TIGERS CHAMPS OF NORTHERN DIVISION

Brilliant Renditions Mark Faculty Recital

Miss Rogers and Mr. Bacon Please
Large Audience

The third of a series of Faculty Recitals was given last Tuesday night when Nella Rogers, mezza-contralto, and Allan Bacon, pianist, presented an excellent program before a large and appreciative audience. The entire program was based on a highly artistic plane.

As the opening number, Mr. Bacon played the "Scotch Fantaisie" by Mendelssohn. This was not in accordance with the usual Mendelssohnian style and gave ample opportunity for Mr. Bacon to display his excellent technique in a masterful manner.

As the second group, Miss Rogers chose to sing, "Oh! Mon Fils" (Il profete) by Meyerbeer, "Was I Not Blade of Grass Upon the Plain," by Schalkowski and "The Island" by Schmaninoff. The first of the group is exceedingly difficult and was handled with great assurance, giving a scope to the wide range of the singer's voice. The next two were descriptive, picturesque numbers and were interpreted in a very pleasing manner.

Next, Mr. Bacon presented a Chopin group. The Scherzo was the outstanding number of the group although the other two numbers were usually well-played. The entire group was enthusiastically received by the audience.

The modern group, sung by Miss Rogers proved that she was equally capable of singing this style of song as well as the aria type in which she so often heard. "When the Swallows Homeward Fly" by White, (Continued on page 4.)

Players Announce New Plays to be Given

"Wappin' Wharf" by Charles S. Crookes is the play to be given in January by the Pacific Players, it was announced at the regular meeting of the Players, Monday evening, November 26th. It is a medieval play and the setting is in a pirate's cabin. Miss Sandale has already sent for the play and work will begin before long.

Booth Tarkington's "Seventeen" will be given by the Players in March. Money with which to obtain the manuscript was voted.

It was announced that two courses of one-act play construction would be given next semester. Anyone wishing to enroll is asked to submit a one-act play by the first of January. (Continued on page 4.)

PACIFIC WINS FINAL GAME OF FOOTBALL CAREER IN SAN JOSE

Bengals Take Hard-fought Battle From Chico Teachers

The fighting Tigers finished up the present football season, and at the same time wound up their career on the oldest grid in the state by defeating the Chico State Teachers' eleven on the afternoon of November 23rd, in one of the hardest fought battles of the season. Although winning by only one touchdown, an analysis of the play shows Pacific to have had the edge throughout the contest, gaining the most ground through the line as well as by way of the air route. Nineteen times did Pacific make first downs for a total of 233 yards, while Chico only succeeded in making five first downs for a total of 53 yards. Chico tried seven forward passes which were all unsuccessful, while Pacific completed four out of six attempts for a total of 45 yards. Both teams lost the ball once for failure to make downs, while Pacific lost it three times on fumbles, caused partly by the mode of tackling used by Chico players.

This win gave Pacific the right to meet Fresno for the state title next Saturday, but due to various circumstances that game will not be played as scheduled, leaving the decision as to just who is champion to be made by league officials.

Chico Makes Poor Start

Chico muffed their kick-off at the start, making only fifteen yards. Knoles and Wiley carried the ball 30 yards by five and six yard dashes, until a fumble behind the line necessitated a punt. Knoles' fumble after Chico had punted, and the ball had been advanced three times by five and six yard smashes, gave Chico the ball again. Chico was forced to punt on the fourth down. Wiley's ten yard run made the fifth time in the game that yardage had been made on the first two downs. The quarter ended with the ball near the center of the field.

The second quarter was almost a repetition of the first. Pacific made several good runs, from seven to sixteen yards. Fumbles gave the ball to Chico twice. The Tiger line held as usual, however, and only once did Chico break through for their yardage. The ball rested on Chico's forty-nine yard line as the half-time was called.

Tiger Score Touchdown

At the beginning of the third quarter the Tigers carried the ball, by bucks and passes, from their twenty-five yard line to the teachers' ten yard line, only to have a fumble lose the ball to Chico. After receiving Chico's punt on Chico's thirty-yard line, Pacific advanced the ball to the twelve yard line, where a poor pass caused a loss of several yards. An off-side penalty on Pacific caused the ball to go still farther backward. Wiley's pass to Spoon gained twenty-four yards and put the ball on Chico's two yard line. At this time Chico's line did their most fighting. Pacific used up their four downs putting the ball onto the line, but were given another down when Chico was off-side. They then went over for the only touchdown of the game.

The fourth quarter saw bucking, punting and passing by both sides. King, going in for Beeks, took the ball twenty-five yards on one play and fifteen yards on the next. Wiley got through for six yards on the next play, placing the ball on Chico's eleven yard line. The final gun stopped operations just when the ball was about to be snapped for a place-kick directly in front of the goal.

