CONSENSUS OF OPINION . . . . .

of those attending the Mardi Gras last Saturday night was that "the fourth annual" was the best yet. That is saying a lot, but not too much; for in almost every respect this year's carnival eclipsed all past performances.

Decorations of the Auditorium followed the Mardi Gras theme more closely than ever before; costumes were more colorful and original; Les Hite's orchestra was the happiest choice of all, providing the brand of music and showmanship that the ball requires; elimination of the Grand March and Herm Sapiro's swing arrangement of "Hungry Tigers" were innovations that met with great approval; refreshments were adequate (although an extra cookie might have helped); rowdiness and alcoholism were practically non-existent; and the check-room situation was handled extremely well. Add to that long-winded paean the fact that the spirit prevalent at last Saturday's fiesta was the most enthusiastic outpouring of Pacific hearts in the four-year career of the Mardi at C. O. P. and you really have something.

A few minor rumbles trailing in the wake of the dance fomented objections to the choice of costume award winners (which can seldom please everyone) and to the presence of local high school students who gained entrance through the use of someone else's student body card or admit slip. How many preppers "crashed" the dance in this manner is debatable. If, however, the number was as great as some profess, then, certainly, steps must be taken to limit entrance next year. We cannot believe that the Pacific Student Association wants to stage a Mardi Gras for Stockton High School.

The 1939 Mardi Gras, considered from all angles, cannot leave anything but pleasant memories. On behalf of the student body, the WEEKLY extends to Trevor Griffiths and his committeemen congratulations for a job well done. The fourth Gras will stand as THE goal for all future carnivals of the PSA.

NOT A FAILURE . . . . .

by a long shot, despite the Board of Athletic Control veto Monday, are the plans to install baseball as a varsity sport at Pacific. The Board's decision not to sponsor a Tiger team this spring dealt a stern blow to hopes of athletes who wanted to play intercollegiate ball this year, but it did nothing but enhance the future possibilities of the sport at C. O. P.

As matters stand, the road has been paved for the addition of baseball to the C. O. P. athletic curriculum next year. The athletes interested in baseball are going ahead to play independently, with an eye to building a team for next spring. The PSA Executive Committee has backed the sport to the limit; the Board of Athletic Control has gone on record as favoring it. Plans for baseball at Pacific in 1940 should go ahead immediately from there. The Executive Committee will turn over the necessary money to the athletic department as soon as the Board makes a definite decision to install the sport on a varsity basis with a regular coach. The sooner that decision comes, the better!

CHRISTIANITY . . . . .

owes a debt she should never forget to the missionary spirit of such men as the zealous missionary whose birthday we celebrate today. Good Saint Patrick's exploits in finding Ireland pagan and leaving it Christian cannot be discounted.

Christians bearing the Methodist label are too often prone to reserve their plaudits for John Wesley and Francis Asbury, forgetting the valiant efforts of those who fought the good fight under the banner of the Roman Catholic Church.

So, in this lenten season, we would pause to wish well those students of the Catholic faith who have formed the Newman Club on the College of the Pacific campus. In these days of pagan revival and world upheaval it is well that all followers of the Galilean remember their common loyalty.—G. P.

FIRST NIGHT REVIEW
In New York it would be gala, in Hollywood it would be spectacular, but here it was just plain grand, and if any one asks what we mean when one and all know very well that HI SPIRITS is uppermost in our mind, all we can say is just—well!

We don't know why we have to tell you, but if you want to be reassured, it really is tops. Every number predicted went over and a couple of new ones kicked the gong too. Here's a hit from way back.

Ruth Crane is superb, and we still haven't had enough of YOU AIN'T LIVED. Here's a toast to you, Ruth, and a sincere wish for further success.

Margaret George brings a lot of new twists into her crazy comedy role. By the way, it's Maggie who renders MELANCHOLIA, one of the surprise numbers with the complete chorus humming a swell obbligato.

It's a fact: Every one is not only up to par, but snPARior. CONGRATULATIONS, HAL.

You'll be hearing this from every side, so we take this means of reaching you. All the work, worry, and mental anguish have resulted in another hit, and we're hoping for still another soon.

LOWER DEPTHS
In the Studio Theatre we have noticed some strange things happening. It seems that a production is going on which has closed rehearsals. Something new, we'd say. The play is August Strindberg's famous vehicle, THE FATHER, directed by Richard Mirskid.

The reason for the no admittance signs is that Dick is carrying on an experiment. By giving perfect freedom to actors, he is attempting to gain greater power and beauty. More important is the fact that by rather stylizing the set, costuming and reading of lines he hopes for a new way of presenting realism. We could use symbolism, but we're too stupid. Here is something new and different and intensely interesting. We know, because we peeked one night. Dick will probably put out a warrant for us or something, but we have to poke into whatever fascinates us, and right now we're fascinated.

It will be worth your while to attend this little production, not only because the play is powerful and beautiful in itself, but because it will have added power and beauty due to this unique manner. The cast includes Shay Barnett, Henry Hobson, Bob Laning, Jack Holmes, Pierce Young and others of importance in our Little Theatre. Good luck, Mirskid.

