The trees he speaks of are the big spruce 22 miles south of Port Townsend Plate of Wash. I measured a fallen tree at Duillcene. 425 feet in length, 350 ft to first limb, all were destroyed before he reached there

Martinez, Aug. 3/97

My dear Mr. Lukens-

I thank you for the directions to the giant trees. It will go hard with me if I don't see them.

I leave tomorrow or next day & look forward to a better trip than this which I hope to make ^{with} you in long-

With best wishes to all & love to Lottie

I am yours truly

John Muir
