Dear Mr Rowell,

I see by the newspapers that the President's little raid into Yosemite is to be made after the middle of May. ~~Therefore~~ I shall not, ^{therefor} be able to join in it, I am very sorry to say, for according to an engagement made before I learned the President's wish that I should accompany him, & to which I referred in my first letter to you, I must be in Boston May 15th & sail for Europe a few days later.

Please convey my regrets to the President, & the ~~pleasure~~ ^{pleasure} in

Dear Mr. K... that I am very sorry to hear I shall not be able to be with you ^{present} on the leave 5, 7, on the 14th of May. & by that time I must be in Boston & a few days later
back for Europe - Will you kindly convey my regards to Mr. P...
& say that I hope to see him some time in the Sierra when he has more leisure.
