[Rough draft of portion of letter]

[May, 1903]

main, time-consuming affairs and many unmentionably small ones, Lummis, I can find an opening four or five days' wide I shall certainly belt through it for the rest and refreshment you so kindly offer.

I am glad you will be with the President in the grand Arizona Canyon country.

Faithfully and gratefully yours,

[John Muir]
