Martinez, July 9, 1848

My dear Johnson.

I hope to get away from here in August, go around by the great lakes spend a few days in my old haunts in the Canada woods & go south with Sargent & Canby along the Alleghenies to see the grand trees there in their autumn golden ^{plumage.} then home. This is all save a day or so in New York to salute you & perhaps a day in Boston.

I'm glad the reserves are not lost. But how comes it you & Pinchot have gone back on the military management when they have proved so successful, & special agents etc so complete failures? Ever Yours, John Muir

A little trip with you & Brewster will be my hope & I'll hope to see you or relay in manuscript
