Mu Zeta Rho Tea Presents New Housemother

Members of Mu Zeta Rho Sorority and members of the others and Patronesses Club will reside at a formal tea, introducing Mrs. Lucy Forkner, the new housemother, on Saturday afternoon. The spacious rooms of the house on the Pacific campus will receive guests from two until four o'clock.

Guests will be greeted by the door by Miss Hertha Rausch and Miss Betty Booth, house mother, Mrs. Louis Vannucci, president of the Mothers Club, Mrs. Emmet McComb, alumnae president will join Mrs. Forkner in receiving guests.

Mrs. Forkner is an extensive traveler and has lived in the tent for a number of years. Since taking Mu Zeta Rho her home she has added some rare Chinese furnishings and guests will be invited to view these.

From the corollary, the following girls are arranging the event: Mary Wolf, Pat Carson, Frances Richardson, Betty Booth, Mrs. Everett Wolf, Mrs. C. A. Rasm, Mrs. Luis Vannucci, and Mrs. I. W. Carson represent the Mothers Club.

At the tea table, beautifully appointed in the pastel theme, Mrs. Phoebe White and Miss Nla Rogers will preside.

Invitation to greet Mrs. Forkner has been extended to all sorority and fraternities, members of the faculty, and students and friends of the College.

Among the members of Mu Zeta who will assist in serving are Misses Doris Marsh, Frances Hillmark, Frances Richardson, Rita Folsum, Rita Sanguinetti, Mrs. Wolf, Mary Ranney, Beverly Milk, Betty Dixon, Pat Carson, Ruth Helliwig, Juan Bronzich, Ruth Lombardi, Mildred Lagarmosin, and Phyllis Grimshaw.

TAU KAPPA INITIATES

Thursday evening at seven-thirty o'clock, six pledges of Tau Kappa Kappa became members in god standing at a candlelight service. Under the direction of Helen Hall, president, Lucille Wilson, Alice Ladd, Edith Claire Hixon, Lois Lassall, Betty Barron, and Norma James were formally initiated. Decorations in the house color of orchid and yellow were used effectively throughout for a most impressive atmosphere.

At the conclusion of the ceremony, refreshments were served by Dawn Walters and Aline Durst. Miss Durst is a former president of the sorority.

Harrie Wooley just returned from a summer spent in the Hawaiian Islands.

DAN CUPID TAKES TOLL

Vacation has come and gone, leaving blushing brides within the portals of Epsilon Lambda Sigma. Dorothy Tamblyn became Mrs. John Spooner on Saturday, June 18. The ceremony, made beautiful by its simplicity, took place at the home of the bride in Nevada City. Family members alone witnessed the ceremony. The groom is a member of Alpha Kappa Phi.

First Methodist Church of Burlingame was the setting on Sunday, July 17, for the marriage of Irma Rickson to Alfred Rageth. The vows were exchanged in the presence of the two immediate families.

Mr. Roger Graves took as his bride Miss Doris Jean on Sunday, July 17. The ritual was read at the home of the bride in Hollister. Mrs. Graves will be remembered in her capacity as instructor at Pacific.

St. Jarath's Church in Oakland saw petite Mary Bay become Mrs. Roger Baer at ten in the morning on July 31. A reception was held after the ceremony at the Bay home. Mrs. Baer was the first queen of the Pacific Mardi Gras. Mr. Baer is affiliated with Archania.

Darting Dan darted again, and the result is a long list of engagements. The Stockton home of the DuBrutz will be the setting for the nuptials on September 18, of Barbara DuBrutz to Mr. Edmond Winlund. Only members of the two families will attend. Friends will be received after the ceremony at a reception in the bride's home. Miss DuBrutz attended Pacific for her first two years and then transferred to California.

Announcement was made early this week of the betrothal of Marjorie Mainard to Julien Ellis. While on the Pacific campus the couple was prominent in dramatic circles. Miss Mainard is affiliated with Epsilon, and her fiancé is a member of Omega Phi Alpha. No date has been set for the wedding.

