Stowe Dec 19. 1898.

Mr. Mrs. Dear Sir:

I received that Book all right am greatly Obliged to you.

Shall try and remember you if I
ever see you again even among strangers.

We were the
Last ones on the Mt Wish full until they went up there to make their Ice about a week ago.

02518

We have about two feet of snow here now
and the weather is about 10° below zero.

Hope you
got around home all
safe.

I am still in the Livery business.

Should like to have you come here in the middle of the Summer and go on to the Mt think you would enjoy it.

The man that went up to make ice
saw the snow was about four feet deep up there now, and about 50 feet of that walk

that went up to that Little cottage was blown down.

I suppose it is warm as summer where you are.

Well as I have got to go to supper and can't think of much more to tell you will close hoping to hear
and see you again
some time.

Ours yours,

D. R. Smith
