My dear Mary Here is your Dunbar Cash It all came to me for distribution.

You said last summer that you would pay back what I advanced long ago when this money came this I think will be a good plan not for me to keep - for I don't want it, but simply to give it to you again as you might chance to need it.
Anyhow come out & visit us this summer with the Christian Endeavors The fares will be low, & you will thus have one trip in your hard self denying life. Let this be the first use you make of your means.

With best wishes. I hope my times will now be easier. I am ever your loving brother John
