

John Muir Correspondence (PDFs)

1904-03-22

Letter from Harmon O. Parsons to John Muir, [19]04 Mar 22.

Harmon O. Parsons

Follow this and additional works at: <https://scholarlycommons.pacific.edu/muir-correspondence>

Recommended Citation

Parsons, Harmon O., "Letter from Harmon O. Parsons to John Muir, [19]04 Mar 22." (1904). John Muir Correspondence (PDFs). 2757.

<https://scholarlycommons.pacific.edu/muir-correspondence/2757>

This Article is brought to you for free and open access by Scholarly Commons. It has been accepted for inclusion in John Muir Correspondence (PDFs) by an authorized administrator of Scholarly Commons. For more information, please contact mgibney@pacific.edu.

[13]

Los Angeles, Cal.,
March 27, 1904

Dear Friend Mr. Muir.

It gives me much pleasure to write you a friendly letter describing to you the day of March 17, 1904, which was held as Arbor Day, in Los Angeles. We also had flag-raising exercises, as we hoisted our first flag. The flag was presented to Mr. Monroe the representative of our ward on the Board of Education. We had a delightful program in which several of your nature quotations were recited.

Our new school-house is 10031

situated on a hill near the corner of 24th Street and Western Avenue and is surrounded by beautiful residences; we have a nice view of the mountains.

Our school consists of four sunny rooms also four small ones, and a large hall

On Arbor Day we planted a redwood tree, and dedicated it to you.

If you should come to Los Angeles we would be glad to have come to our school and visit us

Sincerely Yours.

Harmon O. Parsons
2707 Hobart Blvd