November 20 is the date set for the wedding of Miss Eileen Daniels to Mr. Austin Coggins. A senior student, Miss Daniels is prominent in the musical circle on the campus. Mr. Coggins graduated from Pacific with the class of '32, and he is affiliated with Omega Phi.

POETRY CLUB MEETS

The Stockton Poetry Club had its first meeting last Thursday night at 8 o'clock, upstairs at Anderson Hall, under the guidance of this year's president, Mr. Robert Deitz, a graduate student of Pacific.

Members of the club are people in the city or those attending college who compose poetry, and the procedure is for each member to submit verse at the meeting to be discussed and criticized.

Usually the poems submitted are serious, but at this meeting the verse was of humorous style. This week's critic was Mrs. Gus Miller.

Women's Hall Elects New Officers

Succeeding Jan Wright as president of Women's Hall is Florence Mallik, who was elected at a special meeting Monday evening. In the secretarial capacity is Betty Barry.

Also elected were heads of the council. Bonnie Smith and Marabelle Rodier will represent the freshmen. Sophomore members will be Eunice Hood and Wilma Schwartz. Elaine Burns and Jean Hornsberger will serve the junior class group, and Louise West will represent the seniors.

Meetings will be held this year on Monday nights at eleven o'clock.

NEW FACULTY WELCOMED

Miss Lorraine Knoles, chairman of the Advisory Board of the S. C. A., will be in charge of the S. C. A. desert party to be given Friday evening at 6:30 p. m. at the home of Mrs. Charles Gulick. Badminton, croquet and other games will precede the meeting, which will mark the first joint session of the Student Cabinet and the Advisory Board of the S. C. A. The purpose of this gathering is to associate more closely the new members with the old.

Members of the Advisory Board active last year are Miss Lorraine Knoles, Mrs. R. A. Brady, Mrs. Fred Ellis, Mrs. Bert Swenson, Miss Ellen Deering, Mr. W. G. Young, Dr. H. H. Frost, Robert Barnes, Dean James Carson, A. A. Stagg, Dean Orton and President Knoles.

New members are Miss Katherine Kemp, Dean Opal Berg, Miss Eleanor McCann, Mrs. Irving Goleman, Mr. Al Waldo, Mr. J. Gwynn and Mr. Emery Fast.

RUBE DEMMON MARRIES

A large group from the College attended the wedding in Vallejo, August 20, of Ruberta Demmon, Junior College graduate and member of Alpha Theta Tau, to Edward Price, former College of Pacific student.

Among the guests were Minnie Sawyer, who sang, Betty Flickinger, Roberta Ball, Beesie Fraser, May Lou Whitmore, Muriel Logerwell, Virginia Chapman, Pat Savers and Marilyn Lyons.

JACOBY'S RETURN

Returning to the campus after a June wedding are Dr. and Mrs. Harold Jacoby. Before her wedding in Oakland, Mrs. Jacoby was Miss Joyce Dunkerly.

Dr. Jacoby has been a member of the Pacific faculty for several years, and his wife is secretary of the Student Christian Association on the campus.

As part of their honeymoon, the newlyweds toured the industrial cities of the United States.

Warm up, jitterbugs! The Thursday night dances have begun. If you didn't attend last night's dance at the Gym, plan to atone for your erring ways next week. Admission by student body card only, from 7 to 8 p. m. every Thursday evening.

Omega Phi Plans Hop

Opening what promises to be one of the most successful social seasons, Omega Phi Alpha completed plans at their meeting last night for an opening semester dance Saturday, September 24.

President Dick Patriquin assisted by Ed Koehler, who is vice-president and social secretary of the house, has secured Bob McCormick and his orchestra for the informal affair.

Unusual programs in keeping with the theme of the first dance of the season are being designed by Bob Bastian. A distinctly different feature of the dance will be a door prize for those attending.

