Dear Sister Sarah:

I sent you a petition to sign which no doubt you have received ere this John Reis David, Maggie & myself thought the settlement of <sup>Anna's</sup> estate had better be <sup>done</sup> in the regular way, all the heirs sharing lawfully alike, & then dividing as they thought best under the present circumstances instead of trying to make legal the Memorandum written years ago.

We are about as usual, Maggie rather better. I return Mary's letter, W. H. to Anna & the little ones. Ever affectionately
