sent it.

I infer from the post. must that you have got home again, and hope you found the rest of your journey pleasant & interesting. I wonder if you met my cousin in Australia.

I enjoyed my little ^{time at} home, and was out here again as arranged by the end of December, since which I have been leading a quiet but not unpleasant life in this small up-country station.

You were just in time in coming by the Siberian railway when you did. It wouldn't be available now!

We follow the men out here with much interest, and are glad the boys are giving such a good account of themselves.

With all good wishes, and hoping I may some day be able to avail myself of your kind offer to show me something of the 'Mountains of California' at first hand if I travel