IMPERSONALS
(We ain't got no one to talk to.)
When you see HI SPIRITS, watch for Vada Ward and Gene Minson

S.C.A. Deputations Group At Lone; Staggs To Speak

To the Preston School of Industry at Lone the Deputations division of the S. C. A. is planning to go Sunday, March 19. Members of the group will present an end-of-the-day's program for students, including two services and a general assembly at which A. A. Staggs is to be the speaker.

The Deputations Committee of the S. C. A. attempts to meet a definite spiritual need by regularly sending out members of the S. C. A. to present services and programs for underprivileged and out-of-the-way persons. Anyone interested in joining this group should get in touch with Alice Hall, the chairman, or with Mrs. Jacoby.

Club Discusses Papal Installation

The installation of the Pope Pius XII was the topic of the forum discussion at the meeting of the Newman Club Tuesday night in the S. C. A. rooms. Father Woods, who met the present pope several years ago, told of his personal characteristics.

Next week the subject will be "The changes the new pope will bring in the Fascist governments in Italy, Germany and Spain."

There will be a group communion at 8:30, followed by breakfast at 9:00 on Sunday, March 26. This will be the initial event of the program of the club, with an expected turnout of 35 members. Any other Catholic students are invited to attend.

The meeting closed with refreshments served by the social committee headed by Mae Vignolo.

Farley Leads Frosh Club Discussion

"Does religion make a difference to professors?" "Why is there a breaking-away from Christianity when young people start to college?" and "What are the advantages of a social hall, and what should its function be?" were three topics discussed by the Frosh Club, under the supervision of Erwin Farley, last Monday evening in the S. C. A. rooms.

A trip to the snow and a party in the Coco-Cola Lounge were suggested as future social events.

Effie Calderwood, president of the club, presided.

"Lilie Lala" Play Aired Tonight

"Lilie Lala" will be presented by Radio Stage from the Campus Studio tonight at 7:30. Lois Wheeler, Max Gobel, and Les Rountree will present this eighth broadcast of Guy de Maupassant's short stories.

do the SPOODLE DOOK. It's something new in dancing, and what we mean new. The Magdolina Chapter of the Lazy D. M. is going to start its campaign very soon now; so members please attend all meetings as scheduled! We have a very interesting riddle right here, all set for this spot. It concerns a member of the Little Theatre, his trousers, and some blue thread, but we can't get in the right sequence so—Hasta Liagu!

WHEN YOU Read--

By GLADYS HUGHES

ODDS AND ENDS

This week we give you a sort of literary hodge-podge, odds and ends of literature we've been reading for the last year or so. The first on our list is an adventure story which takes the East Indies as its locale, and give you plenty of action. The title of this little epic is EMPIRE FOR A LADY, by Alan Le May.

It mixes Dyak headhunters, a white Rajah, and a lovely lady to whom he offers his kingdom in a most amazing fashion. No great shakes as literature, but interesting in its way—for those who want action in their reading.

Adventure of another sort was in the volume we picked up and re-read the other day. It was the first time we had looked at the volume for some few years, and we were surprised to find it just as interesting now as it was then. The book we mean is the Alexandre Dumas classic TWENTY YEARS AFTER, companion and sequel to the THREE MUSKETEERS.

All the color and action that anyone could ask for is crammed between the covers of this book, and we can unreservedly recommend it to all those who love colorful, dramatic, historic fiction whether they have read Dumas or not. We also recommend that those who have read it some years ago re-read it. It's worth an hour or two of anyone's time.

THAT CERVANTES!
For those who prefer biography, we recommend THE LIFE AND MISADVENTURES OF CERVANTES by Mariano Tomas. It is a translation from the Spanish and gives one a very Spanish viewpoint on the greatest figure in Spanish literature.

Tomas has filled the book with quotations from documents from Spanish governmental archives, which give it that authentic touch so often lacking in work of this sort.

However, it is not at all a dry-as-dust historical volume, but rather a living, throbbing portrait of one of the most colorful and vigorous personalities the world has produced. Read it for authentic information well given and interestingly presented.

Next week—murder and such. Tallyho.

THIS COLLEGE WHIRL

By TWINCHELL

Well, of course Dixon has beat me to the draw, being always first with the latest, but I'll just supplement with some few impressions of the gala Gras that are still floating around. So, here goes IMPRESSIONS OF THE MARDI GRAS . . . (follow the little dotted lines):

I still see Blaufuss waving his arms in exhortation, screaming at the top of his dial, telling me that he was NOT a windbag . . . with his "06" and all . . . and the Queen of the Tahitians, Roxine Hafele . . . need I say more . . . Gadi . . . and I do mean Gadi . . . or to the other side of Tahiti . . . where the Cannibals reside . . . the always-good-for-something-or-other Sapiro . . . Karl Rigor was a Tahitian, too, until they censored him . . . and the beachcombers, ruled by King Latta Ross . . . then more Tahitians . . . add a dozen or so Little Abners and Daisy Mae's . . .

Sherwood Norton takes the Little Abner cake . . . and Tom Riffberg stepped right out of the colored comies . . . speaking of comic strips makes me think of Tomasini Saturday morning . . . but that's another yarn . . . and the Abners and D. M.'s were not without parents . . . between Bonnie . . . and the Patriquin-Darby duet . . .

