

John Muir Correspondence (PDFs)

1903-05-10

Letter from [John Muir] to Ellie [Mosgrove], [ca. 1903 May 10].

John Muir

Follow this and additional works at: <https://scholarlycommons.pacific.edu/muir-correspondence>

Recommended Citation

Muir, John, "Letter from [John Muir] to Ellie [Mosgrove], [ca. 1903 May 10]." (1903). John Muir Correspondence (PDFs). 2631.

<https://scholarlycommons.pacific.edu/muir-correspondence/2631>

This Article is brought to you for free and open access by Scholarly Commons. It has been accepted for inclusion in John Muir Correspondence (PDFs) by an authorized administrator of Scholarly Commons. For more information, please contact mgibney@pacific.edu.

[May 1903]

Dear Ellie.

Good bye. In a ⁷⁶ few of these swift flying days I'll be "over the sea & far awa". I have been hoping against hope that I might find a strip of time wide enough to allow a quick run to Los Angeles, but every day of late has been jammed with works big or little like a glacier Bay with icebergs.

How fast our Kameah camp-circle was broken & how far some of the members have gone

03241

or are going, to be succeeded by others.
No doubt you belong to many in Los Angeles, & nobody could ever imagine you lonely. Mr. Dickey was here a short time ago, & the ^{judge} himself came last week & checked Whitney over & over again.

Wanda & Helen are getting up a party of ten or twelve to go to Hetch Hetchy & Yosemite. They leave
S. F. May 16th & return
June 20th. I wish you could go with them.
Sincerely wishing you happy good times wherever you may