Patrons and patronesses chosen for the occasion are Mr. and Mrs. Chris Kjeldsen, alumnus of the house, Mr. and Mrs. Art Farley, and Mrs. Cora Lynch.

Announcement was also made last night that both Junior Rotarians appointed by the Stockton Rotary Club are members of Omega Phi Alpha. The two selected are Bill Biddick, representing the Junior College, and Ed Koehler. Both are very prominent in house activities.

BECKER-MARTIN BETROTHED

Her twentieth birthday was an extra-special event for Miss Rachel Martin, for on that anniversary, July second, she announced her betrothal to Mr. William Harry Becker.

Miss Martin, who is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Martin of Stockton, attended the College of the Pacific and is now a senior student at San Jose State College. While on this campus she was active in S. C. A. work.

Mr. Becker is a junior at Pacific, editor of the Weekly, a member of the varsity football team, and prominent in campus activities. His fraternity is Rho Lambda Phi.

ZETA GATHEANS HAVE TEA

The newly organized Mother's Club of the Zetagean Club was honored Wednesday at a tea given at the home of President Knoles by the advisors, Miss Knoles, Mrs. Brady, and Mrs. Gulick. Miss Lorraine Knoles and Miss Naomi Fuqua, alumni members, poured, and the following upper-division girls assisted: Harriet Kientz, Gladys Sanguinetti, Arlene Tanner, Gladys Hughes, Aileen Buoy, Ingerborg von Loben Sels, Christina Vanden Akker, Florine Buoy, Doris Bishopberger, Margaret Haymond, and Pauline Crawford.

The Mother's Club was organized during the summer with the following officers elected: Mrs. I. Singleton, president; Mrs. Atchley, vice-president; Mrs. A. Buoy, secretary; Mrs. N. Sanguinetti, treasurer. The first meeting of the Zetagean Club will be held September 22, with the president, Doris Bishopberger, presiding.

She is assisted by the following officers: Harriet Kientz, vice-president; Margaret Haymond, secretary-treasurer; and Dorothy Lennox, historian.

On June 19, Dorothy Davis, Alpha Theta Tau, was married to John Johnson, Omega Phi Alpha, in Redding, California. Only members of the immediate family were present. Both are graduates of the College of Pacific.

Patty Pierce Returns From Bread Loaf

Enthusiasm ! ! ! You don't know the connotation of the word until Miss Pierce gets started on the subject of Bread Loaf!

What is it? Where is it? Why is it? One at a time—if you please. What? It is the summer school of Middlebury College. Where? Nestled up among the tops of the Green Mountains in Vermont, fifteen miles from any town. Why? It is Middlebury's summer school teaching only English and dramatics. Professors from all over the country come to contribute their knowledge to that already there.

Miss Pierce took courses from teachers of Yale, John Hopkins, Iowa University, along with many others. During the six and one-half weeks that they study—and the person in question firmly states that they STUDY—lecturers from various parts of the country come to discuss their various specialties. Particularly interesting is Robert Frost who contributes a scholarship to this school and spends at least three or four days there every year.

We placed the question of social life before the victim of our fire and with a ravenous gleam in her eye she exclaimed: "I wish you could have been on our picnic to Lake Champlain—the scenery was superb and the steaks they broiled!" Other entertainment afforded them are dances, plays presented by the students, and occasional musical evening sent directly from Middlebury College.

We had always thought of concentration demanding straight back chairs, cleared desk, and other so called necessities which had nothing to do with comfort. But not this institution! Classes meet in small sitting rooms, beautifully furnished with comfortable chairs, low lamps, and fires singing on the hearth. Not only the class rooms are furnished in this comfortable manner—also the library! And Miss Pierce still claims she studied as she never studied before in her life!

All members of the student body and faculty ate together in one big room. Three times a week they changed their seating capacity thus enabling them to become well acquainted with each other.