OUTSIDE OF TAHITIANS AND ABNERS . . .
there was Bud Myers and his mermaid . . . and Hoffman and his better half, Thomas . . . Junan was supposed to make a triumphant entry on the horse . . . but the nag broke down . . . and Thomas went around asking people if they would dance with the rear end of a horse . . . the Garrigans and the yours truly's had a table of bridge between them . . . Lols Bugbes and Ben Hamm were in the dark . . .

Our boy Trevor went as Rudolph Valentino . . . while the good old Rover boys must have postponed that business they planned before the dance . . . anyway they didn't have the usual trouble with the bouncers . . . The Les Dows as chinks . . . and Marybelle as The Little Dutch girl by the Little Dutch Mill . . . with Wesley . . .

Jane Ketman found herself with Honest Abe . . . Verna Dunstan!!!! . . . good to see Simey back . . . cause he started the whole business . . . back in 1938 before the depression . . . ditto Mary Bay, the first Queen . . . but where was Edith Ijams? . . . "Moose" was there . . . dressed as a Turk . . . but no harem . . . yes, we saw you Cincinnati . . . somebody always goes balloon hunting . . . it must be an instinct.

THE CONSENSUS OF OPINION
differs so we'll skip it . . . but all the frosh and sophs thought it was the best . . . the Juniors said every bit as good as before . . . and the seniors said it didn't have that certain something . . . and the alumni said "no" . . . I didn't hear the faculty . . . but Waldo was a picnic . . . though he looked like a geology field trip . . . or so somebody said . . . the band was a jiver . . . and many said "too fast" . . . but no one said they didn't have what the maestro refers to as a "solid outfit" . . . Dixon wore her best clothes . . . but we must admit she looked good in them . . . the twins were so pretty . . . that they all had their pictures taken the next day . . . I think they've just realized they all look alike . . . their triplet, Willy, went as a black sheep . . . Ed Denny was back . . . with Epsilon's Press Agent . . . while Claribel Coffman dripped silver all over . . . and Marian Bach was the one inside the hat box . . . which suggests, where were Riffberg and Kerfoot when the prizes went out . . . no confidence . . . or no privacy . . . MORE PEOPLE . . . because next to monkeys they is the funniest things . . . Marian Phyllis was back . . . and Mae Shaw went West . . . Grubbs took care of the Hall . . . the J. B.—Kirkpatrick deal paid 9c each for the sandals they wore . . . Phil Starr came back . . . and moved in next to Franny Hull . . . Eugene Minson and Laurie Applegraph were well decked . . . Vada and Vall were slightly over-decked . . . and he's a window decorator . . . Vada looked like a sail boat . . . Frank Nash heard a rip in his nightgown . . . and felt a cool breeze . . . Martha Gifford and Bill Moose Durham made a good pair . . . without the bicycle-built-for-two . . . And again Mary Ranney makes the couple of the week . . . with Park Wilson . . . Well, it could go on forever . . . as the girls in the dorm thought the Tahitian paint was going to do the next day . . . or the repentant ones of the morrow thought the hangover was going to do . . . or as you must think this column is going to do. Which it isn't.

GLEANS:
Doubtless, most of you cats have noticed the three heavy weight colored gals who have been in quite a few pictures recently. They go under the moniker of the Peters Sisters and they really turn out some excellent trio work. Well, what we're getting at is that they're now in Europe, and when they flew across the English Channel, they had to book six seats on the plane. They total 910 pounds in weight.

Those of you who have been listening to the recent Casa Loma broadcasts probably noticed the fact that Kenny Sargent's voice was conspicuous by its absence. It's all because Kenny is now recovering from a throat operation in a New York hospital. Here's hoping that the carvers didn't ruin the Sargent pipes. That guy can really put over a sweet song in a way that can't be best. Exhibit A—"I Cried For You" on Decca.

RECORD STUFF
Now for the disc-cussin' discussion. A record that has been out for a long time but is still a water heater is "Apurkody" by Gene Krupa's band on Brunswick. This tune is Krupa's theme song and was written by him. The odd name is derived from spelling Krupa backward and adding a "soy".

Rather intriguing (or is it?) The chord changes and general tone color of the recording is about the acme of relaxed swing. The Krupa sax team achieves a superb blend, and Gene's drumming is in perfect taste. Don't fail to hear this one.

Jimmy Lunceford's latest opus, "It Ain't What 'Ou Do, It's the Way 'Ou Do It," is one of this ace band's best. A completely wacky vocal and some solid ensemble work prove once again that this combo, although comparatively unknown on the West Coast, is one of the finest of all time.

The Lunceford crew seem to have taken a new lease on life as far as their recording work goes. Their recent change from Decca to Vocalion may be responsible for this. By the way, the reverse of this disc is "Cheatin' On Me" and it's fine stuff.

We've got it! National figures show fraternities men are above non-org. men in scholarship. Yep, that's what Carnegie Tech. says, and they seem to back up their figures, too. The difference, said the registrar, is probably due to fraternity efforts to push scholarships of its members higher, and the seeking of better men to belong. Maybe there's more cooperation among frat. men at that.