Pacific's lineup was as follows: Collis and Bernreuter, ends; Beecroft and Stiles, tackles; Parsons and Brown, guards; Cunningham, center; Wiley and Beeks, half-backs; Spoon, quarter-back; Knoles, full-back. Substitutions were: Case, Paull, Knoles, Wheeler, Busher, Hosie, King and Brown for Brown, Knoles, Paull, Stiles, Parsons, Collis, Beeks and Case respectively.

The game play by play:

First Quarter

Chico kicked off to Pacific's 45 yard line.

Knoles made 5 yards through center twice in succession, then Wiley made 6 yards in the same place.

Knoles went through center for first downs.

Pacific lost 4 yards on an attempted left end run.

Wiley made a yard through right

Last Thanksgiving Here is Celebrated Quietly

Faculty and Students Enjoy Bountiful Repast

The last of Pacific's traditional Thanksgiving dinners on the San Jose campus was enjoyed by a large crowd of faculty members, visitors and students in Seaton Hall last Thursday. The event was a much quieter one than in previous years, possibly because of the note of sadness in the many tender memories associated with the occasion, as Dr. Knoles suggested in the few words that he spoke at the close of the meal.

1922 Event

Last year the event was a very joyous one and the building resounded with songs and cheers for the varsity which was that day playing at Modesto. The guests of honor were Dr. Milnes, District Superintendent of the Oakland District of the California Conference of the M. E. Church and alumnus and trustee of C. O. P. and Mr. Jere Leiter former trustee and treasurer of the college, donor of the new chimes in the organ and for years the provider of the Thanksgiving turkeys for the college. Mr. Leiter has since passed away. Several members of his family were among the guests last Thursday.

King Turkey Disappears

Although the usual hilarity of the occasion was lacking, several songs were sung and everyone enjoyed to the limit the bountiful five course dinner which was prepared in the usual delicious fashion of Mr. and Mrs. Ball and their assistants. When the crowd (Continued on page 4.)

Championship Game Not to be Played with Fresno

Financial Complications Cause Big Game to be Called Off

For the last week the whole campus has been "up in the air" about the Fresno game, scheduled to be played at Stockton next Saturday. Early in the week before vacation, negotiations with the Fresno manager were encountering complications, mainly in the form of finances.

A contract drawn up according to the rulings of the C. C. C., but with more favorable terms than required by such rulings, was returned by them with a demand for better terms. Another offer was made, consisting of a division of gate receipts after all expenses of the two teams and officials (Continued on page 4.)

FOOTBALL

With the action by the Executive Committee and the Board of Control of Athletics at the first of the week, Pacific's football season of 1923 has suddenly come to a close. Many are the folks, both on the team and among the student-body, who are very much disappointed at the decision which deprives us of the opportunity of playing our rivals from Fresno State Teachers' College for the state championship in the California Coast Conference League, and to avenge the defeat suffered at their hands last year. Owing to the unfavorable and unfair conditions under which our rivals would have had us play, however, it was considered the wisest move possible. After declining to accept terms more favorable than those required by the league constitution, they decided at a late stage to refer the matter to the officials of the said league. Action by those officials would necessarily be so late as to make it impossible to play off the game without a large deficiency being incurred by the student body treasury. The fact also that the game would come so late as to interfere with a fair start being possible for the basketball season had something to do with the decision, the unnecessary delay not being considered advisable.

The action taken by these two student body organizations made it apparent that we will withdraw from the Conference, at least so far as football is concerned. It has been felt in many quarters that Pacific has somewhat outgrown the present membership of the Conference and should take on teams with a somewhat higher rating in football circles on the Coast. This action therefore, will be welcomed by many who favor such a move.

Whatever our personal feelings are in the matter of the game with Fresno and the withdrawal from the Coast Conference, we will, as loyal Pacificites, support the action taken and do our best to put Pacific on the map in a new and larger sense next season under the able direction of our student body officers.

The next issue of the Pacific Weekly will contain a review of the season's accomplishments in football, with remarks from those who held the reins during the season. Watch for it.

In the meanwhile, we will get ready for a strenuous and we hope, as successful a season in basketball which begins soon after the Christmas holidays.

Test a Joke

Passing the Buck

Small Boy—Dad, what did prehistoric monsters look like?
Dad—I can't remember, Ask your mother.

Modern Zoology

Prof.—Will someone please explain what a zebra is?
Bright Stude—It's the sport model of a mule.

—U. C. Glee Club

Kind-hearted passer-by—I wouldn't cry if I were you, little boy. You'll get your reward in the end.
Small Boy—I 'spose so; that's where I always get it.

"I don't see where we can put up this lecturer for the night."
"Don't worry, he always brings his own bunk."

Ed. Run up the curtain.
Ralph—What do you think I am, a squirrel?

