It will be useless to send any letters to the old address via London now that we are starting for Vladivostok.

After reaching the Pacific I don't know where I may go. But you may send a personal letter or two telling of your welfare etc at a venture addressed thus

"John Muir

Care of Prof C. S. Sargent Hongkong & Shanghai Commercial Bank,

Shanghai."

& if I should not go there

[July 30 - Aug 14, '03]

it would be forwarded
It will take perhaps a month or more to get to Vladivostok as we will stop off here & there, mostly beyond Lake Baikal, to study the forests.

Then I may go to Japan while Sargent is in lower China around
Peking, Mukden Port Arthun etc place I do not fancy especially at this time of year.

I feel so relieved by your little telegram but would like a letter from each of you.
Good bye again with love