A quick inventory of that department in Mills College reads like this: Two cigarette cases, a bed lamp, riding crop, tape measure, lipsticks, bunch of trinkets, and armload of language books and a skirt. They ought to wait another year and open up a department store.

THE MOST: N. B. C. won huge margin of 73 to 7 for unbia. California Radio System received one vote.

PLAYS: One hundred and twenty-one votes go to comed. 22 voted for classical plays, 42 liked mysteries, 21 students liked educational plays (no faculty men like educational plays); 4 f. tragedy, two liked religious drama and light opera, and only one liked romantic plays.

Richfield Oil Company's night consistent newscast was Pacific's favorite in the poll. "Favorite News Program." The vote was 88 to the March of Time's Borden's "Hughes in the Near program didn't get a four-star rating. Fidler, pulled in one tally each.

Don Wilson, acc. NBC's, pulled in 55 votes in the poll, as did Debussy and Bar nearest competitor, Carpenter.

22. Harry Von Zell, 13; Milton Cross, 9; Edwin C. Hill, 8; and Hayes, 7. Crabbe (C. O. P.), pulled in a nice four. Radio's three "wutome and share in this lousy." Winchell, Wilcox, Wallsten. There will be no ton each got three votes. Kye charge, and notice of Ameche, Ross, J. B. Hughes, M. time will be posted on dex and Jack Benny, each pulled two votes apiece.

DEAR READERS:
Since there are so many names listed in the poll, those names were pulled only one vote in their own classifications will be posted in the AD BUILDING bulletin board for your information.

MORE WINNERS
Pacific listeners accorded Husing a mighty "hello" when they chose him as their favorite Sports Announcer to the tune of 49 votes. Doug Montell, a recent visitor to Pacific's Assembly hall got second place with 18. McCarthy, 17; Smith, 12; Stirm and Thorgens, 8; MacNamee, 7, while "Hurt" Hughes, Sam Hayes and Hill (three each).

VARIEITY IS THE
Chase and Sanborn, 26 votes. Kyser's Kollegs, 14. "Strange It Seems" Bob Hope (Oh, no, the Ripley, Oh well!) got seven Pacifics on his side. Jack Ben runner up for top honors, received 22 votes in the poll. Hit Par N. Y. Philharmonic, The Circle, a One Man's Family, pulled five votes each. (Who says there isn't variety in family life!) Cantor's Caravan, Info Please, and March of Time pulled three apiece. Good News, Benchley, Standard Symphony, Grouch Club, Fred Allen, Lux Theatre, and Welles, pulled two votes apiece.

PLAY'S THE THING!
Favorite Dramatic star at Pacific is Orson Welles. Don Ameche is second best at 24, and Charles Boyer pulled 20 votes. Tyrone power and engineered only votes. Lovely Irene Rich, Ray bone, Bette Davis, and "Shakespeare" McCarthy (Charlie to you each got four. Ronny Colman, Kransky, The Mad Russian, N. Grey, Paul Barbour, and Hel Hayes, rated two votes each in their acting.

SPORTS FAVORITES
Associated Oil Co.'s fine football casts were awarded top honors. Favorite sports broadcasts, 35 to Blue's Sports Graphic, which pulled 11. Ted Husing, 6; Buick Fight 5; Highlights, and Frank Bull 3 votes each.

ATTENTION
If you haven't been to the S. Fair yet, read next week's column for info concerning what people are saying about it. Thanks for reading.

CHAPEL PROGRAM
Mr. Aubrey from the University of Chicago will be the speaker next Tuesday morning in the Y. W. C. Chapel, his subject to be "Religion and Emotional Maturity."

RUG CUTTINGS

By Sapiro

Gates, that Hite man was the solidest thing ever, and that ain't no lie. The men in the band were nothing short of terrific individually and collectively. Did you all get a load of that fine drummer?

HITE-LIGHTS
Since your Cutter practically sat in the piano player's lap for half the evening, there were quite a few swing gadgets that came to light during the conversation. The aforesaid piano player (incidentally, a marvelous man on his instrument) does the bulk of the fine arrangements for the Hite aggregation and fills in his spare time doing scores for Gene Krupa and other top bands. He's going to start his own band in the near future, and it won't be surprising to see him go places. His name's Phil Moore, and his work is on the beat.

The rest of the band are all fine musicians who do a lot of work in the movie and radio studios. . . . One of the sax men was sick, so they only had three instead of their usual four reed men. . . . Hite did a fine job of directing the band, signing autographs, answering requests, and being a general "all-right-guy" . . . The drummer was the best showman in the outfit, the most pleasing personality, and has a brother playing in an ace colored band in the East at the present time. That's about all the give about the band.

Four Houses Give Formal Tomorrow

Tomorrow night from nine until one o'clock, members of the four campus sororities and their guests will enjoy the annual Pan-Hellenic formal dance at the Hotel Stockton.