The students are mainly high school and college teachers. The number enrolled is limited to one hundred and fifty, and each year the executive board turns away that many disappointed applicants.

It is interesting to note that the main building of the school is an old inn. This building along with many acres of land was donated by a man who desired the retention of the woods in that portion of the country. Under the terms of the deed, the land can never be sold to anyone who will destroy the trees. Parts of the land have been sold to the state for parks. All of the money received from these exchanges of land goes to improvements beneficial to women students—this also being one of the conditions under which the land was given.

Miss Pierce attended one summer theatre which presented an old play—Diplomacy. We have a hunch from her that it did not live up to her expectation. While we are on the subject of the theatre, here is one for Ripley: Miss Patty Pierce, prominent member of the College of Pacific faculty, was in New York four days and saw six plays!

One of our professors, noted for his wit (sort of related to half-

Formal Reception Welcomes New Students

WATERMELON EVENT NEARS

Member of Rho, Lambda Phi will carry on tradition Thursday evening, September 22, by staging the seventy-third annual Watermelon Feed at the fraternity house. The feed, under the direction of Bob Adams, promises to be one of the biggest stag events of the season. Working under him is a committee composed of Bill Avery, Howard Hansbrow and Glen Harter.

INITIATIONS COMING

Informal initiation of new members into Rhozoma will take place at the fraternity house on September 23 and 24 under the direction of Herschel Evans, Ed Seville and James Fisher. The formal initiation will follow at midnight on the evening of Sunday, September 25, under the supervision of Park Wilson. New members to be initiated are Norman Lamb, Fred Van Dyke, "Ham" Briggs, and Ed Deny.

OFFICERS LISTED

Officers of Rhozoma for this semester are as follows: Park Wilson, president; Bob Kientz, vice-president; Dick Loomis, corresponding secretary; Bob Adams, sergeant-at-arms; and Pat Dunlap, house manager.

Howard Hansbrow, class of '40, was appointed Frosh King of Rho Lambda Phi for the ensuing year. The appointment was made by President Park Wilson at a meeting of the upper-class council of the organization Wednesday evening, September 7.

WHAT NEXT? NOW THE SPARROWS have a public relations counsel (Press Agent), it finally comes out that there are two races of sparrows on the Berkeley campus. They are identical in appearance, but different in habit and physiology. They can not interbreed. The Puget Sound sparrows migrate north in summer to their breeding grounds in Washington. The Nuttalls stay at Berkeley probably to take advantage of the summer sessions. The sparrows will not allow their kind near their nests, but the other race may come quite close.

Alpha Theta Tau Sorority House was the setting for a dinner Wednesday evening, honoring the new women of the faculty. Fall decorations and flowers were used in the dining and living rooms. Those honored were Dean Berg, Miss Cornog, Miss Wiens, Mrs. Arnold, Mrs. Clarke, Mrs. Connelly, and Mrs. Norman.

Ann Blundell, last year's president of Alpha Theta Tau, is making her home, at least temporarily, with her sister in Honolulu.

Wit, you know) dropped the idea that Miss Pierce went to Bread Loaf to loaf expecting to come back well bread ! ! !

P. S. "I can hardly wait to go back," she sighed with a joyful wiggle.

Dr. and Mrs. Tully C. Knoles

presided Monday evening at a delightful reception in Anderson Hall for the faculty and students of the Senior College.

Guests were received by Erwin Farley, president of the Pacific Student Association, and Juan Bronzich, vice-president.

In the receiving line with President and Mrs. Knoles were Dean Fred L. Farley, Dean and Mrs. J. C. Corson, Dean and Mrs. John C. Elliott, Dean Opal Berg, Registrar and Mrs. Robert Burns.

Miss Frances Bowerman of the Conservatory sang two numbers, and Mr. Harmon Ginn also gave vocal selections. They were accompanied by Eileen Daniels.

