

John Muir Correspondence (PDFs)

1898-01-01

Letter from D. J. Foley to John Muir, [ca. 1899].

D. J. Foley

Follow this and additional works at: <https://scholarlycommons.pacific.edu/muir-correspondence>

Recommended Citation

Foley, D. J., "Letter from D. J. Foley to John Muir, [ca. 1899]." (1898). John Muir Correspondence (PDFs). 2478.

<https://scholarlycommons.pacific.edu/muir-correspondence/2478>

This Article is brought to you for free and open access by Scholarly Commons. It has been accepted for inclusion in John Muir Correspondence (PDFs) by an authorized administrator of Scholarly Commons. For more information, please contact mgibney@pacific.edu.

of the church of ⁻²⁻England and had been located at Lomfoe, Cal.
They think him sort of "queer!" I told the story at the Hush residence in East Oakland (Lom mayee, his father-in-law) a short time since and we all had a good laugh. But, to me, at the time, up on the side of that lonely and rocky mountain, miles from anyone, it was not, ~~then~~, much of a joke.
That was the only time in my life when I wanted a "cannon." I would not have hurt him very much, but I would just like to have met his "bluff" with one, and then, if necessary, take off a tue, or finger or arm. But, as you remarked, at that glorious camp-fire and lecture, it little unless-02648 and events of such a kind will be forgotten and only the plea-ant and profitable one will be remembered. Such is my case. By the way a party of R. R. Surveyors commenced work at the Cascades, the latter part of Sept. and they should have completed their survey & moved on this. There were two parties, ~~one~~ and they made a complete survey, so that contract can be let, if they want to.

Very Truly Yrs

D. J. Foley.