BLUE KEY RECEIVES CHARTER

'Fairy Tales' Gras Decoration Theme; Hackett Toodles For Costume Ball

"Fairy Tales" will be the theme of all floats and decorations for the 14th annual Mardi Gras which will be presented May 12 and 13 under the chairmanship of Eddie LeBaron.

High point of the weekend will be the tradition costume dance Saturday evening from 9-11 in the Civic Auditorium with dancing to the music of Ray Hackett's orchestra. Tickets for the dance may be obtained at the F.S.A. office from May 8 to May 12 during lunch hour. Each F.S.A. cardholder is entitled to two tickets to the dance. Those who bring guests must give the name of the guest at the time tickets are procured.

The Friday evening parade through downtown Stockton has been scheduled to start at 6:30. All on and off-campus houses will be decorated to fit the "Fairy Tale" theme, but open house will be held only at the three fraternities Friday night from 9-12.

Alumni who are planning to attend the Mardi Gras Ball may obtain tickets by writing to the Alumni Office, c-o Joe Hodson, or by calling for tickets by Saturday, May 13, at the Alumni Office. All paid-up members of the Alumni Association are eligible to apply for tickets.

P. S. A. Election Wrinkle; Constitutional Exam Set For Spring Candidates

Blue Key Installs Chapter at COP

Those blue enamel and gold eagle pins which are being worn around the campus are the official pins of the newly formed Blue Key club. College of the Pacific has wanted a Blue Key chapter since 1933, when the organization first came into existence, but not until last Friday, April 21, did the chapter get a charter.

With Dean Betz initiated as faculty advisor, 12 students became charter members. They were chosen on the basis of scholarship equal to or above the average of all men students plus leadership in campus affairs and in their departments. The 12 members are: Robert McConnell, president; Bruce Orvis, vice-president; Joe Rhin, secretary; Harry Kane, alumni secretary; Monroe Hess, Joe Henman, Jim Hodges, Rudy Jensen, Edward LeBaron, Jim Mueller, Rex Mull, and Phil Tippet.

Mr. Beverly Barnett from Los Angeles was the installing officer. Also attending the installation were chapter officers and members from San Jose State, Fresno State, and University of California at Santa Barbara. In May, another group will be added to the organization. The formal announcement of the names will be made later.

Blue Key is the first organization of its kind at C.O.P., in that it works outside of a social group for the benefit of the college. The new organization plans as its first project a variety show to be given May 27, and hopes to make it an annual affair.

All nominees must take a constitution test Monday, May 1, at 4 p.m. at the F.S.A. office. Elementary Robert's Rules of Order will also be included in the test. Nominations will not be official until final results of the constitution test are tabulated.

Violation of any rules will result in the disqualification of the candidate, and all cases of rule abridgements will be handled by the student affairs committee.

COP Business, Trade Students Cover S. F.

College of the Pacific students of business administration and foreign trade are visiting San Francisco today as guests of banking, foreign trade, and foreign trade zone officials.

The undergraduates numbering 125, are being accompanied by O. H. Ritter, chairman of the department of business administration and executive vice-president and comptroller of the College of Pacific at Stockton.

The inspection trip and entertainment in San Francisco, according to Ritter, is a return courtesy for a recent banquet at the College when thirty San Francisco business and chamber of Commerce leaders met with the Pacific business students.

INFIRMARY.

The F.S.A. Committee investigating the infirmity met Monday night and will present its final report and recommendations to the Senate on Monday.

Chairman Glenn Smith and his committee members have put in a lot of time in collecting information and in weeding out the worthless gripes from the legitimate complaints. Their recommendations will cover the points which they believe need correcting, and all are backed up by evidence.

Comm. Ponders Raitt's Successor

A number of applications for the position of Anderson Y Center Director are now under consideration, according to Miss Lorraine Knowles, co-ordinator of COP-SC.

The vacancy in this office is due to the recent resignation of Y Secretary Walt Raitt, effective in June. The Personnel Committee of the Y Center, made up of faculty and students, will make the final choice of the new director in cooperation with the COP administration. Miss Knowles is chairman of this committee.

Radio Stations KAE0, KCVN to Hold Open House

By DICK CANNON

COP's Radio Stations, KAE0 and KCVN, are inviting all College of Pacific and Stockton College students to visit the studio next Tuesday, May 2nd, when they hold open house from 9 a.m. until 11 a.m. and from 12 noon to 8 p.m. The purpose is to acquaint any interested students with what goes on in a radio station, and as a special feature an audition with tape recording will be given to any student who can show an F.S.A. acknowledgment of the purchase of a Naranjado. As soon as the recording is made it will be played back, so any student can hear just what comes out of a mike. Station Manager Jim Hodges warns that your voice may not be what you think, so don't blame the technician who makes the tape if you sound like a man from Mars.

At intervals during the day, tape recordings of interviews obtained by Dick Claus with Marian Anderson, Helen Gehagan Douglas, Dave Brubeck, Leonard Bernstein and others will be aired in the main studio. The hours of these rebroadcasts will be posted on the radio bulletin board at the student union building and at various places in the radio shack on open house day.

Another feature of open house will be the recording of a radio show in the main studio at 2 p.m. As many students as can be accommodated in the main studio will be admitted to see this actual production of a live show, with producer, director, engineer, sound man, actors following a script just as is done for the shows that go out over KCVN and KAE0.

The student staff which operates KAE0 would like to make 'open house' a regular monthly feature if there is enough interest to warrant it. This is an opportunity to see what goes on in a radio station and learn why so many radio men develop ulcers, yet keep at it just the same.

All Stockton College 14th year students wishing to run for a P.S.A. office must have submitted an application for entrance to College of the Pacific and must have received a tentative acceptance from the Office of the Director of Admissions.

Nominations For Fall YMCA-YWCA Officers

Nominations for fall officers of the campus YMCA and YWCA were announced this week by Don Martin and Helen Moore, presidents.

Nominations for Women's Y offices include Vice President, Jane Moore; Secretary, Mary Cappa, Sue Roy, and Jan Thompson; and Treasurer, Iva Smith and Luramae Sanders. Presidential candidates will be named by petition.

Students selected by the nominating committee of the Men's Y are: President, Gil Jones and Bob Schumacher; COP Vice President, Ron Pilegard and Ira Wheatley; SC Vice President, Don Black, Roy Vaught, and Jim Williams;

Vet Students Informed On Summer School

Veterans, already in school under the GI Bill, who intend to continue education this summer in a different school other than they are now enrolled in, should apply at once for a supplemental certificate of eligibility.

