Good friend ,

An eastern paper tells me that Prof. Sargent has returned from his trip , To me that reads that you must have gotten home φ in good time to have a redberry wreath twined for you by your daughters' hands , and to carve the bird that a loving wife ~~is~~ enjoyed turning for you in the hot stove.
Take our "Welcome Home" , then, from this happy home and listen to it as you do to the satisfied croak of the new-awakened frogs and the first hum and chirp of the humming bird @s he whiles around your porch on his way to hunt the first manzanitta bloom .

Whom God loves , he shows the world. But we all decide on a place we love best for every-day life : home .

Your friends
