John Muir Esq.

Dear Mr Muir

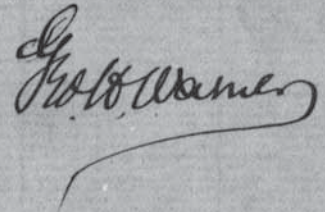

I received this morning your 'Linnaeus,' and am just reading it with great pleasure. I think it is just right for our purpose, and we will soon get it into type.

If on a second reading I see any reason for shortening it I will do so,
but I should not like to lose any of it.

Thank you very much for giving this the right of way and laying aside your other work.

I think you will like the books when they are all ready. They contain a great many interesting things.

Very sincerely yours