Guests were received from eight until ten o'clock. Dr. Knoles, Dr. Farley, and Dean Corson gave speeches of welcome.

Punch and cake were served throughout the evening by the Misses Eleanor McCann, Patty Pierce, Marie Breniman, Josephine Smith, and Mrs. G. Warren White.

Dr. and Mrs. Knoles were assisted by Miss Grace Carter in planning the formal affair.

ICE CREAM SOCIAL SET

Saturday evening, members of Tau Kappa Kappa will be hostesses to approximately one hundred and fifty guests at an Ice Cream Social. Beginning at eight o'clock, the informal affair will be held in the attractive garden adjoining the house.

Betty Anne Smith, in her capacity as chairman, has planned for a program in keeping with the informal and old-fashioned theme.

Assisting Miss Smith are the following committees: Decorations, Jean Strong, chairman, Elinor Shepard, Jean Woodruff; food, Loisma Ventré, chairman, Patty Mason, Aline Durst; serving, Betty Barron, Edith Claire Hixon, Grace Tener, Alice Ladd; program, Alice Hall, chairman, Rae Hungerford, Ruth Johnson, Evelyn Ward; cleanup, Norma James, Lucille Wilson and Lois Lassall.

Many alumnae of the house are expected to be present.

AL'S TIGER TALK

By ALEX DONSKER

By giving the calendar the once-over, those who are interested find out that it's about that time of the year when sports enthusiasts start making predictions as to who will win the Big Game, who is going to play left half for the U. of Kalamazoo and why is he. In other words another football season is upon us.

Of most interest to everyone are Pacific's chances of having a cracker-jack team capable of winning a large percentage of their games. How will they make out against such stiff competition as Loyola U., the Golden Bears of Cal., and the Chicago Maroons of Illinois? That's the big question, but what's the answer?

The Tigers have a fine bunch of boys but they're doing their level best to give Pacific a representative team. Prospects for a successful team look darn good on paper. The Bengal backfield situation looks the best in several years. The line, although it needs plenty polishing up, should also be way above the average. All in all things look pretty good for Staggs and Co.

But before you tab Pacific as a team of championship caliber, take a glance at the schedule that is awaiting the Bengals. It's one of the toughest in years. They meet ten strong teams, none of them breathers, within a period lacking one day of nine weeks. That's no cinch for any team!

F. W. C. BUSINESS

Much talk has been circulated about the so-called abandonment of the Far Western Conference of which Pacific has been a member for a good many years. It has been thought that because Fresno State had supposedly entered another conference that the F. W. C. was all washed up. But the low-down on the situation reads something like this:

Fresno State claims that they have not joined another conference. They say that they have just made several new contracts to play other schools for a certain number of years, just like many other schools

Flat Foot Freshies Were They Green? No!

FROSH VERSIONS OF BRAWL
"We did it with our bare hands."
"Simply a one-sided affair... and it sure feels great to be on the right side... WOO! WOO!"
"It was easy. Those palookas were a cinch. Spell it with a 'Z' because it was so easy."
"I lost my shoes in the mix-up, but it was worth it to beat those heels."

"It was a walk-away. You gotta give the Sophs credit, in a way, because they really tried. The poor kids really gave all they had, but if we're better, is it our fault?"
"It was a great fight, Ma, and I'm glad I won. How did you come out with Pa?"

"Too bad the Sophomores lost. Toooooo Bad... for us."
(The freshman names have not been used, due to political reasons and popular requests of the Freshmen. Names, however, are kept on file by the secretary of the Sophomore class, just for the... of it.)

Tug-of-war—Won easily by the Sophomores—due to organization.
Sack race—Won by the Frosh. Required about half the time limit.
Tie—Won by Frosh after a hard struggle. Frosh managed to get one more man tied up than did the Sophs.

