Martinez, Feb. 16, 1899.

My dear Mr Keeler.

I thank you for the little book on Southern California.
It is well done, infinitely better than those R.R. Tourist Things so common nowadays. The illustrations too are capital & deserve a better place. Why not make half a dozen books of this little one without special reference to R.R.s, Hotels, Tourists, etc. I'm sure the world would give you a hearing. Go ahead!

With best wishes, hoping your fine talent will speedily find due expression.
I am heartily Yours
John Muir