Application forms for the certificates may be obtained from the registrar's office or from any VA office. After filling out the application, it should be sent to the VA office having jurisdiction over the school of present enrollment.

Secretary, Jose Gonzales, Scott McIntyre, and Dave Roberts; and Treasurer, Jerry Alves, Dick Bat-ten, and Ed Schell.

COP-SC Band Returns From Successful Tour

Last week the COP-SC Band went on tour, playing in three Northern California towns, Auburn, Redding and Woodland.

Featured in the performances were Del Winning at the piano and John Rando on the clarinet. Director Heisinger has an aggregation of musicians that are a credit to the colleges, and much enthusiasm was reported from the audiences at each stop.

An interesting extra-curricular event brightened the second day for the members of the band. The dressing room looked out on the arena where the drum majorettes were practicing at Woodlands, and the director had difficulty dragging the reluctant musicians to the stage.

AQUATIC CLUB PRESENTS "HOLIDAY CARNIVAL"

The Pacific Aquatic Club has just announced the program for the "Holiday Carnival" to be presented May 17th through 20th, in the College of the Pacific pool.

(1) The Overture this year consists of a nineteen-piece orchestra, with musical arrangement by Arthur Cora, who also directs.

Art Show Baffles SC Eager Beaver

By HAROLD EATON

Last Wednesday afternoon as I rested at my post on the College Book store bench, I noticed an eager-looking crowd scouring back and forth from the Dust Bowl on the South Campus. Old curiosity got the best of me, so I pulled up my Argyles and followed the crowd to our expanding Art Department, and, boy, were they expanding! There were exhibits covering the lawns, in front of buildings O, P, and on the lawns between buildings M to L.

Being no expert in deciphering the meaning of modern art I wandered through the exhibits and found that some of the distinguished looking visitors were also trying to understand a few of the art classes' paintings. The Art Department had a fine display of pictures, the meanings depending on the individual's imagination.

One of the most outstanding exhibits was that of the Art Metal-work Department, which was a kleptomaniac's paradise. I wanted to help myself to a beautiful assortment of hand-tooled belt buckles, sterling silver rings, bracelets, and various pins there, but, restraining myself, I wandered into the Ceramics and Weaving displays and was equally tempted by the fascinating articles such as rugs, place mats, and pottery, from finger bowls to vases.

By following my curiosity, I discovered that Stockton College has an array of artistic talent which deserves inspection by everyone.

Cal History Foundation Offers Prizes to Grads

Entries for the Kirkbride History Contest must be turned in by May 8th. This is the date set by Dr. Rockwell Hunt, Director of the California History Foundation for this year's papers.

The Kirkbride Contest, limited to COP students, is made possible through the generosity of Mr. Charles Kirkbride, who offers prizes of $25, $15 and $10 for the best original articles on local California history.

Entries must be typewritten and should be turned in at 205 Bannister Hall. Winners will be announced at Commencement.

California exports approximately a billion feet of lumber annually.

Those in the orchestra are: John Nastari, Betty Howard, La Verne Krull, James Goforth, Suzanne Farria, Harriett Scott, Hil-da Havens, Nadine Proffitt, Wes Buffum, Joan Damerou, George Peavy, John Rando, Bud Behrens, Cyrus Hickinbotham, Gerry Parodi, Sam Kamilos, Wayne Merry, Helen Flaharty, and Marie Joan Campbell.

(2) A Square dance and the weaving of a Maypole in water will feature Elizabeth Penn, Diana Noble, Jeanne Wallace, Robyn Wilsey, Nance Bartlett, Sue Cohan, Adren Hatch, Betty Wise, Dorothy Dunn, and Alice Boggie.

(3) Dotty Wright and Jo McCable will appear in one duet, and Betty Geddes and Larri Harus will be featured in another.

(4) An octet featuring Ilma Kauka, Ruth Cunningham, Janice Nicholson, Gloria Gold, Hew Kendal, Church Holtz, Glen Smith and Jack Murphy will also be presented.

(5) Morrie Green and Bob Sherman will provide the diving exhibition demonstration.

(6) A Barber Shop Quartet titled the "College Four" starring Leland Brestler, bass; Harry Jordan, first tenor; Don Curtis, lead; and John Nastari, baritone, will serenade the swimmers with the latest songs.

(7) The Stockton School of Judo will demonstrate the latest thing in their specialty.

(8) Comedy diving and medley relays make up another part of the Aquacade.

(9) The main feature will be a horse race — four horses and riders. The names of students who are participating in this act are withheld until the night of the show.

(10) The finale will feature the entire cast.

Racing Film Will Be On SC Campus Tuesday

"Patterned for Sportsmanship," a film telling the story of the thousands of boys who compete in the greatest of all amateur racing events, the soap box derby, will be shown next Tuesday in room C-3 on the south campus.

On the same bill, "Caravan," a film telling the story of the internationally famous General Motors "Parade of Progress" will be featured.

Next Thursday, May 4, "Romeo and Juliet," starring Leslie Howard and Norma Shearer will be shown free of charge. On Tuesday, May 9, "Unfinished Rainbows," a film starring Alan Ladd, who plays the part of a chemistry professor, will be at the noon movies.

GOOZEE HOMER WINS FOR GREEN VALLEY

By DICK CANNON

Last Friday evening the premiere performance of "The Green Valley" by Frank Watron was presented in the Pacific Theater.

Directed by De Marcus Brown, the play, which is a fantasy that appears almost believable, was acted by a cast of advanced drama students. The settings and story were adequate, though not world shaking. The casting was the director's business. And here's the way it looked to an earthy, unartistic soul.

The story centers on the Berry farm, owned by Eldon (Berry) and coveted by one Tobias Everheel. Astonishing crops were being raised, due to the numerous uneasy ancestors buried all about the place. Strawberries as big as watermelons and beans like baseballs grow with wild abandon. An off-stage cow gives milk that permits the drinkers to see past generations of Berrys when they cavort at nights.

The action revolves around Everheel's attempts to steal the farm from the Lil Abnerish Eldon, and the activities of the resurrected Berrys to prevent it. Of course, virtue triumphs and the villain departs in despair, but not before strange things take place.

Willard Clarke as Eldon is adequately simple, but has a hard time keeping up with his opposite number, played by Marcia Lou Brown, who over-acts a part that is plenty meaty enough without it.

Tom Rosqui, as the grasping Everheel, handles a difficult part rather well. It may be that his tendency to turn his back on the audience was caused by shame at the antics of his faithless tractor driver, who pranced in, fresh as a daisy, after wrestling the soil for days on end. Rob Dickerson did a surprising lot of mugging for so good an actor.