So Heavenly

"I like those religious girls."
"What do you mean, religious?"
"The kind that make you feel as if you were in heaven all the time you are near them."

"Sam, what time it is?"
"Ah don' know; Ah ain't got no watch."

"Well, den, what you got dat watch chain fo'?"

"Good Lawd, Rastus, does you thing dat if a man got a halter in his hand he got a hawss in his pocket?"

Uplifting Music

Extract from church bulletin: "The choir will sing the 'Hallelujah Chorus,' after which there will be a collection for repairs to the roof."

That Proves It

Grady (after Riley had fallen five stories)—Are ye ded, Pat?
Riley—Oi am.
Grady Shure, yes sich a liar, Oi don't know whither to belave yez or not.
Riley—Shure and that proves Oi'm dead. Ye wouldn't dare call me a liar if Oi wur alive.

First Black Boy—Shoot yo' dollah, niggah, and give us a little ford-action.

Second B. B.—What do yo'all mean by 'ford-action'?

First B. B.—Shake, rattle and roll, niggah, shake, rattle and roll. Ex.

Appearances are Deceiving

"She'd look better without so much powder and rouge on."
Yes. She isn't so bad as she's painted.

Sadie N.—What's your opinion of these women who imitate men?
Babe—They're idiots.

Sadie—Then the imitation is successful.

Heard in the Beau Parlor

She asked him if he would put himself out for her sake. "Indeed I would," he replied.
"Then please do so, I awfully sleepy."

Junior—Why, there's Mabel. I thought she graduated last June.
Senior—She did.

Junior—Oh, maybe she's trying for an M. A.

Senior—Nope. She is trying for a M. A. N.

Your Mission

If you cannot on the ocean
Sail among the swiftest fleet
Rocking on the highest billow
Laughing at the storms you
You can stand among the sails
Anchored yet within the bay
You can lend a hand to help
As they launch their boats

If you are too weak to journey
Up the mountain, steep and high
You can stand within the valley
While the multitudes go by
You can chant in happy measure
As they slowly pass along;
Though they may forget the song
They will not forget the song

* * * * *
Do not then stand idly waiting
For some greater work to do
Fortune is a lazy goddess,
She will never come to you
Go and toil in any vineyard,
Do not fear to do or dare,
If you want a field of labor,
You can find it any where.
—Ellen H.

Says Modern College Girl Has Bigger

Feet of the modern college girl are increasing in size, according to Lydia Clark, head of the women's department of physical education at Ohio State University. She says modern clothes and the greatest shown in outdoor activities are causes for the increase.

"You say you were cold on the ride last night?"
"Yes, I was chilled to the bone."
"Oh, you had your hat off."

DOES FROM STOCKTON

Coburn "had the time of her life" at the Thanksgiving dinner at Stockton. She certainly enjoyed visiting all her friends in San Jose and was one of Mrs. Ball's masterpieces. Recently, she attended the meeting of the Philological Society. However, we are glad that she is glad to pack with "her children" again.

Now that the Thanksgiving vacation is over, and we have all partly digested King Turkey, maybe we can get our minds down to hard work again. Yet some of the brilliant ones like Jeannette Maki, Gene Stemeyer, and Thelma West manage to get 100 in the English Composition we had before vacation.

This fact just goes to prove that some people really have enough determination to get decent marks even with all the pleasant prospects of a good time and good eats before them, while the rest of us poor mortals work our brains by thinking of the studying we are going to do instead of doing it. Such is life. If you'll look carefully, though, you'll notice that the brilliant students were all girls.

Talking about work, it must be nice to be the faculty. Doctor Werner says that he didn't even look at the examination papers in Political Science or European History, because he didn't want to mark them while he was in too good a humor. According to "Doc," he wants to let the effects of his Thanksgiving suffering wear off so he can mark our papers more fairly. Ouch! Probably it's just as well that he doesn't correct them any sooner, because we'd only get heart-failure anyway when we saw our grades. Anyhow, by his not correcting papers, our torture is being prolonged and we are feeling that pleasant thrill of suspense which is so healthful to our systems. If the "Prof" would correct them after Christmas and raise our marks a little we might give him a handsome present.

Well, we're through with those exams, but just wait till later on. Truly "variety is the spice of life." What would we do without little excitements as Thanksgivings and examinations?

We've got Frances Gorman's number at last! A few days ago, someone told her that she was lucky not to have had some of her wise remarks put into the paper, whereupon she said, "I'm a wise bird, I am. I always keep my foot in my mouth so I won't say anything I'll be sorry for later on!" O, Frances!!!

Heard at the ends of the telephone: At one end: "I can't come, Grace, but I'll try to get someone to drive the machine for you."

At Grace's end: "Oh, no. If you can't come, I don't want anyone else." We're surprised Grace! How did it all happen?

