

John Muir Correspondence (PDFs)

---

1904-02-22

Letter from Emily O. [P.] Wilson to [John Muir], [1904?] Feb 22.

Emily O. P. Wilson

Follow this and additional works at: <https://scholarlycommons.pacific.edu/muir-correspondence>

---

Recommended Citation

Wilson, Emily O. P., "Letter from Emily O. [P.] Wilson to [John Muir], [1904?] Feb 22." (1904). John Muir Correspondence (PDFs). 2751.

<https://scholarlycommons.pacific.edu/muir-correspondence/2751>

This Article is brought to you for free and open access by Scholarly Commons. It has been accepted for inclusion in John Muir Correspondence (PDFs) by an authorized administrator of Scholarly Commons. For more information, please contact mgibney@pacific.edu.

[3]
"The Wood & Evening" and in search of a breakfast.

I wish now that I had taken them up to your place - I should have enjoyed reading them with you and your wife - If you wish I will send some of them up - I forgot to mention among printed articles - A Geologist's Winter walk - Water ouzel and the wind storm <sup>in</sup> Quins

I must draw this lengthy epistle to a close

The old days have been very close - old memories stirred and the kind brother letters of my friend of Auld Lang syne have done me good - I hope your wife received my letter when I

[1]

Dear old friend

I have been enjoying a treat yesterday and today - have been looking over some of your old letters. Some headed "Meaford" - some "Tructo - Mills" - "Fountain Lake" and those best of all Yosemite Valley - When you made me see the beauties and long for a sight with my own eyes of those wonderful cliffs.

03342

I have quite <sup>[23]</sup> a number of clippings from papers - of articles of yours - one as far back as '74 - then of your northern trips - 79 - 80, 81 but no doubt you have all of those - though I heard you say you could not find some article - what was it?

I find a letter "Anna Wanda" would smile over, written when she was three days old - "The happy, healthy, faintly
- featured Carrie - How the years have sped - and she now a maiden of more than twenty years still bringing happiness to both father and mother.

And still another you have in your home - a merry hearted maid and may you long have both to brighten your heart's tone - I have the Wisconsin letters also - Do you recall the Sabbath poem first returned home

and that all are well Resident of regards to you all -

Ever your friend
Emily D. Wilson

Feb. 22nd
" "

593 Sycamore St.
Oakland