Herm Sapiro and his orchestra will play for dancing in the White Room of the Hotel. Alice Tilton, chairman of the decoration committee, and her assistants, Junan Bronzich, Helen Hall, and Charlotte Meeske plan to decorate the main dancing room and the lobby with colorful spring blossoms.

Barbara Gammons, general chairman of the Pan-Hellenic council, has announced several committees to arrange details of the dance. Black and white bids, striking a formal note, have been designed by Dawn Walters, Jean Morrill, and June Lane.

Those in charge of refreshments are Margaret George, chairman, Betty Booth, Merle Morton, and Aline Durst. Punch will be served throughout the evening.

The committee for choice of place includes Betty Dixon, chairman, Marguerite Etzel, Virginia Weston, and Loismae Ventre.

Dr. and Mrs. Tully Cleon Knoles, Mr. and Mrs. James C. Corson, Miss Opal Berg, Mr. Robert Fenix, Dr. and Mrs. Louis Windmiller, and Dr. and Mrs. Harold Jacoby have been invited by the Pan-Hellenic Council to be patrons and patrons of the annual affair.

Guests will be greeted by a committee of two members from each of the sorority houses.

Dance Theme Is Mystery At Archania

Archania will continue to celebrate its eighty-fifth anniversary on the campus by giving another dance which will be held tonight.

Bill Scantlebury, social chairman, would not announce the theme of the dance, stating that it will be a surprise dance, no one knowing the theme with the exception of the committee.

The following committees were chosen for the dance: Surprise committee, Dick Bentley, Karl Rigor, Elton Martin, and Johnny Traville; Refreshments committee, Bob McCarthy, Stan Vaughn, and Elton Hedges; Arrangements committee, Dwayne Sewell, George Brier, and Jerry Bentley; Cleanup committee, Chris Papas, Eric Jacobsen, Johnny Owens, and Ray Grannucci.

Present at the dance will be Patty Pierce, house-mother

JUNAN'S BIG MOMENT ARRIVES

Highlight of the fourth annual Pacific Mardi Gras held at the Stockton Civic Auditorium last Saturday was the coronation of JUNAN BRONZICH, Queen of the Mardi Gras, with ERWIN FARLEY, PSA prexy, officiating.

Zetagatheans Busy With Rushing

Last Sunday from 4 to 6 o'clock the home of Dr. and Mrs. G. A. Werner was the setting for the Zetagathean Society rushing.

Guests were received by the chairman and past president, Doris Bishorberger, and presented to the president Harriet Kientz and the advisors Miss Lorraine Knoles, Mrs. Ralph Brady, and Mrs. Charles Gulick.

Mrs. Louis L. Windmiller and Mrs. Robert Gordon poured. Miss Pauline Crawford played incidental music throughout the tea.

The Zetagathean rushes were entertained at a Mexican supper party at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Tully C. Knoles last night at 7 o'clock.

After the supper pictures of Mexico were shown by Miss Danner. Catherine Saunders presented a Mexican dance and Pauline Crawford sang.

Committees were: Refreshments, Pauline Crawford, chairman, Margaret Garibaldi and Dorothy Lennox; decorations, Peggy Bigham, chairman, Naida Titherington and Florence Buoy.

Princeton University has had more of its students win Rhodes scholarships than any other U. S. institution. Harvard is second, Yale third.

Men's Hall Plans Dance

Newly redecorated Pythian Castle has been chosen as the location for the spring dance to be given by Men's Hall next Friday night, March 24th.

From nine until one o'clock, Herm Sapiro and his orchestra will play for dancing.

Admission is seventy-five cents a couple, and no bids will be sold at the door.

Two Recitals Are Feature Next Week

Next week the College of the Pacific Conservatory will present two outstanding recitals on consecutive evenings featuring exceptional instrumental and vocal talent.

On Tuesday night, March 21, at 8:15 o'clock, Misses Virginia Sack, pianist; Alice Tilton, organist, and Norma Bentley, soprano, will share honors in the third senior recital of the season.

Miss Sack offers four numbers of both classical and modern nature, most outstanding of which, perhaps, will be the "Sonata, Opus 35," by Frederic Chopin. Miss Tilton, well-known to students and faculty for her efficiency as chapel and assembly organist, will play two movements of the "Fourth Organ Symphony," by Widor. Miss Bentley, accompanied by Professor Allan Bacon, will contribute seven numbers of varied mood. Her performances in theatre musicals in past seasons are well remembered by campus and townspeople.

On Monday evening, March 20, also at 8:15, eight undergraduate students are scheduled to display their talents. They are: Barbara Lennox, pianist; Barbara Stewart, soprano; Verne Clifton, pianist; Beverly Meyer, pianist; Albert Miller, violinist; Irving Fritz, pianist; Pauline Crawford, soprano, and Lorraine Dunlap, pianist.

Pledges to Be Dance Guests Tonight

Guests of honor at the informal dance in the fraternity house tonight will be the new pledges of Omega Phi Alpha. Decorations and programs will carry out the theme of St. Patrick's Day.

Jerry Cicinato is general chairman in charge of arrangements for the evening, and he has a large group of fraternity men to assist with the affair.

