

1903-03-01

Letter from [John Muir] to [Emily C. Hawley], [1903 Mar ?].

John Muir

Follow this and additional works at: <https://scholarlycommons.pacific.edu/muir-correspondence>

Recommended Citation

Muir, John, "Letter from [John Muir] to [Emily C. Hawley], [1903 Mar ?]." (1903). John Muir Correspondence (PDFs). 2580.

<https://scholarlycommons.pacific.edu/muir-correspondence/2580>

This Article is brought to you for free and open access by the John Muir Correspondence 1856-1914 at Scholarly Commons. It has been accepted for inclusion in John Muir Correspondence (PDFs) by an authorized administrator of Scholarly Commons. For more information, please contact mgibney@pacific.edu.

[First draft of letter, in note-book]

[Emily C. Hawley]:

[March, 1903]

Dear Miss [Hawley]

I thank you for your kind letter. It is always encouraging to know from words like yours that one's books have not been written in vain - that one's calls to behold God's works have not been in vain.

You will be welcomed by the Sierra Club, come when you may, for its main object is to encourage people to go to the mountains and enjoy them. The mountains, too, will welcome you.

[John Muir]

[There is another draft of this letter]

BETWEEN BOND

[First draft of letter, in note-book].

22

[Emily C. Hawley]

[March, 1903].

Dear [Miss Hawley:]

I thank you for your kind letter. It is always encouraging to be reminded in so pleasant a way that trying to tell the divineness of wildness may not be altogether in vain.

As to joining the Sierra Club, simply write to the Secretary, Wm. E. Colby, Room 16, 3d floor, Mills Building, S.F., stating you are a candidate for membership recommended by me, and directions will be forwarded. There is no initiation fee. The annual dues are $3.00.

Plans for next summer's outing you will find on page 236 of the Club Bulletin, a copy of which I have sent you. The total cost for the round trip from S. F. will probably be about $40, including a mo[nth']s board in camp. I'll not be able to take part in this year's outing. I expect to be in other forests o'er the sea and far awa', but there will be no lack of skilled campers and lecturers, etc., but the mountains themselves are the best speakers, and the best singers are the winds and pines and streams and water ouzels. Anyhow you'll have a good time, meet Bryanthus, the sugar pine, the Douglas squirrel, and learn what the breath of life means.

I'll probably leave Cal., about the middle of May, but you had better call at my house anyhow, for my 2 girls are good mountaineers and will be glad to tell you about the different Sierra trips, etc.

With best wishes I am,

Faithfully yours,

[John Muir]

03098

[First draft of letter, in note-book]

[Bradford Leavitt]

[March, '03].

Dear Mr. Leavitt:

I thank you for your kind letter, and I am glad Emerson is to be so fittingly celebrated among you. As for myself, I expect to be on a long journey o'er the hills and far awa' before his birthday to see some of the forests of other lands, sailing from N.Y. about the middle or end of May. But I'll be with you in spirit, and wish you all a reviving Emerson time. Among so many Emerson lovers who know his voice and in their lives feel his presence every day, I shall not be missed.

Heartily wishing you every Emersonian blessing, I am,

Faithfully yours,

[John Muir]

WESTVINGE BOND