Penny Fitzgerald completes the list of mortal characters in the play, and seemed to have an attack of something or other. One line would come out good and the next hit a snafu. Perhaps the shock of finding herself cast as a big-domed archeologist was too much.

Then came the sprightly Berrys from the past, led by Grandpaw, whiskers, muzzleloader and boots all complete. Don't try to tell the audience it was Sherwood Goozee; they won't believe you. It WAS Grandpaw right there before their eyes. Needing some brawn, the next ghost called up was rather solid, name of Lonesome Berry, buried off to himself because of his 'loathsome' nature. Who should this be but John Poulos? And anyone who thinks football players are dead between the ears has news coming — the big lug can act!

Other recalled Berrys included Grandmaw, played by Molly Levine, and Prudence, overplayed to the hilt by Barbara Rowley.

In the end, evil is frustrated,

'Cherry Orchard' Modern Classic

By BETTY EBY

Monday night a play under the direction of Paul Vieregge opened in the downstairs theatre. Considering the limitations of the state and the inexperience of most of the players, it was a very smooth production.

"The Cherry Orchard", by Anton Tchekov was written as a modern classic depicting the decadent aristocracy of Czarist Russia early in the 20th century.

Alice Call, playing the role of Madame Ranevsky, has a few shining moments but unfortunately these are far between. Her weeping scene was one of the best.

The part of Firs was played very well by Jack Jones. His make-up was professional to say the least, and his voice carried even to the very back of the theater, which is unusual.

John Cretan, a veteran of the Upsairs in such productions as Caesar, played the character of Lopakhin, a peasant who rose to wealth and power in a double role. Was he serious or was he comedy? One large pat on the back.

Bobs Dix and Don Robinson, along with Norma Nickelman, seem to be headed toward the top in the drama department, even though the roles they played were mainly supporting.

The bowed scholar, Peter, played by Jim LaMar could have stood a bit more polishing. Eileen Russell, Bill Sibley, Ed Davies, Betty Benson, Pete Duncan, and Bob O'Hare helped no end with supporting roles.

Pacific Theater Group

Now in its final week of performances is Pacific Theatre's last production of the season, "Green Valley" by Frank Watron. The play is an original folk fantasy, and is being presented by the Pacific Theatre Drama group under the direction of DeMarcus Brown for the first time anywhere. Final production dates are tonight and tomorrow night, with all curtains at 8:00 p.m.

Featured in the leading roles are Willard Clarke, Marcia Lou Brown, Tom Rosqui, Rob Dickerson, Penny Fitzgerald, and Barbara Rowley. Others in the cast are Sherwood Goozee, Molly Levine, Ronnie Hull, George Hall, Darlene Wise, John Poulos, Ron Pilegard, George Nunn, Max Huber.

MUSIC NOTES

by BEVERLEY CARPENTER

ORCHESTRA FESTIVAL

The Northern California Jr. College Orchestras will hold a music festival on the C.O.P. campus next Monday. In honor of this all-day festival the C.O.P.S.C. Conservatory Orchestra, under the direction of Horace I. Brown, and the C.O.P. A Cappella Choir, directed by J. Russell Bodley, will present an all-Debussy program at 8:15 in the evening.

The concert will include:

Three Nocturnes for the Orchestra, "Clouds", "Sirens", and "Festival". Two songs for A Cappella Choir: "Lord how lovely hast Thou made me dear", "Tambourine" — alto solo by Betty Strickland.

The Blessed Damosal (poem by Rosetti) Lynne Hawkins Clark — The Blessed Damosel; June Hook narrator. The Afternoon of a Fawn, solo flutist, Caryl Mae Jones.

MU PHI EPSILON

On April 10th, twelve new students were pledged into the Mu Eta chapter of Mu Phi Epsilon, by Joyce Heaton, president, at the home of Mrs. Wilhelmina Harbert, faculty advisor.

Those pledged were: Betty Ashley, Barbara Baker, Marilyn Grafis, Frances Groves, Doreen Ham, June Hunt, La Verne Krull, Joan Martin, Sarah Sableman, Adrienna Von Konynenburg, Alida Quick and Sylvia Wallace.

A musical with Shirley Arthur, past president, presenting a piano solo, was followed by refreshments.

good is victorious, Lonesome grieves over the lost 'heart' (carburetor) of the tractor and Grandpaw triumphantly blows the smoke from his gun.

The audience leaves the show with two questions uppermost in their minds: (a) Did the director order the overacting? (b) How long can Goozee escape the professional stage?

There were 52.9 telephones for every 100 San Franciscans on January 1, 1949.

Entry blanks must be obtained from CBS Awards, 15 E. 47th St., New York City. Contest ends June 20.

Omega Phi Starts Library Memorial

A memorial fund in the library of the College of Pacific has been set up by Omega Phi Alpha honoring the memory of John Thornton Wood, a brother of that fraternity, who died in a plane crash on January twenty-second, 1949.

Original and subsequent gifts are to be used by the library for the securing of books in the field of fiction.

Presentation was made Monday when John Rohde, president of Omega Phi, gave the check to Dr. Robert Burns.

IRC HOLDS MEETING

Spring officers for the International Relations Club were elected at the April 13 meeting.

Florence Ingleston captured the president's position, with Noori Ibrahim as vice president. Betty Brusseau is secretary, and Manuel Gaxiola will handle finances.

Two COP students, Bob Wellington and Edward Rosas, have been chosen by the Carnegie Endowment for International Peace to go on the annual European tour.

The next meeting will be at 11 a.m., May 4 at the Anderson Y Center.

Speech Dept. In Reading Hour

At 4:15 Wednesday afternoons for the next four weeks, a series of readings by the Advanced Interpretation Class, will be offered by the speech department in Room 210, Ad Building.

This is the first time a program of this type has been offered. Its purpose is to give the people in the class experience reading before groups, and to present a series of programs based on classical and modern literature for the enjoyment and education of the audience.

The selections to be read at this Wednesday's meeting will be "Build a Fire", by Jack London, and "The Outcasts of Poker Flat", by Bret Harte. The readings are to be given by Jack Giles, a junior majoring in speech.

The meetings are under the direction of Professor Schoell.

TIGER TANKMEN BATTLE SWINJUNS

No Spring Football Game With USF

By MORRIE EDELSTEIN

The proposal of John Peri, Sports Editor of the Stockton Record, for a spring practice game between the Pacific Tigers and USF is futile, according to Larry Seimering, Pacific football coach. Independent schools in this area are governed by the Pacific Coast Conference, and the PCC has certain rules against playing games prior to the fall season. Coach Seimering said that the game was not impossible but that neither school would consider such a proposition.