Prof. Werner—What's the word that means sin?

Walt. Pickering—Pescado.

Prof. Werner—That means fish.

Walt.—Oh, I know it sounds like fish.

Allen—If I'd make up things out of my head, I'm afraid it would be rather splintery.

You never can tell.

Prof. Werner—What's the word for fruit?

Ella Manuel—Fru—eet!

Oh, Ella.

Dr. Werner almost swore the other morning when he said, "El Diablo," but he added "referring to the mountain, of course"

"Lazy"—You can't go to the library. Its quarantined.

Anna—Oh, I know that one. It's got smallpox in the dictionary.

Krates (speaking of a felt hat)—Make it like a senior crusher. Its cute—not.

Allen—No, its a top not.

From an English paper—"Cast had been illuminated in America."

Pauline Owens—Where does he come from Helen, Lodi?

Helen Black—Yes.

Pauline—I thought he looked like a Tokay.

From the oral English class—"I will tell you about 'The Call of the Wild' its the moving tail? or tale? of a dog."

Gene Stoutemeyer (defining soul and sole)—The soul is the spiritual part of you. A sole is the bottom.

FACULTY HOLIDAYS

Our much-revered faculty spent the Thanksgiving holiday in various and sundry ways. Several rested in their usual abodes on the campus, enjoying the splendid Thanksgiving dinner in Seaton Hall on Thanksgiving Day.

Our worthy president, Dr. Knoles spent the time quietly at home, without the usual speech-making. However, he did join the crowds to see "Blossom Time," where he spied the Farlays, Bacons and Dreskells.

There were the usual house-parties and visiting friends among the faculty. Professor White accompanied the Zahns on a house party at Mt. Hermon while the Corbins and the Dennises spent the holiday in Carmel. Miss Riddell visited friends in the bay region and Miss Moore and Miss Barr visited relatives in Berkeley.

Mr. Moore attended a house-party at Carmel, where he spent his time in sketching and attending some plays presented by dramatic folks in Carmel. The plays were 2 one-act plays, "Thrice Promised Bride" and "Queen's Enemies" by Lord Dunsay and a three-act entitled "Doubling in Brass."

ANTOINE LAURENT LAVOISIER
1743-1794

Born in Paris, son of a wealthy tradesman. As a student won a prize for an essay on lighting the streets of Paris. Held various Government posts. A martyr of the Reign of Terror. Founder of modern chemistry.

They couldn't destroy the work he did

"The Republic has no need for savants," sneered a tool of Robespierre as he sent Lavoisier, founder of modern chemistry, to the guillotine. A century later the French Government collected all the scientific studies of this great citizen of Paris and published them, that the record of his researches might be preserved for all time.

Lavoisier showed the errors of the theory of phlogiston—that hypothetical, material substance which was believed to be an element of all combustible compounds and to produce fire when liberated. He proved fire to be the union of other elements with a gas which he named oxygen.

Lavoisier's work goes on. In the Research Laboratories of the General Electric Company the determination of the effects of atmospheric air on lamp filaments, on metals and on delicate instruments is possible because of the discoveries of Lavoisier and his contemporaries.

This is the mark of the General Electric Company, an organization of 100,000 men and women engaged in producing the tools by which electricity—man's great servant—is making the world a better place to live in.

Coach Righter a World's Champion

"World's Champion" Coach "Swede" Righter has long been a modest violet blushing unseen in the midst of Pacific's stalwart Tiger lilies. But at last he has been discovered and torn from the moss of his hiding. In the course of an evening's conversation with a group of youthful admirers the Coach forgot his reticence long enough to tell how he came to win such a coveted title and explain the significance of his watch-fob.

The year after the Armistice there was a big international football game staged in France between the All-American and All-French teams. Coach Righter was chosen to play center on the All-American team which "brought home the bacon; and it still hangs high" with the other world's records won by American teams. Besides the empty honor of the title, each player was given a handsome watch fob as a token of his supremacy.

However, the situation is not without humor inasmuch as the American team has never been called on to defend its title. Perhaps all likely challengers have been blinded by the glory that shines around the present title-holders.

BRILLIANT RENDITION

"Come, and Try It" by Handel-Carmichael, and "Lullaby," by Strauss were sung with much charm and were especially well received by the audience. Jules Moullet, at the piano retained his former reputation as being an exceptionally talented accompanist.

The last number, "Fantaisie-Polonoise" by Paderewski, played by Mr. Bacon, afforded a brilliant and dramatic climax to the evening program. Rarely is one given the opportunity to hear a rendition as attractively presented as this was. The orchestral parts on second piano and organ, played by Miss Burton and Mr. Smith, added excellent support for this extremely difficult number.

