My dear Johnson.

I am now making a little lonely raid northward to see the woods before the autumn tints fade. I left Boston this morning & expect to be in Montreal tomorrow morning. Return by Champlain & Lake George. Then make a run through the White Mtns & back to Boston next Monday or so. Had a grand time in the Southern woods. Our southwest point was Tuscaloosa Alabama - I meant to stop at N.Y. on my back but was told to hurry north if to see the woods in glory.

I ought to be in N.Y.
by the 28th or 30th & start homeward early in Nov. Sargent was to have made this trip with me but he is sick & may be in bed a few days. Was taken ill in