The Pacific coaches have been working the team hard, spending most of the first week on defense. This week the scene shifted to offense and making touchdowns. Practice sessions are usually held from 3:30 p.m. to 5:30 p.m. on Knoles Field.

Vieing for the quarterback spot left open by Eddie LeBaron are two capable boys, Doug Scovil and Tony Geremia. So far both boys have showed well in practice. The edge for the spot should be given to Scovil since he understudied Eddie last year and is more experienced with Seimering's techniques.

Newcomers who have shown exceptionally well are linebackers George Johansen from Menlo J. C., Keever Jankovich from Santa Ana J.C., Halfback Tom McCormick from Menlo, and Tackle Bill Kelly from Taft.

Mustang Mermen Seek To Renew Win Streak

The Stockton College swim team will attempt to return to their winning ways when they battle Modesto here tomorrow morning at 10:30 a.m. at the Pacific pool. The Mustang mermen have suffered two consecutive defeats to the Cal Frosh and San Francisco State, respectively. The latter defeated SC, 41-34, at the Pacific Pool last Friday.

The Mustangs were forced to forfeit the medley relay to the Gators of SF State because of the absence of their backstrokers. That absence also aided the Gators in gaining points in the 150 yard back stroke.

Top individual effort for the Mustang mermen was Gordon Gillin's victories in both the 220 and 440 yard free style. Gillin covered the former distance in his fastest time, 2:25.2. Hal Ball chased Gillin in the wire in both events, placing second.

Jim Stackhouse won his fourth diving event in five meets, and Al Light placed first in the 200 yard back stroke to net the other wins for Stockton College.

Bob Jimenez, member of last year's Mustang squad and Junior College All-America, won the 50 and 100 yard free style for the Gators. Jimenez and the Gators will return to the Pacific Pool to battle the Bengal Splashes on May 5.

Stockton College is undefeated in junior college dual meets this season and are favored to repel Modesto's challenge without difficulty. Their big meet of the season will be the NCJCC meet to be held at Vallejo on May 13. The Mustangs are favored to annex their fourth consecutive conference crown at that meet.

Mustang Tracksters Seek Section Crown

Tomorrow night the Mustang thinclads travel to Modesto to compete in the southern section NCJCC meet. The Mustangs and San Mateo are co-favorites to cop the crown.

Last Saturday the Mustangs trounced Santa Rosa, 79½ to 50½. This win kept the Stockton College interschool meet record unblemished. The Mustangs have not been defeated in dual competition since 1946.

Ray Hurlburt was the top point-getter for SC, scoring 15 points. Hurlburt scored firsts in the 440, broad jump, and high jump. The closest race of the day was the 100 yard dash which ended in a dead heat between Stockton's Bob Hudson and Johnny Cobb.

Last Saturday's results:

Mile run — McMullin (SF), Opper (S), Warren (S).

440 yard dash — Hurlburt (S), O'Neal (S), Underwood (SR).

100 yard dash — Tie between Cobb (S), and Hudson (S), Robinson (SR).

120 yard high hurdles — McClaskey (SR), Gordon (SR), Artis (S).

880 yard run — McMullin (SR), Beers (SR), Schell (S).

220 yard dash — Hudson (S), Cobb (S), Robinson (SR).

Two mile run — Davies (S), Stevens (SR), Ancita (SR).

220 yard low hurdles — Beers (SR), Beto (S), Fletzfinger (SR).

Mile relay — Santa Rosa.

Pole vault — Tofflemire (S), Fitch (S).

Shotput — Psaltis (SR), Fairchild (S), Yost (SR).

Discus — Jones (S), Ginip (SR), Eastus (S).

Broad Jump — Hurlburt (S), Roberts (S), tied between Stewart (S) and Wilson (SR).

High jump — Hurlburt (S), Roberts (S), Sankowich (SR).

Javelin — Butterfield (S), Cooper (S), Fitch (S).

Bengal Baseballers Split Fresno Series

The Pacific baseball club split a twin bill with Fresno State College 2-5, and 15-2 last Wednesday in a wild day of baseball at the Oak Park diamond here in Stockton. After dropping the first game of the double-header to the Bulldogs, the Bengal nine came back in the night game to swat out 15 hits in their 15-2 victory.

Fresno used two pitchers, one of them twice, in an effort to stop the Tiger hitting streak, but to no avail. In the first inning 17 men came to bat for the Tigers as they pushed home 13 runs. In that inning 14 Tigers got on base via walks, base hits, or by being hit by pitched balls.

Pitcher Bob Grunsky went the whole way for the Pacific's, giving up six scattered hits to the Staters.

The next Pacific home game will be a double-header against San Jose Tuesday, May 2. The first game at 2:00.

PACIFIC TIGER CINDERMEN MEET SF STATE GATORS

Seeking to return to the win side of the ledger, the Pacific trackmen host the San Francisco State Gators at Baxter Stadium tomorrow afternoon. The field events will start at 2 p.m. while the mile run will start off the track events at 2:30 p.m.

The College of Pacific will not send their relay team to Drake this year because injuries to three of the four men on the team has reduced the ability of the Tigers to compete with the top squads of the east. Clem Cope and Howie Stokes have been bothered throughout the season by pulled leg muscles while Rayce Mason is just recovering from a foot injury. Cope competed in his first inter-collegiate meet of the season against San Jose last Saturday.

Bengal Splasher's Clean Record Challenged by Stanford Today

Cullenward and Driggs

By NORM RITTER of Stanford

Stanford's swimming Indians come to Stockton this afternoon to take their toughest test so far this spring — this one from COP's undefeated Tigers.

The Cards — also with a clean slate in dual meet competition — have been outscored twice by the Bengals in regional meetings this year. They trailed the Tigers 38-33 in the Southern Pacific Association meet won by USC in March. Competing unattached, the Stanfords bowed again to COP 13-8 in the Northern PAA joust at the Olympic Club later in the same month.

At first hand then, one could conclude that Chris Kjeldsen's men merit the role of favorites in today's contest. But wait a minute . . .

COP's strength lies chiefly in the individual brilliance of Jon Stebbins, Frank Poucher, Dick Cullenward, and the fleet medley of Stebbins, Poucher, and Bob Steel. Here the Tigers are tops.

