb & then, following this, on the night preceding my ride, a heavy hard frost which added decoration, to the already jewelled trees & shrubs; the result was enchanting.

I wish Helen & Wanda could have been with me to see it, & to enjoy the ride too.
They would think they were realizing some fairytale dream.

I am sorry to know that you have been suffering from some bronchial trouble.
Hope you are better now & will long enjoy strength & health, that you may yet write volumes which will uplift & inspire with the thought of God's goodness & love & presence in all things, as shown in his "Wonderful Works", which your mission. it seems. Oh glorious
