CHICAGO Sep't 11th 1904.

Just as we were about to leave our old house on Michigan Ave, the last of June, we received your splendid letter of June 16th last from Martinez, and I hurridly answered it.

Afterwards, looking the paper over, I found on the first page in red pencil " Marked copy F. W. G.", which explained who it was from. F.W.G.being Fred. W. Coding, Mrs Sellers' cousin, who is the U. S. Consul at New Castle New South Wales. He is quite a naturalist, and has sent me some valuable books on the aborigines of that country.

We were all interested and delighted with your letter, and were astonished at how much you told us in the four pages. It gave us a splendid idea of your great travels, and what you saw, in a very few words.

Now, for fear you did not get my brief answer to your letter, I must, at the risk of repetition, tell you why we sold our house. Last year we were only in the house about two months, the winter being spent at Coronado Beach California, and the following summer at Oconomowoc and Puckawa lake. Returning from there Nov 15th we left on Jan'y 15th last for "Southern Cal." returning here about the first of last May. Soon after our return an "Israelite" commenced negotiating with me for the house, and inasmuch as we were about the only "Gentiles" left in the block- balance all Israelites- I finally sold to him the place, realizing $50,000.00 in cash, being all that it had cost me more than 15 years ago. It took about two months to consummate the sale, get rid of our surplus "truck" (giving away six wagon loads) and pack up and store the balance in warehouse. We then took rooms in the "Hotel Metropole," a very fine family hotel at the corner of 23rd & Michigan Ave. We did this because we had no time to look up another house, and wanted time to carefully consider before building another home. We cannot, at present, give much attention to our future plans, because Mrs. Sellers' dear old mother is very ill, and at her age, 82, is in a very precarious condition. We cannot now make any plans for this coming winter, because if she continues as she is now, Fay will not want to go very far from her. We have been in the city all summer, and expect to remain, tho' we hope to be able to spend a couple of weeks or so at Puckawa lake, near your old home in Wisconsin, sometime next month.

Frank and his wife took dinner with us today, and we talked much about you. Frank said "I do hope Mr. Muir will now settle down to write, and give the world the benefit of the great knowledge he has acquired, in his own beautiful language", to which I say "amen". Frank has just returned from New York. He has been working for a long time on a big street railroad subway scheme for this city, but finds it hard to float just now. I think he feels, after this last trip to N. Y., quite discouraged, as he begins to talk about trying to get into something else. This, I fear, he will not find easy to do in these times. I told him that if he was not married, I would send him out to California, or the coast generally, to see what he could do out there.

He, and Fay join me in kindest regards, and best wishes to you all.

Sep 24. you say you thought I had gone to Australia
+ I began to think ^{again} you had all gone
Sincerely yours
A. H. Sellers

I have your letter you refer to. The letter of Sep. 11th is the first I have received. It is the one you sent in June must be some seven or eight years old. I began to think you were as busy as I am. I have been writing a lot of stuff of late more than ever.

Now that your fine American house is sold you must all come to Cal. as soon as you can, build your new home here & the my neighbor. Then we can grow old (or young) together by the water - the glorious ocean will be our glorious backyard. The Pacific our home when we can sail when we like, for fresh air to Alaska to the Andes for exercise & views of the noble aboriginal people of to South Africa & Madagascar to see the great Baobabs etc etc etc
+ we can go back anytime to India for another look at the Himalaya
While congratulating you on your freedom I can't help feeling a little sad at the loss of my home. The only home I ever had in Chicago - I'm putting a little note in my pen trying to write another little book. Didn't the plan of 5 that but it seems hardly worth the while spending my precious time on them.
When of course I can get them off my hands I don't know