The outstanding Freshman was Bob Jjams.
There were several outstanding Sophs—Norman Lamb, Roger Cross, Dan Looney, and several more.
Rudy Rivera and Rolly Campbell were in charge of the event.

have done. They have always kicked about having to go to Chico and play the Wildcats because the gate receipts have not been up to par at that institution. This year the Bulldogs do not meet the Chicomso so they should have no kick coming.

According to Doc Breeden, conference secretary, the F. W. C. looks stronger this year than has been in the past several years. This may and may not be the last year of the league as many daily papers have written. Here's hoping the conference continues; C. O. P. has always been satisfied.

Stagg Prepares For Sixth Grid Season At Tigertown

Fifty some odd players greeted Coach A. A. Staggs as he began work last week in preparing for sixth season as grid coach in the Tiger lair.

Stagg's plans for the coming season include a more practical running attack, varied with occasional passing. With such men as Lloyd, Domenech and Siegfried galloping in the backfield, the running attack should prove to be the Bengal's main offensive weapon this year.

FORWARD WALL STRONG

In surveying the Tiger's forward wall it is seen that there will be plenty of competition for every position. For the pivot post both Ed Koehler and Hugh McWilliams will see plenty of action. The two guard positions seem to be a three-cornered fight with Al Irwin, Bill Becker and Milt Greenblatt as the three contestants. Harris Fine, up from last year's Frosh, should also develop rapidly into a splendid player.

The tackle spots are also in doubt with Irvin Grubbs, Stan Vaughn and young Swagerty being the leading contenders. For the end posts there is a four-way battle being waged by Al Codiga, Bob "Broken Toe" Adamina, the older Swag brother and Al Hedges.

BACKS PLENTIFUL

Backfield material seems quite plentiful with Soper, Siegfried, Lloyd Kientz, Domenech, Cooper, Viera, Trembley and Bentley being the boys to watch. Soper will be doing most of the kicking. Domenech will probably take care of the passing department; while Lloyd and Siegfried will be in charge of the running attack.

It is significant to note that although the team is not exceptionally light, there is not a single man on the team who can today tip the beams at the 200-pound mark. The team will capitalize on its speed rather than being of the slow and heavy type.

Fundamentals, including blocking, tackling, punting and placekicking, have been stressed in the practices so far. A double practice was held last Saturday and the players are reported to have lost on an average of five pounds each while working out under a boiling hot sun.

Scrimmage and more fundamentals are on the slate for the next few weeks in preparation for the Loyola encounter on September 30.

STAGG SPEAKS

Delivering the principal address at the first Student Christian Association chapel of the year, to be held in the Auditorium Tuesday, at 10:45 a. m., will be Coach Amos Alonzo Staggs.

TRIBUTE TO STAGG

This week Mr. Amos Alonzo Staggs began his forty-ninth year as a football coach. One month ago he celebrated his seventy-sixth birthday.

Everyone who has been associated with Mr. Staggs in the past three-quarters of a century has only the highest of praise for him. He has shown kindness and consideration to us all. He has given everyone a chance to work independently, placing an undying faith in his co-workers and players. For this all of us shall be eternally grateful and shall never fully thank him.

He is a character to whom respect and courtesy are automatically given. He has the air of a gentleman who is stern in his beliefs but willing to listen to other's viewpoints.

In 1894 Staggs brought his U. of Chicago team out West to play their first inter-sectional game. This November, forty-four years later, Staggs takes a fighting squad of Tigers back to Staggs Field in Chicago to renew old acquaintances. No matter what caliber team may represent Pacific on the gridiron this year, the boys will be out there plugging away for a man who is worth fighting for.

To the world of sports we give you a gentleman and a scholar the "Granddaddy of Football"—Coach A. A. Staggs.

Two Grid Rule Changes Made

Two new football rules, tending to put a great deal more open field playing and additional scoring into the game, have been passed by the gridiron lawmakers and will be put into effect this coming season.