To overcome the Indians, Coach Kjeldsen & Co. must cope with Stanford's team depth, which is unpredictable in quality but sure-fire in quantity.

Coach Tom Haynie's trump card if Stanford wins today will undoubtedly be his four-man relay and his one-two middle distance punch—Ralph Sala and Pete Cole.

The relay team of Ernie Polte, Bob Frojen, Dave Chapman, and Bruce Putnam has consistently bettered 3:40, its high water mark being a 3:36 effort over a 20-yard course against Fullerton JC.

NCAA quarter-mile king Sala and his sophomore sidekick Cole have been the Farm's steadiest performers to date. Both rate an edge over Cullenward in the 440, but Ralph should slip in ahead of Cole in the furlong.

However, a repeat by Don Driggs of his sensational 2:15 feat against Cal last week would foul up the form chart.

There's one more "if." To be eligible to swim at all, Sala and Cole must get the okay on some deferred finals which they took this week.

(Editor's note: Norm Ritter attended Stockton College before transferring to Stanford. He now writes sports for the Stanford Daily.)

Mustang Maulers Split Doublebill With Pirates

The Stockton College Mustang nine yielded one game of a double header 23-7 to the Modesto Junior College Pirates last Saturday on the Pirate's home diamond. The 'Tangs came back in the nightcap to sink the Pirates 6-5.

The Stockton horsehiders could not seem to hold on to the ball in the first game, although they were powerful at the plate. In spite of the lopsided score, the Mustangs clouted fourteen base hits off of Modesto pitcher Vern Patero.

In the second game, hurler Frank Bevelaqua held the Pirates to seven safe ones, while Stockton hit seven times in their winning effort.

The Mustang travel to Menlo next week to do battle in their fourth NCJCC double header.

used next year or for another relay meet besides Fresno and Modesto later in the season. The Fresno and Modesto relays are already on the Tiger schedule.

The Tiger cinder squad suffered a severe blow when Don Brooks pulled a ligament while competing in the 100 yard dash at San Jose. Brooks will not be ready for the meet this week but is expected to be able to compete in the Fresno Relays on May 13. Brooks' time in the 220 yard low hurdles thus far this season has been comparable to the best in the nation.

Last Saturday the Pacific track team was trounced by San Jose State, 94 2/3 to 36 1/3. The Bengals' morale was deflated by the loss of Brooks and went lower when Rayce Mason was lost for the mile relay. Mason won the 880 easily but his leg gave out, and he was unable to compete in the relay. Mason's winning time in the 880 was 2:00.0. He was chased to the tape by Clem Cope to give the Tigers a one-two in that event.

Eddie Macon turned in the top individual effort for Pacific setting records in his winning the 220 and 440. Macon won the 440 in 48.7 setting a new meet and Spartan stadium record. His 21.2 was a new meet record in the 220.

San Jose's field strength was too much for the Tigers to overcome. The Spartans won all six field events, scoring 46 2/3 to Pacific's 7 1/3. Outstanding field man for the Gold and White was the pole vaulter George Mattos who cleared 14'5" and barely missed making the 14' 8" mark.

Four other meet records were broken. The San Jose mile relay team of Owen Moore, Reuben Derick, Bob Nicolai, and Don Davis handed Pacific its first defeat covering the distance in 3:25.2. This surpassed the meet record of 3:25.6 set by the Pacific team of Cope, Hess, Butler and Macon last year.

FANNON THE BREEZE

By WILL FANNON

The dedication ceremonies for the new stadium was botched by those in charge. It was poorly publicized both in the Weekly and the Stockton Record and was mishandled in many other ways. The poor build-up reduced the attendance and made what should be one of the gala events of the year nothing more than a mere assembly.

One of its most serious faults besides the lack of publicity was the failure of the chairman to include the 1949 football team in the ceremonies. In the estimation of most of the students and others, this football team was the direct responsibility for the new stadium. If this is so, why weren't they invited? The only member present was John Rohde, and the big end was informed of the ceremonies one-half hour before they were to take place.

Another group conspicuous because of their absence was the band. The Pacific band was the top band in northern California and did much last season to spread spirit among the student body. Where were they during the ceremony? Among the uninvited.

The failure to plan an adequate ceremony and to give it proper publicity reduced a great event to a common occurrence. This should not have happened, but it did. I hope that in future years that when other great dedication ceremonies are planned, that they are organized in such a manner that the student body and those responsible will be present and will take part in the affair.

BAY AREA PUBLICITY

The papers in the San Francisco area are back to their old tricks of ignoring Pacific when it comes to giving them space in their news sheets.

A good example of this is the news space devoted to the Tiger swimming team's recent victory over Cal. In that meet the Bengal splashers broke two pool records, but where could one find notice of it in the San Francisco sports pages. If you read the Chronicle, you could find it buried on page 7H of the green section. If you read the Examiner, you'd still be looking for it because it simply wasn't there. Another item missing from the sports pages of the two metropolitan dailies was the tennis team's win over Stanford. These are but two examples of what has been going on more or less throughout the spring.

I don't mean that Pacific doesn't always make the sports pages, for that would be an untruth, but I am complaining about the haphazard manner in which it does appear. I, personally, want to see Pacific publicized whether victorious or not, and I believe that the San Francisco papers could do a much better job in publishing sports news especially from this area.

HERE COMES STANFORD

If you're not doing anything this afternoon, you might wander down to the swim pool. The Pacific Pool is going to be the hottest thing on the West Coast today as the Pacific swim squad is going to challenge Stanford's superiority in northern Cal. The meet figures to be as close as a clothes hamper, and a third place may easily decide the meet.

Thus far in the season Stanford's distance aces, Ralph Sala and Peter Cole, have been ineligible, but the two may be set for the big meet and ready to face the challenge of Don Driggs and Dick Cullenward.

Another interesting duel will be the 150-yard back stroke between Weeden of Stanford and Frank Poucher. Weeden seemed to have the Indian sign on Poucher until the PAA meet this year, and then the Pacific ace came through with a top performance to down the Injun backstroke. The 200 yard breast stroke duel between Jon Stebbins and Ernie Poulte will be another piperoo. Stebbins will be favored because of his PAA win and better times, but anything can happen when these two meet.

It could be another first for Pacific.

Pacific Netters Invade Southland to Compete at Ojai

The College of Pacific tennis team faces its toughest road trip of the season as it invades the southlands to compete in the Ojai Valley Tournament and to battle the powerful Trojans of USC and the Bruins of UCLA.