Indeed, it may be said that the entire program demonstrates the superior talent among the conservatory faculty and Pacific should feel proud of having opportunity of hearing their performances.

PLAYERS ANNOUNCE

These courses will be conducted by Mr. Raymond Moore.

Local Playwright Given Recognition

Miss Hinsdale also announced that one of Mr. Moore's plays has recently been accepted by the Provincetown Players and will be given by them.

Two casts for plays to be given to the Pacific Players were announced. The Players voted to renew their subscription to the New York Drama League.

"The First Lesson in Acting," a one-act play by Richard Boleskowsky, was read by Miss Gladys DuFur at the meeting of the Pacific Players held Monday, December 4th. The reading was very entertaining and from a dramatic standpoint, instructive.

Reactions in regard to the one-act plays and the responsibility of their success were given and various phases of the work were discussed.

DIE ZUKUNFT

One of the most pleasant social evenings of the year was spent at the meeting of the German Club, Die Zukunft last Tuesday evening, in Social Hall. A good crowd was in attendance and quaint old German songs and melodies were resung and greatly enjoyed. Prof. Schilpp, who was present, read extract from a letter which he had just received from his parents in Germany, telling of the hardships and privations they are now forced to endure. The letter also bore 4 billion mark's worth of postage.

Many interesting games were played all of which were participated in by all the members, and a great deal of fun and mirth resulted.

Dainty refreshments were served by the hostess, and the members then departed at a late hour, each expressing what a good time had been enjoyed by him.

The annual Christmas meeting will be held before Christmas, the exact date to be announced later.

LAST THANKSGIVING HERE

had finished little was left of the 160 pounds of turkey or of its "fixin's."

Decorations Beautiful

The hall was simply and tastefully, and according to remarks made by several "old-timers," more beautifully decorated than it had ever been before. Great bunches and strings of autumn leaves and pepper branches gave a very festive air.

Dr. Knoles was with the students for the last time before his departure for the east where he is to spend several weeks.

SCIENCE CLUB

The Pacific Science Club will hold its regular meeting this afternoon in Social Hall.

Mr. C. C. O'Loughlin, the Pacific Coast Representative of the Spencer Lens Company, will give a demonstration of the Daylight Projection apparatus and deliver an illustrated lecture on the manufacture of optical glass.

CHAMPIONSHIP GAME

had been subtracted. This also was refused and Fresno still maintained her original demand of a guarantee of $650 or about twice as much as required by the league constitution.

Because of the long delay in reaching any grounds of agreement at all, which has not yet arrived incidentally, the Ex Committee and the Board of Control concurred in the attitude that the game was off so far as we are concerned. They also took action which may lead to the withdrawal of Pacific from the League altogether. Meanwhile, the boys have had their pictures taken, suits have been turned in and basketball practice has been started. Whatever the outcome of the difficulties, we believe that the action taken by our official bodies to be perfectly justified and we also believe that the league officials should declare the game forfeited by Fresno.

MU PHI EPSILON

Mu Eta Chapter of Mu Phi Epsilon held its first program meeting of the year on November 22nd in Social Hall. The programs this year are devoted entirely to American music. This one, the first of the series, was comprised of Indian music. A most interesting paper was read by Miss Miriam Burton, dealing with the origin and early history of Indian music. A number of tribal melodies were played throughout by Miss Clarissa Ryan, illustrating various points made.

The following musical program was given:

Violin Selections.....Clarissa Ryan
a—To the Warrior.....Cecil Burleigh
b—Over Laughing Waters..Burleigh
Vocal Selections.....Mrs. Ethel Argall
a—Lullaby .....Lieurance
b—Love Song .....Lieurance
Indian Suits for Your Hands.....

Jessie Moore and Laura Furnish

Y. M. C. A.

At last Tuesday's meeting of the Y. M. C. A., Dean Abbott gave an interesting ten minute talk on the student's concern of the Christian viewpoint toward international problems.

Next Tuesday a special rally for the Asilomar Conference will be held which is being arranged by Henderson McGee. Special numbers of interest are promised.

Y. W. C. A.

Social Service was the keynote of the Y. W. C. A. meeting which was held Tuesday morning, December 4th. The time was spent in making scrap-books. The quota is now complete and thirty books will be sent to the Houchen's settlement in El Paso, Tex., to gladden the hearts of the Mexican children at Christmas time.

Lillian Clark told of the needs of the day nursery in San Jose and the girls decided that their Christmas plans should include a party and toys for the children of the children of the nursery.

Under the leadership of Miss Marcella White the Girl Reserves of Pacific presented the Girl Reserve Initiation ceremony before the Y. W. on November 27th. The impressive ceremony was given by candle light in Social Hall, Miss Priscilla Stohr, Girl Reserve Secretary of San Jose, acting as leader of the club. The purpose of the meeting was to arouse greater interest among Pacific girls in the activities of Girl Reserve units. The meeting was closed by the singing of Girl Reserve songs.