The two changes in the grid rules are:

Any forward pass (except those made on fourth down) which comes incomplete behind the goal line will be treated in the same manner as though it struck on the ground in the field of play. A forward pass made on fourth down which becomes incomplete behind the goal line will, as heretofore, result in a touchback.

When the ball goes out of bounds between the goal lines or becomes dead within fifteen yards of a side line, it shall be put in play at a spot fifteen yards from that side line instead of ten as heretofore.

Bengals Have Tough Sked To Face

Grid Season Opener With Loyola Slated For September 30

When a team plays ten tough straight football games in a row within a period of nine weeks, then that team has what is commonly known in the better circles as a really "tough schedule." This is exactly what the Tigers of Pacific have to face in the coming grid season.

The season opener is with the Loyola Lions of Los Angeles, and Tommy Lieb's boys from down South would like nothing better than to wallopp the Staggmens of Tigertown in their first meeting. After taking on the Loyolans the Bengals tangle with a nice bunch of kids from that large institution at Berkeley, the Golden Bears of California, whom many sports experts pick to repeat their undefeated series of victories of last year.

FIRST HOME GAME

On October 14 the Bengals have their first home game of the season, the opposition being supplied by the Cal Ramblers. Last year, feeling pretty cocky after holding St. Mary's to a scoreless tie, the Bengals thought they were on a vacation when they met the Ramblers and consequently took a wallop. Staggs' cohorts won't be caught napping again this year and will be out to avenge that defeat of last year.

Next in line comes the jinx of Pacific varities, San Jose State. It's sufficient to say that who have entered school here this Staggs-coached team has yet to expere.

ALL SPORTS HELPED

Every major sport will be affected and helped in some way by the work of this organization. The number of local athletes who have enrolled this semester is almost double that of last year. Many outstanding athletes would be lost if not for the efforts of this board. With this additional help, according to those in the know, it is not unlikely that Pacific will soon be on top as far as securing better athletic material is concerned through the aid of this outside help.

CAL AGGIES TOUGH

Returning home from the Chicago trip on a Tuesday, the Bengals will have only to Friday prepare for one of their toughest conference opponents, the Aggies of Davis. Then the Tiger travel northward to meet Chp State, which will be a Thanksgiving Day affair in Chico. The Tigers wind up a hectic season December 1 when they make their second trip South, this time to meet the strong U. S. Marines at San Diego.

All in all it's not going to be easy pickings for the Bengal vity—not by a long shot!

HAGGIN EXHIBIT

Beginning this week-end, the Haggin Memorial Art Gallery museum will show for a limited time an exhibit of works by morn French painters.

Jackson Grooms Frosh Prospects

Begal Babes Scrimmage Tomorrow 45 Men Train For Santa Rosa J. C.

By MANUEL BELITSKY

With the opening game but three weeks off, Earl "Stonewall" Jackson and his assistant, "Blonde Terror" Kjeldson, started whipping the frosh freshmen into shape this week. The taking plentifulness in weight, something that has been noticeable by its absence in last three Frosh teams.

Up to date, all the coaches were being drilled in fundamentals of blocking and tackling.

Coach Jackson reveals more tangible for the Frosh work on.

In their first game, the Babes will have a real test of their hands when they take Santa Rosa J. C. They reported to have seventeen coming back and will prove to the Frosh in their drive.

A very good sign in the turnout is the appearance of former Stockton High player, the team. In past years, people have not even known there was a Frosh team than the Bay Region. This help promote better support the freshmen and encourage to greater lengths.

Bulldogs Train

Fresno State gridgers received a pleasant surprise when they were given a five-day vacation at Santa Cruz.

During their stay, the team took many hiking trips, practiced plays and signals, and did all sorts of limbering-up exercises.

Tony Heeb, captain of the team, was in charge of the players. As a novelty or perhaps a publicity gag, Joe E. Brown, famous movie comedian, was elected unanimously by the squad as honorary captain.