The Ojai Valley Tournament is the outstanding inter-collegiate tennis tournament on the west coast and usually draws a field of top-flight competitors. Entrants in the tourney besides Pacific include USC, UCLA, Cal, Stanford, USF, Loyola, Pepperdine, and Arizona. Top individual performers include Earl Cochell of USC, Herb Flam of UCLA, Conway Catton and Harry Roche of USF, Pfister, Main of California, Garrett of UCLA, and Hugh Stewart and Gil Shea of USC. Team favorite for the trophy is USC, and individual favorites are Cochell and Flam.

TROJANS AND BRUINS

On Monday, May 1, and Tuesday, May 2, the Bengal netmen will risk their undefeated status against the undefeated men of Troy and the brisky Bruins, respectively. The southern schools are favored to be the first teams to hand the Tigers their first and second setbacks of the season.

Pacific's best chance at an upset will be in their match with UCLA. In two matches with Cal, the Bruins won both by scores of 5-4 and 8-1. In the first match, however, Flam was forced to forfeit to Main after rain postponed their originally scheduled match. The COP racquetters dumped the Golden Bears, 8-1, when they met on the Oak Park courts last month.

USC is favored to handle the Bengals in stride. If the Trojans continue their impressive play, they will be favored to succeed USF as national champs. Their ace, Earl Cochell, is in the top ten amateurs in the U.S.

The Tiger tennisers exacted revenge for the Orange and Black's track defeat at the hands of San Jose, by trouncing the Spartans, 8-1. COP lost only one doubles match when the Tigers paired their number three team of Clint Arbuckle and Don Jacobus against San Jose's top doubles combine of Butch Krikorian and Chet Bulwa. The score was 3-6, 6-2, 6-2.

Other results are as follows: Pfister (P) d. Krikorian, 6-4, 6-3; Winrich (P) d. Bulwa, 6-4, 1-6, 6-1; Arbuckle, (P) d. Russo, 6-0, 6-3; Hamilton (P) d. Castle, 8-6, 6-2; Jacobus (P) d. Parnay, 6-3, 6-4; Hall (P) d. Gale, 6-0, 7-5; Pfister and Hamilton (P) d. Castle and Gale, 9-7, 8-6; and Winrich and Hall (P) d. Russo and Parnay, 6-3, 6-2.

are: Haley (S) d. Slater 6-3, 6-1; Tucker (S) d. Keller, 6-1, 6-1; Sweet (S) d. Blanchard, 6-1, 6-0; Salaveria d. Taylor (S) 6-3, 7-5; Blumenfeld (S) d. Ballentyne, 6-0, 6-2.

Doubles: Haley-Tucker (S) d. Slater-Keller, 6-0, 6-0; Sweet-Blumenfeld (S) d. Blanchard-Ballentyne, 6-3, 6-2.

INTRAMURAL SPORTS

The Cut-Ups, Blues, and Omega Phi have won two games in the first week of intramural softball play.

Anyone interested in entering the straight elimination golf tourney can do so by signing up in the gym. There will be two classes, one for those with high scores and one for those with low scores. Matches are scheduled to begin this week.

Introducing Eddie Macon—

Introducing this week's featured athlete, Pacific's Eddie "Mile-a-Minute" Macon. Born on March 7, 1927, this 23 year old junior is now competing for the Tiger trackmen in the 220 yard dash, the 440 yard dash, and as anchor man on the mile-relay team.

Active, and very much so, in both football and track, Eddie started his athletic career at Edison High here in Stockton. While at Edison, he put forth his abilities in both track and football three years in a row.

Eddie is remembered as high point man in the high school division of the Modesto Relays in 1944. For his efforts he was rewarded by being chosen as the Outstanding High School Athlete of the year.

Macon has proved himself to be no less remarkable as a football player. Last year he compiled an 8.6 yards-per-carry average while running at left halfback for the unbeaten Tiger squad. And as safety man when playing defense, Eddie built for himself a reputation as being one of the best on the coast.

At present however, Macon is centering his interests on track. His goal at the moment is to be a member of the Pacific mile-relay team to beat Occidental College at the Fresno relays. Lead by Bill Parker, the Oxy team nosed out the Tigers last year, and Macon regards the coming race as a grudge affair.

Win, lose, or draw, however, Macon is certain to make his presence known during the next two years at Pacific.

Carnations and Candy Tell of Engagement

Eleven carnations delivered during dinner, and the twelfth with the traditional box of candy, served to announce to Mu Zeta Rho, the engagement of their sister, Betts Boyer and Glen Kinser on April 20.

Betts, daughter of Mrs. Olive Bowyer of Alameda, will graduate from Stockton College in June. Glen, son of Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Kinser of Los Angeles, is attending the California Polytechnic College at San Luis Obispo, majoring in electronics.

The newly engaged couple plan to wed in September in Alameda, and will reside in San Luis Obispo.

Wendy Hammond Is Campus Sweetheart

Wendy Hammond, blonde, blue-eyed sophomore from Alpha Theta was voted Campus Sweetheart Friday, April 21.

Wendy, who comes from Portland, Oregon, is majoring in Art and planning to go on to College of Pacific.

Because she was chosen Campus Sweetheart, Wendy was awarded the following prizes: a corsage of yellow roses; two tickets to the Fox theater; two tickets for dinner at the El Khobar restaurant; one dance lesson from Arthur Murray's dance studio; and two photographs, one to be kept by her, and the other to be displayed in the End Zone.

Between 1940 and 1948 the population of the San Joaquin Valley increased by 51 per cent.

Archania To Take Needy Children To Shrine Circus

Members of Archania are going to take a group of underprivileged children to the Polack Brothers Shrine Circus at the Civic Auditorium today. The one-day guardian will pay the child's admission and will also buy him other necessities of circus life such as peanuts, popcorn, candy, etc.

Don Kent who suggested the idea has been appointed chairman of the committee. Other members include Rayce Mason, Dave McDonald, Del Helm, Ferris Ross, Horton Peckenpaugh, and Jay McGee. The committee will make all arrangements and organize the affair.

Beachcombers to Invade S. Hall

"Beachcomber" was the theme chosen for a dance to be held tonight from 9 p.m. to 12 p.m. at South Hall.

Dottie Duart is chairman of the dance with Joan Dealy at the head of the decorations committee, Ann Pollock is in charge of entertainment, and Ellen Peek is taking care of the entertainment. Sharon Mewhirter and her committee has the job of cleaning up after the dance is over.

Hearst Ranch Picnic Tomorrow

Tomorrow is the day set for the Inter-Fraternity picnic at Hearst Ranch. Members from all three campus fraternities and their guests are to attend this, the first inter-fraternity affair in several years.