Pi Kappa Vaudeville Show Big Success

The Pi Kappa Delta vaudeville show presented Friday evening, November 23rd, was a decided success from every standpoint. Much credit is due Miss Hinsdale for her part in directing the different numbers, all of which elicited much applause from the appreciative audience. All the people who took part are to be congratulated on the performance, for it was due to the united efforts of the forty participants that the evening was one of pleasure for the spectators. The electricians, Mr. Malone and his staff also deserve praise for the efficient manner in which their duties were performed, especially during the color symphony.

The program was as follows:

1. The Arabian Chorus by members of Mu Zeta Rho.
2. A Pantomime accompanied by Russell Bodley on the organ. The scene is laid in a street car.
3. A Group of Dances:
Highland Fling by Betty Kroeck.
Snake Dance by Fat Crichton.
Skaters Dance by members of Miss Bray's dancing class.
Spanish Dance, "Espanita" by Betty Kroeck.
A Ballet by Madeline Helm.
4. A Group of Songs by Walline Knoles.
"Gypsy Love Song," "Duna," "Mary."
5. One of Pacific's String Trios.
Pianist, Mr. Cooper; Cellist, Mr. Painton; Violinist, Mr. Jenkins.
"Garden Dance," "Water Lilies," "Valse Danseuse."
6. One act play, "Food," by Wm. Cecil de Mille, by members of the Pacific Players. The characters were:
Irene by Lucy Woodhouse.
Basil by Raymond Moore.
Harold by Walter Murphy.
Scene—Laid in Irene's and Basil's sitting room.
7. Julian Eltinge the 2nd.
Aunt Jemimah.
8. The Dennispoon Funsters.
9. The Color Symphony.
Russel Bodley, organist; Edwin Malone, electrician.
10. Chorus: "Umpta-Da-Da," by members of Mu Zeta Rho.

Reflect upon your present blessings, of which every man has many; not on your past misfortunes, of which all men have some.—Dickens.

Athenaea Enjoys Pledge Dinner

If Athenaea served refreshments from the Garden of Eden at her afternoon tea, then her pledge dinner was served in a Garden of Roses.

Monday evening found the old and new girls in a private dining room at the Vendome Hotel. The table was artistically decorated in roses so that the center of the table had the appearances of being a veritable garden of roses. At each place was a decorated powder puff with a place card attached.

During the dinner the girls were enlightened by a description of some of the "nicest" boys on the campus, "Somebody's" ideas of an ideal man, etc.

After dinner the girls all went to the T & D to see "Little Old New York" which was a delightful finish to a perfect evening.

ATHENAEA

The regular meeting of Athenaea was held at a later hour Friday, so that the members could attend the football game. After the game the girls gathered in the society room and the following girls were pledged to the society: Florence Eiland, Rosemary Wilcox, Elsie Jopson, Margaret Stout and Ruth Archibald. Thelma Riedelbauch, an alumni member, had sent a box of eats, so the rest was devoted to a social time. Because of the vaudeville show on Friday night it was thought best to postpone the pledge dinner until Monday night.

ARCHANIA

"Bully!"

"Teddy" Roosevelt's favorite expression, and a just and accurate description of the meeting of Archania Thursday evening before vacation.

After a short business meeting, which was characterized by the snap and precision with which it was carried on, followed the literary program. Quotations were from Theodore Roosevelt, former president and noted American. Collis then read a short story of "Teddy", bringing out the sterling qualities of the man in his endeavor to be fair and square.

Cunningham delighted the crowd with two new records on the phonograph, and made a worthy addition to our number of records. Gilman next entertained his audience with a group of well selected current events, giving a wide and comprehensive view of the whole situation today.

"Al" Beecroft brought forward the most recent current events on the campus. They were very good and Easterbrook ably and interestingly supplemented with a little discourse on the "foulness of some fools."

"Wes" Irely read a story portraying the rough riders in their fighting experiences in Cuba. Lowell and Bernreuter gave two exciting and thrilling impromptus on subjects of "vital" importance to all. Poster-grabbing was discussed and condemned by the first speaker in most denouncing terms while the second orator gave a brief sketch on advantages of "certain" kinds of machines over "certain" other kinds for "certain" purposes.

Parliamentary law drill was conducted by "Cutie" Butler and he showed his ability to wield the gavel successfully. The meeting then closed with Pacific and Archania songs and yells.

Goal Shooting Contest

The oval pigskin has been packed in moth balls and the globular casaba is coming into prominence. All of which reminds us that some skilful lad is going to win a gold watch and medal during the basketball season. All the lucky young gentleman has to do is to come out to basketball practice regularly and shoot fifty out of fifty free goals. That's easy enough if you are a slicker.

