~~your care~~
~~sickness & mortal trouble~~ ~~was heart-touching~~
~~my heart~~ ~~I'll never forget it,~~
~~but shall always be~~
Faithfully yours
J. M.

Dear Mr. Hamman. I have been anxious to see you ever since I got home. Of course I want to tell you something of what I saw in Russia, Siberia, Manchuria, India, Egypt, Australia, New Zealand & the Philippines. These travel things however will keep indefinitely. But sending me that comforting cable message from Salt Lake was to make everything easy on the crowded Siberia was mighty good & kind of you & I want to thank you for it face to face. Above all I want to thank you for ~~that~~ ^{the} letter you sent after me from your sick bed, which ^{at Moscow on my return from} reached me just as I was leaving St. Petersburg for the Crimea & the Caucasus. That letter full of thoughtful care for me when you were in the midst of infinite mortal trouble was heart-touching. I'll never forget it & shall always be Faithfully yours J. M.