Decorations for tonight are being planned by John Lucas and Les Knoles. Howard Lewis heads the refreshment committee and Elton Cenculero is in charge of music. An interesting program will be an intermission feature as planned by Stan Hill and Trevor Griffiths. Doug Cossitt and Irving Fritz will provide the entertainment.

From eight-thirty to twelve-thirty, Jimmy Ross and his orchestra will provide the music for dancing.

Dr. and Mrs. Allen Waldo, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Gulick, and Mrs. Cora Lynch, house-mother, will be patrons and patronesses for the evening.

Pacific Co-op Entertains For Deans

Last Wednesday evening the Pacific Co-operative House entertained Dean Berg and Dean and Mrs. Corson at dinner. During the evening an interesting musical program was presented. Those taking part were, Charlothe Smith, Mary Jane Dashiell, Janet Lehman, Henry Hobson, Bruce Tomlinson and Beverly Meyer. Johnny Fanchul was toastmaster of the evening. Group singing was enjoyed following the dinner. The decoration of the rooms with spring flowers was in charge of Jackie Ong and Nina Turkatte.

Formal Pledge Teas Present Fifty-one Young Women

New pledges of the four sororities on the College of the Pacific campus were formally introduced at a series of teas last Sunday afternoon from three until six o'clock. Students, friends of the sorority, members of the faculty, and fraternity members were invited.

TAU KAPPA KAPPA

At Tau Kappa Kappa, the house was decorated with plum and apricot blossoms, and white tapers for the Spring tea. Guests were greeted at the door by Dorothy Dinubilo. In the receiving line were Barbara Gammons, house-president; Miss Ellen Deering, house-mother; and pledges Barbara Lennox, Gloria Hopps, Rosemary Strader, Margaret McIntyre, Mildred Fields, and Marnie Nile. Each pledge carried a French bouquet in house colors.

Mrs. G. Warren White and Mrs. Roy McCall presided at the tea table, centered with a crystal vandleabra and Spring flowers. Aline Durst was general chairman of the affair. Her committees were: Decorations, Jean Strong, Lucille Wilson, Olga Kalmin, and Alice Ladd; serving, Alice Hall, Patty Mason, Jeanne Woodruff, and Rose Marie Douglas.

MU ZETA RHO

Pink and white were the colors of Spring chosen by members of Mu Zeta Rho for their formal pledge tea Sunday afternoon. Guests were greeted at the door by Hertha Rausch and presented to Frances Hallmark, Mrs. Lucy Forknar, Junan Bronzich, and the new pledges.

Guests of honor for the occasion were Laurie Applegate, Harriet Rudin, Helen Cortelyou, Dorothy Guerin, Eloise Lambert, Betty Lee Matthews, Jane O'Connor, Kathrine O'Connor, and Anne Schneider. Each of the pledges wore a corsage of multi-colored sweet peas.

Mrs. John Blinn and Mrs. Bruce Merceia Voorhies.

At Epsilon Lambda Sigma's tea, Mrs. Ethel Flack, house mother; Alice Tilton, president, and Marguerite Etzel, vice-president, were in the receiving line with the pledges.

The door was opened by Jane Jordan. Japanese iris were used for decoration throughout the house, and the table was appointed in yellow and orchid.

Camille Goff and Merle Morton played incidental music during the afternoon. The pledges wore corsages of iris. Those honored were Jeanne Marie Marblestone, Ruth Stewart, Jacqueline Burton, Martha Guilford, Lois Bugbee, Du Ette Hamsher, Harriet Henderson, Mary Kenyon, Betty Kirkpatrick, Barbara Laddon, Lillian Kowatch, Lucille Kowatch, Laverne Lagorio, Beth Schauer, Eloise Smith, Rosalee Trevorow, Ruth Udden and Merceia Voorhies.

SPORTS SPICE

By JACK PRICE

Not to be caught in the whirl of another disastrous cage season, Coach Ralph Francis is starting to groom his basketball quintet for the fall of '39 Monday evening at the College gym. Francis plans to hold a weekly basketball session throughout the remainder of the semester.

Pacific's cage mentor is holding these workouts to uncover new talent and teach the Tiger's casaba aspirants the fundamentals of the game. All students interested in playing basketball are urged to attend the opening session Monday.

Ed Koehler, graduating senior, was elected honorary captain of Pacific's 1938-39 basketball team early this week. Koehler has played three years of varsity football and basketball for the Bengals and his selection as captain of last season's cagers met with popular approval.

Kenny Rogers, high scoring ace of last season's Cub squad, was named captain of the Junior College hoopers.

We would all like to know about some of the marks that were made in the varsity track exhibitions last Tuesday. They must have been surprisingly good for Coach Jackson to withhold from the press. Especially Tommasini's time for the half mile.

Speaking of Tommasini, watch his smoke in the Far Western Conference meet at Pacific this year.

Low Ford is another varsity man who will bear watching as the cinder season gets under way. Ford jumps well over six feet and pole vaults in the teens.

What puzzles the Weekly office most at the present time is: What sort of a jinx did the Night Riders put on our sports editor, Alex Donsker? All I can say is they sure put him out of commission in a hurry.

In pinch hitting for Alex, it looks like yours truly will have to hire a couple of body guards and play safe.

