Dear Mr Muir.

My wife and I are spending the winter here and so far enjoy it very much, although we are having a little more rain than usual, tho' we don't kick because the country needs it.

We have tickets home via San Francisco tho' we may change them to go home by the Santa Fe, on account of the Bubonic plague in San F. - not that we fear the disease, but are apprehensive that we might get quarantined in that City.
I play eighteen holes of golf every forenoon to reduce my flask, and devote the afternoon

To Fay. She joins me in kindest regards to you all —

Yours sincerely
