[May 1, 1903]

Dear Mr Johnson;
I'm glad you're home
& that you had a good ~~so~~ rich time in good health.

I'll take your letter with me on the Yosemite trip & <sup>hopefully</sup> deliver your message, suggestions etc to ~~the~~ President.

I leave New York May 29th ~~sailing~~ on the Gaelic, I hope to get at least a glimpse of you <sup>as I sail as I sail.</sup> Remember me to all your family & present my sincere congratulations to Mr Buel on his marriage.

<sup>faithfully</sup> yrs
& I think I told you that I am going with Sargent across

03229

Asia by the Russian road, through Siberia + Manchuria to Peking, thence to Japan Java + Manila. to look at trees rocks etc.

I did not forget Mrs Tully's <sup>Prairie girl</sup> book, it is a charming picture of child life in the old West. But after <sup>reading</sup> Julian Hawthorne's review I thought anything I could say might do less good than harm. Good