Rabbi Levy Sets Chapel Theme

Recruits Look Good In Grid Practice

Staggmen Move Into Fourth Week Of Football Training

One-two-three! One-two-three—"is the familiar chant of the advancing Bengal football squad echoing across Pacific's campus as Coach Alonzo Stagg's 1939 grid machine moves into its fourth week of spring football practice. With Ralph Francis leading the linemen and Coach Stagg spending his time on the secondary boys, the famed trick plays of the old grid master are being put into action nightly by Tiger cleatsmen.

NEWCOMERS STAND OUT
This week's spotlight has been centered on the linemen. Among the front line standouts is Bud Brumli, Modesto boy, whose low charging tactics on the field have set him up as a '39 possibility in Francis's forward wall. Les Dow, up from the ranks of last season's Fresh squad, has been showing up well on defensive tackling and should be a valuable reserve in the pivot position this year.

RELIEF CENTER
Another center, a husky transfer from the University of California, is Bob Dewey. Weighing over two-hundred pounds, Dewey handles himself with ease on defensive tackling and seems to be the candidate to aid "Jo-Babe" McWilliams at the pivot position when the fall season gets under way.

Bill Knapp, a junior at Pacific playing his first of college ball, looms up as a potential guard prospect for the coming season.

McWILLIAMS REPORTS
Hugh "Jo-Babe" McWilliams, Pacific's stalwart rock of defense, donned the mole skins for the first time this year, Wednesday afternoon and took over his assignment at the pivot position. After winding up a tough basketball season, Jo-Babe stepped into spring practices in the pink of condition.

Chris Pappas, up and coming sophomore center, has been making himself known during the past week with his jolting tackling exhibitions.

youth of the totalitarian states and the greater opportunities for freedom of expression and thought in this democracy.

J. C. Netmen Seek Revenge On Panthers

Kjeldsen To Shift Cubs Line-up

Tomorrow the Stockton Junior College tennis team will seek to reverse the result of its first match with Sacramento Junior College when the Bengal cannonaders meet the Panthers on the Pacific courts at ten o'clock.

Coach Kjeldsen will probably shift his lineup in an attempt to strengthen his lineup. Stewart Browne, Bill Hunefeld, Francis Banchio, Wilfred Traphagen and Hugh Hutchins will probably play in that order.

PANTHERS TOUGH
Last Saturday the Stockton Junior College netters traveled to Sacramento for their first match of the 1939 net season and were soundly defeated five matches to two by the pouncing Panthers of Sacramento Junior College. Coach Kjeldsen took a five-man team including Francis Banchio, Stewart Browne, Bill Hunefeld, Wilfred Traphagen and Hugh Hutchins.

Jack Gurley, Panther ranking man, showed little mercy in the feature match with Francis Banchio, winning 6-0, 6-1. Stewart Browne defeated Davis and Hugh Hutchins set back Carlson for the Jaysees' only wins.

SINGLES
1. Gurley defeated Banchio 6-0, 6-1 (S).
2. Browne defeated Davis 6-3, 6-3 (SJC).
3. Klippel defeated Hunefeld 1-6, 6-4, 7-5 (S).
4. Nathan defeated Traphagen 6-1, 7-5 (S).
5. Hutchins defeated Carlson 6-4, 6-2 (SJC).

DOUBLES
1. Gurley-Davis defeated Banchio-Browne 6-2, 6-2 (S).
2. Klippel-Nathan defeated Hunefeld-Traphagen 3-6, 6-3, 6-3 (S).

Basketball Men Get Awards

At yesterday's Assembly, twenty-three athletes received basketball awards for 1938. The group included twelve varsity cagers and eleven Jaysee men.

Koehler was elected honorary captain of the team by his mates. Jaysee coaches, awarded by Cub Coach Chris Kjeldsen, went to John Camelia, John Singleton, George Miller, Bill Livia, Dave Livia, Al Woodrum, Barre Stephens, Bob Saling, Bob Warner, Bob Monagan, and Kenny Rogers, who was elected captain of his squad.

Donsker Still Out

Alex Donsker, sports editor of the Pacific WEEKLY, is still laid up with a broken ankle at his home in Sacramento. Owing to the slowness with which the leg is healing following an operation, the date of Donsker's return to school remains indefinite.

In the meanwhile, Jack Price is taking over as sports editor pro tem.

Old Intramural Records Exploded During Meet

Several New Cinder Stars Uncovered As Three Long Standing Records Fall

With three track records going by the board and several "dark horses" turning in surprise performances, Coach Earl Jackson's 1939 cinder prospects finally completed their intramural track meet last Tuesday afternoon at Baxter Stadium.

TOWN BOYS FLASH

Jimmy Ramos, flashy freshman, started the fireworks Monday afternoon as he breezed over the 220-yard low hurdles in 27 seconds flat to break Richardson's nine-year record by two-tenths of a second.

Following in the foot steps of Ramos, Dan Ostrander, another member of the town team, leaped 5 feet 8 inches in the high jump to better the old intramural mark of 5 feet 7 1/2 inches by a quarter of an inch.