In other words, the contest for free goal shooting will begin December 17 and all men out for practice will be given the chance to slip the pill through the loop. The rules for the contest are as follows:

1. Because of the new ruling which says that the person upon whom the foul is committed must throw the goal, we hereby submit the following rules for a contest, intended to create proficiency in the art of free goal throwing.
2. The contest is limited to men regularly out for basketball practice.
3. The contest is to be conducted by Block "P" members.
4. It is to be a ladder tournament lasting throughout the entire season.
5. A meet will be held on December 17, at which time each contestant wishing to enter will be allowed to try for a place on the ladder, 25 shots each.
6. Each person is to take 50 shots at the basket, each time moving his feet before shooting again. (In case of a tie the contestants will shoot 100 shots, moving feet between each shot.)
7. At the close of the season the top six will compete for the championship.

Wilbur Hall to Speak In Chapel Monday

Wilbur Jay Hall, well-known California writer, will speak in Chapel next Monday under the auspices of the Paperweights. Mr. Hall is the second of the local authors whom the Paperweights have engaged to speak to them this winter and they have decided to share him with the entire student body.

Mr. Hall is a novelist, dramatist, short story writer, and journalist. His short stories and novels appear in "The Saturday Evening Post," "Colliers," and "The Sunset"; his articles in these magazines and in others, such as "The American" and "The World's Work," as well as in the San Francisco newspapers. The November "Sunset" contains one of his short stories, entitled "See Mrs. Pierce." He is the author and director of the famous pageants of Los Gatos and is a dramatic critic of some ability. He is also interested in political and social activities, having just recently been engaged in aiding the Community Chest movement. The students are fortunate in having him to speak here.

PACIFIC ALUMNI PUBLISHES MONTHLY

A copy of Volume I, Number 1 of "The Pacific Alumni" was received by the library some time ago. Beginning with the November an edition of this infant magazine is to appear once a month from now on. The publication is a four page paper resembling "The Pacific Weekly" in general make-up and contains accounts of the events of progress of the college and alumne news, including personals, announcements of weddings, births, deaths, etc. It is published by the Alumni Association of the College of Pacific by means of a temporary budget of $500 raised through contributions by members of the organization. The subscription price is one dollar per year.

The editorial staff of "The Pacific Alumni" consists of Evvie M. Tilman '02, editor; Mrs. Adelaide Coburn '18, Stockton Campus; Lorraine Knoles '21, San Jose campus; Josephine Sinclair '03, conservatory alumni. Two of the group are members of our present faculty and are known to our student body. The news staff is made up of the permanent secretaries of the different classes. It will be recalled that Marjorie Hixsoon, now Mrs. Homer Bodley of Rio Linda, was chosen permanent secretary of the class of '23.

The publication is for the purpose of forming an additional bond of friendship between the graduates of the institution and a means by which they may continue to remain in touch with each other and with their Alma Mater.

Previous Publications

Previous to this the conservatory alumni have published an annual bulletin containing the names, addresses, and occupations of as many of the conservatory graduates as it was possible to obtain information concerning; also an account of the principal events of interest concerning the activities and faculty of the conservatory. Last year the college published a bulletin containing a complete list of the names of all Pacific's alumni with the present addresses and occupations of as many as it was possible to obtain. This is the first time that the publication of a more frequently appearing periodical and one containing more personal information has been attempted. It surely is a sign that our alumni are behind the college and that they have faith in its future.

Ten Commandments of Business

1. Handle the hardest job first each day. Easy ones are pleasures.
2. Do not be afraid of criticism—criticize yourself often.
3. Be glad and rejoice in the other fellow's success—study his methods.
4. Do not be misled by dislike. Acid ruins the finest fabrics.
5. Be enthusiastic—it is contagious.
6. Do not have the notion that success means simply money-making.
7. Be fair, and do at least one decent act every day in every year.
8. Honor the chief. There must be a head to everything.
9. Have confidence in yourself and make yourself fit.
10. Harmonize your work. Let sunshine radiate and penetrate.

—Impressions.

Seaweed—Don't the football boys ever wash their suits?

Driftwood—Why, certainly. What do they have the scrub team for?

Cage Season Begins With Inter-class and Intra-Mural Contests

As a preliminary to the regular season, Intra-mural Basketball has rather quietly filled the vacancy left when football training broke up.

For the benefit of new-comers at Pacific, Intra-mural basketball was instituted last year by the Block "P" Society and a cup presented by Bob Breeden for the winner. All fraternities, societies and clubs which have not been established for athletic purposes are eligible to enter teams, to determine among them the supremacy in basketball and also to give the coach a chance to look over the new material for varsity positions.