Hearst Ranch is extending all facilities such as swimming, dancing, tennis, and a barbecued chicken dinner is to be included.

Music will be provided by the Johnnie Wheeler combo and the Dubonnet trio.

Sheila Flanagan to Wed Ken Gaiser

Sheila Flanagan and Ken Gaiser joined the campus' list of engaged couples last Monday evening when the bride-elect announced the news to West Hall residents by way of the traditional five pound box of candy.

Sheila, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Flanagan of Red Top Ranch, is a high freshman majoring in Liberal Arts. Ken is the son of Mrs. Gladys of Merced. He is now employed at the County Road Department.

The Wedding will take place in August.

Betty Hoffmayr Announces Troth

Betty Hoffmayr of West Hall announced her engagement to Robert Wasson, at a small party of friends in her room last April 11. Betty, daughter of Mrs. Allen Sapiro of Dos Palos, is a junior in the College of Pacific, majoring in psychology.

The groom-elect is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Wasson, of Santa Rosa. He is a speech major and is active in radio work.

Rhizomia Offers Literary Meeting

Last Sunday, April 23, Rho Lambda Phi presented its annual literary meeting and luncheon at the Rhizomia House. This meeting is held each Spring for members, parents and wives.

Chuck Holst, president of Rhizomia, presided at the meeting, and Mrs. Lottie M. Wolfe, house-mother, was hostess.

Entertainment was given by Art Venable, and Peter Devanis. Miss Bev Carpenter was accompanist.

Gene Nyquist, room 108, North Hall, would appreciate it if the person who picked up his binder last Friday, April 21, from the chow hall would please return it — at the least the notes.

RADIO DEPARTMENT AT WORK

SC Radio Barn Holds Gadgets Galore

To anyone not informed on the intricate subject of radio, then those persons would certainly be lost if they happened to wander into the Radio Barn on South Campus. This building consists of one large room plus five smaller store rooms. All these rooms are full of highly complicated radio tools and parts.

Here, you'll find many young men draped in grotesque positions over different radio receivers, battery chargers, or perhaps a power supply. You will hear these same people talking about resistors and transformers, condensers and transmitters, horizontal and vertical frequencies, oscilloscopes, and impedance bridges. All of these terms are very common to the radio student, but "Greek" to the average person not studying radio.

As one fellow said, "You've just got to learn a whole new language before you can understand radio. Radio terms can't be explained in common English."

To anyone interested in radio, and not in one of the classes, I believe that they would have a very enjoyable time going through the Radio Barn.

Love is blind, but marriage is an eye-opener.

COP Orators In National Contest

Mr. Charles Guss, Director of Forensic Activities, has just announced his choice of representatives for the 1950 Hearst Oratorical Contest.

Governors of states throughout the nation sent their endorsement and congratulations to both the students participating and the Hearst newspapers which sponsor the annual competition. This is the first time C.O.P. has had an entry in this tournament but Stockton College was represented last year.

Contestants are William Cunningham, senior from Santa Rosa, representing C.O.P., and Kurtis Mayer, sophomore from San Francisco, representing S.C.

The C.O.P. and S.C. contestants will speak in competition against

Pacific School of Ed With 514 Candidates

The number of teaching credential candidates on record with the School of Education office for the spring term of 1950 is 514, according to an announcement made recently by Dean Jantzen.

This number includes 227 elementary credential candidates, 40% of which are men; 222 general secondary candidates, 84% of which are men; and 50 special secondary candidates.

For those who do not understand these terms, the elementary credential field applies to those students planning to teach in the elementary school; the general secondary field applies to those preparing for general high school teaching; and the specific secondary are those majoring in specific fields of teaching. Included in the latter group this year are two majors in art, nine in homemaking, ten in P.S., and thirty-seven in music.

Alpha Gamma Sigma To Take In Members

Alpha Beta, the Stockton College chapter of Alpha Gamma Sigma, has scheduled an organizational meeting for next week, and all students who are eligible are urged to attend.

Eligibility requirements are a 2.3 G.P.A. or better. Invitations will be sent to all prospective members giving the time, place, and date.

"Membership in Alpha Gamma Sigma is one of the Junior College student's highest honors," stated Don Bruno, chapter president.

other colleges in this area, and the winner of each division represents his college at the Western State finals in Seattle. Area winners will compete for $1350 in bonds at the National finals in Baltimore, Maryland.

The contests are being held in Albany, Baltimore, Boston, New York, Chicago, Detroit, Milwaukee, Pittsburgh, San Antonio, Los Angeles, Seattle and San Francisco.

Anderson "Y"

Another in the Men's Y-sponsored forums and discussions, this one on loyalty oaths for colleges, will be aired Wednesday evening, May 3, at 8 p.m.

Prizes Being Offered For Caption Writing

College students will have a chance to disclose their hidden talents in a contest which will be conducted by Doubleday and Company, New York publishers, in connection with the May 1 publication of "Campus Zoo," by Clare Barnes, Jr. Mr. Barnes is the author of the best-sellers, "White Collar Zoo" and "Home Sweet Zoo."

In a bulletin received from the publishers, it is stated that "in 'Campus Zoo,' Mr. Barnes has turned out a 'year book' of campus activities which is designed to bring chuckles to both students and faculty members." In the contest, Doubleday and Company is offering cash awards for the best captions for a picture taken from the forthcoming book. The picture is now on display on the Student Union bulletin board. First prize will be $100 and 122 runner-up prizes for other captions selected by the judges. Altogether, $375 in prizes will be offered for the captions. Mr. Ken McCormick, Editor-in-Chief of Doubleday, and Mr. Clare Barnes, Jr., author of the forthcoming book will be the judges. All selections will be final.

The contest will open March 1 and all entries must be submitted by June. Only one entry can be submitted by a person, and entries will be judged on the basis of originality and humor. Each entry must contain the name of the student's school, campus address, and permanent address, together with the name of this publication. Prize-winners will be notified by mail sometime during the month of June. All entries will become the property of Doubleday and none will be returned.

Captions should not be more than 15 words in length, and should follow the form of the example picture which is also on the bulletin board.

Entries and any correspondence concerning the contest should be submitted to "Campus Zoo" Editor, Doubleday and Company, 14 W. 49th St., New York 20, N. Y.

Student Panel Meeting Set For Wednesday

As part of the Sears Hall Pre-Dedication program, a special student panel discussion will be held next Wednesday evening in the Faculty Lounge at 7:30. The topic for discussion will be "C.O.P. a Christian Campus? Students Answer—"

The students who will take part in this discussion are Bob McKibbin, Kathy Batten, Ira Wheatley, and Delsia Burns. Dean Lloyd Bertholf will act as moderator.

