Mr John Muir.
Dear Sir.

Yours of Jan. 20
was duly received, and I sincerely thank you for your kindly reply to my request to the Smithsonian Institution

It was a happy chance that they referred it to you for I would not dare make the request of you, myself had I known where to reach you:
and I am more than delighted to own an autograph letter

03158

of John Muir aside from receiving the desired information - and allow me to add that - there is for me a charm in your description that - excels Allen - Fair Dyke - Burroughs etc
You ask no fee but surely postage is your due.

Again I thank you -

Sincerely yours

Mrs James E White