Campbell Miller accounted for the third new record of the meet when he turned in a 2:07.9 half mile to eclipse the former time of 2:11 set by Neil Parsons. The meet marked the first time Miller has appeared on the oval in a track suit this season.

TRACK FIND

Showing form equal to Pacific's best trackers, Jack Hanner, frosh distance runner, swept through both the mile and two-mile events to easy victories. Hanner's best asset is a strong finish on the closing lap. A definite "find," this youngster should have a brilliant track future under the wing of Coach Jackson.

Several track and field exhibitions were staged by the varsity cindermen, but Coach Jackson withheld the marks as a precaution for the Tigers in their opening meet against the Cal Aggies on March 25.

Presented with the largest array of entrants in Pacific's intramural track history, the meet was a huge success. Jackson stated that he was confident that his teams would surpass last season's mark despite their various handicaps.

Cub Splashers Meet Lodi This P. M.

Kjeldsenites Clash With Aggies Sat.

Fresh from their twelve-point victory over the Santa Clara Broncos, Coach Chris Kjeldsen's Stockton J. C. splashers take on the Lodi high swimming team this afternoon in a warm up affair before their first home meet with the Cal Aggies tomorrow afternoon.

THREE MEETS SCHEDULED

Scheduling three meets for the next five days, the local aquatic stars will have their hands full trying to remain on the victory track. The Stockton mermen are slight favorites to turn back the Aggie invasion on the strength of their easy triumph over Santa Clara last week.

Santa Clara will have a chance to avenge their 4 1/2 to 3 1/2 defeat Tuesday afternoon when they will vie with the Cubs in a return match at Pacific's Pool.

OWEN STARS

Bob Owen, of Stockton Jaysee, stole the limelight of the meet at Santa Clara last Friday by snaring top honors in three events. Owen copped the 100-, 220- and the 440-yard free style, for a total of 15 points.

Pacific Ski Meet Will Be Held At Bald Mountain

Trophies and prize ribbons will be awarded to winners of the amateur ski contests which will take place at the Pacific all-college ski meet at Bald Mountain, March 25.

Competitive courses at the meet will be divided into amateur and skilled runs and will include downhill and slalom races. Sign up slips for the race entries will be posted on the bulletin boards.

A minimum fee of 10 to 25 cents will be charged to contestants. All Stockton Junior College and College of the Pacific students who are interested in skiing are urged to either enter the contests or attend the meet to watch them.

In event that a large number of students plan to attend the meet, a Greyhound bus will be chartered by the ski club.

Board Vetoes Baseball For This Spring

Players To Perform Under Local Sponsor

Baseball at Pacific was temporarily side-tracked by the Board of Athletic Control this week when the Board voted to forego sponsorship of the sport this spring. Reasons for the decision were the lateness of the season and the inadvisability of taking men away from other spring sports to compete in baseball.

The athletic bigwigs, however, went on record as favoring the installation of the sport next year, and the machinery is already in motion to have it recognized as a regular course in the athletic department of the College of Pacific.

CARRYING ON

Despite this blow to their hopes for immediate C. O. P. backing, the Bengal diamonders are going ahead with the organization of a team which will play under the sponsorship of a local merchant or merchants. Holding the inside track for the services of the squad at present is Pat Miraglio, local gas station proprietor.

The squad will include freshmen and will be playing with an eye to building a strong team for next spring. There are many promising frosh baseballers at Pacific who will benefit by the independent sponsorship. Games will be played on Saturdays and Sundays.

IMPORTANT CALL

Practice will be held at Oak Park tomorrow morning at 9:30 a. m. A short inter-grade game may be played following batting and fielding practice.

Every man at Pacific who wants to play baseball this season and is especially interested in playing for the Pacific Varsity next spring is urged to be present at tomorrow morning's workout.

Tiger Racketeers Prepare For Cal. Aggies

Under Coach Chris Kjeldsen's watchful eye the College of Pacific varsity tennis squad is taking advantage of the recent good weather to hold intensive workouts in preparation for their invasion of the Cal. Aggie stronghold at Davis on March 25.

Coach Kjeldsen announced that a tentative match has been scheduled with Willamette University of Portland, Oregon, but a definite date has not yet been set.

The members of the varsity squad are still battling for positions on the ladder and the next few weeks

Cub Trackmen Rec First Big Test Tomorrow

Clashing with Modesto tomorrow afternoon at Stadium, Coach Earl Jackson's Stockton Junior College men open their 1939 track campaign.

Up against a classy Modesto track and field team in their initial meet of the season, the Cub squad will have its hands full trying to win on the long end of tomorrow's race.

Despite the invaders' touted reputation, the Babes are given a good chance to upset the critics and hand close victory, on the strength of the intramural showing in the week.

Coach Jackson is laying hopes for a good showing on the shoulders of Jimmy Ramos, stepping hurder and sprinter, and Jack Hanner, iron-junged Tommy Davies, sprinter and hurdler.

Little is known of the individual performances, but the team they need no intro to the Junior College track.

Jackson is putting his hopes in an opening triumph of the shoulders of his intramural "dark horse."

The meet will begin tomorrow at 2:30 p. m. in the pole vault and the javelin events being held first.