"All students are invited to attend this meeting as it will be a chance to express views on a Christian college," urges Shirley Reece, student chairman of the pre-dedication program.

Pacific Tiger Twirlers Adept at Folk Dancing

Do you like to folk dance? The Tiger Twirlers on C.O.P. campus seem to get a big bang out of it every other Monday night in the C.O.P. gym from 7:30 until 9:30. A group of the Tiger Twirlers with leader Lawton Harris, attended the Spring Festival at Stanford University on April 16th. There were representative groups from College of the Pacific, Stanford University, San Francisco State, University of California, and Mills College. Masters of Ceremonies were Peter Kjeldgaard and Jack Kendall.

Of coming interest to everyone on campus is the dedication of Sears Hall, the new addition to Morris Chapel, on May 5th. As part of the dedication ceremonies there will be an exhibition of folk dancing. "Cinco-De-Mayo" is the suggested theme from the annual Mexican holiday.

CHAPEL NEWS

The speaker for this Sunday chapel will be The Reverend Willard J. Rand of Woodland Methodist Church. His topic will be "On Getting Out of Step."

EDITORIAL

The recent showing of the Unit III students in the election to decide the new constitution for the PSA was very poor. An average of 165 students voted on every measure. That is a very slim minority.

Perhaps the students of Unit III did not realize the importance of the election. It decided the type of government that Pacific will have next year; it adopted the constitution and by-laws that will govern the students of Pacific.

In the new set-up the student bodies of our two schools are going to be split. What are now Units I and II will be united to form the Stockton College Students Association. Unit III is going to remain intact but will be known as the Pacific Students Association. That means that only Pacific students are going to decide Pacific affairs.

This year's students in Pacific did a fine job in building up their school. They staged a successful caravan to the Bay Area and sold scrip that made the new stadium a fact instead of a dream. These are but a few of their accomplishments. The main thing that they accomplished was the building of pride in Pacific. They were proud to be students of Pacific, and they let the world know about it.

Are the students of Pacific going to live on the laurels won by their classes of '49-'50? Just a word of warning. No one can live on a past reputation for long. We must build for ourselves a sense of unity and pride in the college. No one else can do it for us; we must do it ourselves.

In a few weeks we are going to have student body elections. Vote wisely, for your choice will determine your leadership; vote as you please but VOTE. Don't be a stay-at-home on election day. VOTE!

If you fail in building up the PSA, you will not only fail Pacific, but Pacific will fail. If you succeed, Pacific will succeed. Build a bigger and better Pacific. Take part in college activities.

MAC's MISCHIEF

Rhizomia officially welcomed the summer season with a roaring boating expedition down the channel last week-end. A motor boat, equipped with two engines challenged a shell boat powered by the energy of several glowing Rhizites. As if there wasn't enough water all around, the boys with the engines had a water pump to help matters.

The boy with the "shirt of the week" is Bill McFall, who turned out with a dilly the other day; navy blue dotted swiss, the background blue and the dots red. Really cool, kid, keep up the good work.

The bids for the Epsilon dance, "Shipwreck" were the most original I have ever seen. They were small bottles with scrolls inside that gave out the particulars, such as longitude, latitude, and so forth.

Alpha Thete came pretty close to losing two of their pledges last week during their sneak. Pat Thomas and Gloria Gold were hiding in a vacant lot while a carload of members drove through, missing them by a matter of inches.

Poor Jerry Gibberson, the campus playboy, is no longer operating since an unhappy incident the other night. His car was found not to have wings, and is now ready for the junk heap.

Things you really should have seen: Pete Davanis and his party manners at the Rhizomia Family day; Dean Monroe delaying the members of Mu Zeta from finding their pledges, who were buried in the underground garage of the Clark Hotel; the little man with the ruler on the first floor of Weber Hall advising against the evils of Alcohol; Dr. Ding's new method of keeping his students in suspense by waiting till the end of the period before handing back the tests; Stan Bourgeault trying to explain to John Poulos what type casting is (for further results, see Green Valley).

Jeanne Gist is reported to have worn a "narrow" gown for the Omega Phi Pledge party to foil the air vent, (it says here)—it didn't work.

Four Archites, with a spirit of adventure, have purchased a 20 foot sloop. They have been outfitted completely for an ocean voyage all the way from Buckley Cove to the port of San Francisco.

Tau Kappa's very novel take off of "Breakfast at Sardis", in honor of their pledges proved to be a huge success. Prizes were awarded to Pat Jarvis, Helen Moore, and Jackie Stinnett for the most original hats. They really deserved them, too!

Howie Watkins, Omega Phi's bashful boy, was more than a little flustered when the corsage he intended for his girl turned up missing at their dance the other night. After a slight search it reappeared; the incident straightened itself out beautifully — we hope.

The nation's only municipally owned opera house is in San Francisco.

GROUND BREAKING FOR STADIUM

The Outside World

By LEE ATWATER

Monday night the Stockton City Council soundly slapped the faces of the citizens. Another victory has been rung up by the special interests. We can no longer presume that the best interests of the city are considered by our city fathers.

The council laughed in the face of civic minded citizens who have given their utmost for the improvement of the city as a whole.

The Council refused to consider the opinions of the Chamber of Commerce with reference to a questionable Port of Stockton plan. They refused to consider, in the council chamber, applying the city sales tax to liquor sales. They refused to consider any alternatives to a Smith's Canal crossing, and succumbed to a few well-meaning canal residents who were so wrapped up in their own interests that they could not see beyond their property rights.

Far be it from this column to criticize the institution of private property; but these persons have chosen Stockton as their home, and they must consider the city above and beyond their own advantage.

This week President Truman answered Senator Joe McCarthy who is still blowing up his political balloons. The President referred to the McCarthy's as Right-Wing totalitarians who are endangering the country to deal

Sociology Class Takes to the Air

On Thursday, March 30, the Urban Sociology class of C.O.P. journeyed to San Francisco and took a two hour hop around the Bay Area, as far south as San Jose, in a Pan American World Airways Clipper. Their purpose was to view the physical manifestations of urban groupings.

with an alleged threat to our security.

Truman inferred that these political opportunists were endangering the freedom of the people as guaranteed in the Bill of Rights by circumscribing the regular processes of the government.

The President concluded that the country can not be run by a few 'false patriots' and some 'honest reactionaries' that are, in many cases motivated by political considerations.
