

John Muir Correspondence (PDFs)

1903-03-12

Letter from [John Muir] to [Charles Sprague] Sargent, 1903 Mar 12.

John Muir

Follow this and additional works at: <https://scholarlycommons.pacific.edu/muir-correspondence>

Recommended Citation

Muir, John, "Letter from [John Muir] to [Charles Sprague] Sargent, 1903 Mar 12." (1903). John Muir Correspondence (PDFs). 2550.

<https://scholarlycommons.pacific.edu/muir-correspondence/2550>

This Article is brought to you for free and open access by Scholarly Commons. It has been accepted for inclusion in John Muir Correspondence (PDFs) by an authorized administrator of Scholarly Commons. For more information, please contact mgibney@pacific.edu.

[First draft of letter, in note-book]

[Charles Sprague Sargent]

March 12, '03.

Dear Sargent:

I wrote you 8 or 10 days [ago] that I would leave all and follow you through the wilds of civilization, if you would guide and personally conduct, etc. Now, I am anxious to know the date of sailing, and whether without deranging your plans the date might be in say the first week in June instead of last of May, as in one of your letters you proposed, because an influential man from Wash[ington] wants to make a trip into the Sierra with me, and I might be able to do some forest good in talking freely around the campfire. Will you therefore telegraph the date, so I may know just how much time I have?

Ever faithfully yours,

[John Muir]

03098