Owing to the sudden ending of the football season, the first game, which was to have been played on December 10th was played yesterday afternoon. Although Block "P" men are not eligible to play in this tournament it is expected that there will be some good games played and much new material developed.

Inter-class Basketball

Inter-class basketball on Saturday nights during the Intra-mural season will add zest to these preseason contests. The first Inter-class games will be played on December 8th, when the Seniors tangle with the Sophomores and the Juniors meet the Freshmen. The first game will be called at 7:30 p. m. The winners of these two games will meet on December 15th for the Hazel Dare Perpetual Trophy.

Intra-mural Schedule

The schedule for the Intra-mural contests is as follows: Archania vs. East Hall and Rhizomia vs. Crosby's Five on December 5th, with Collis as referee; Rhizomia vs. Omega Phi Alpha and Archania vs. Toothpicks on Friday, December 7th, with Spoon as referee; Rhizomia vs. Toothpicks and East Hall vs. Omega Phi Alpha on December 10th, with Knoles as referee; Archania vs. Omega Phi Alpha and Toothpicks vs. Crosby's Five on December 12th, with Burcham as referee.

CAMPUS NOTES

Contrary to the belief, vacation time for those left on the campus was not a dull time by any means. There were a number of little gatherings, (mostly at the dorm) in the form of rook and mah jongg parties, breakfast for four (and visitors) a candy pull and some studying.

We heard the remark the other day that "Spring has come," and looked around for the cause. It was none other than Julian Eltings, the second, taking a plunge in the Sophomores' outdoor swimming tank. Later on we saw quite an array of men students, mostly Frosh, seated on the lawn opposite the tank, evidently awaiting further demonstrations of aquatic ability.

The dorm was not the only scene of merry parties we're told. For further information, ask Cunningham about the hot dog party in the boiler room.

Among the visitors on the campus during the last week was Floyd Pierson, who acted as Weekly Editor in some years past. He had some interesting anecdotes to relate to some of the students who followed him here.

EXCHANGES

The Weekly is fortunate in having a large and exceedingly good list of school publications on exchange. These may be seen at any time by students on the window sill back of the reserved book section. Look them over. During the Thanksgiving week which is a smaller one than usual due to vacation time the following papers were received by the Editor: Manual Arts Weekly, Los Angeles; Trojan, University of So. California; Oregon Daily Emerald, University of Oregon; Calumet Herald, Hammond Hi, Hammond, Ind; The Konah, Missoula Hi, Missoula, Mont; The Tokay, Lodi Hi School; The Coyote Journal, Pheonix Hi, Pheonix, Ariz.; The Seismograph, Gooding College, Idaho; Red & Gold, Chico Hi School; Guard & Tackle, Stockton Hi School; San Mateo Hi, San Mateo High School; Awgwan, Modesto Hi School; The Railsplitter, Salina Hi, Salina, Kans.; Visalia News, Visalia Hi School; San Jose Teachers' College Times; The Flathead Arrow, Kalispell, Mont.; The Trail, College of Puget Sound, Tacoma, Wash.; The Nazarene Messenger, N. W. Nazarene College, Nampa, Ida.; The Exponent, Baldwin-Wallace College, Berea, Ohio; The Argus, Illinois Wesleyan University, Bloomington, Ill.; Hi Life, Puyallup, Wash.; Quaker Campus, Whittier College, Calif.; San Jose Herald, San Jose Hi School; and Educational News Service bulletin from Teachers' College, New York City. And that is not the complete list of exchanges. We thank them one and all.

Former Pacific Man Gains High Honor

Mr. F. E. Rogers of San Jose, Calif., is the only man from the Sunset State taking part in the big school survey of Springfield, Mass., now being conducted by the Department of Field Studies, Institute of Research, Teachers College in the city of New York, under the direction of Dr. Geo. D. Strayer and Dr. N. L. Engelhardt.

Mr. Rogers, former student in the College of Pacific and Leland Stanford University where he received his A. B. and M. A. degrees, went east recently to take advanced work in school administration in Teachers College. The California man is one of the youngest students to be picked so far to help on the big school survey. Most of the men are school administrators of long experience, who are now in Teachers College doing higher work. It is understood that the educational experience of Mr. Rogers has been limited to a few years' work in the high school of Salinas, and to summer school work in Leland Stanford. The fact that he was given recognition in spite of his limited experience means quite an honor to the Californian.

In the survey Mr. Rogers is working under the direction of two very widely known schoolmen. Dr. Geo. D. Strayer is one of the big figures behind the Towner-Sterling Bill that will come up again before Congress the coming season; and Dr. N. L. Engelhardt, who is associated with Dr. Strayer in the School Administration Department of Teachers College, is rated as one of the foremost authorities on school buildings and school administration in the country.

Heard at chorus: "Can't you sing louder? Be more enthusiastic, open your mouths and throw yourself into it."
