Professor John Muir.

Martinez.

My dear Professor:

Leaving here Thursday morning next with the Columbia will be my last trip for some time, as I go east from Portland, and possibly heave to in Europe.

Mrs Doran will accompany me.

I intended calling on you last month, but the annual drydocking and overhauling, threw us so far behind time that it took nearly the whole month to catch our old schedule. And this month Mrs Doran has been busy preparing for our journey.

I am sorry I can't see Helen before I leave, as I have some huge stories of our friends the "Huge Leviathans of the deep;" but I expect to see some on the Atlantic and will tell her all about them when I return.

Mrs Doran joins me in kindest regards to yourself and family. Wishing you a successful voyage, and that you may discover several new "Huge Leviathans"

I am

Sincerely yours

P. A. Moran
