My dear Mr Keeler:

Your kind letter from Tuntbriar Camp last year has just reached me forwarded from China. When it was written I was in Manchuria & then my trip had only fairly commenced. At Christchurch, New Zealand I met the director of the Museum who knew you & Mrs Keeler & very kindly inquired for you.
What a fine trip that must have been for you. The South Sea Islands, New Zealand Australia-Honolulu etc. & what a fine summer you all had in the Shasta region. You must come up as soon as you can & compare notes. Though I see by the papers you are very busy & fruitful Remember me to Mrs Keeler &
The little darling & believe me with all best wishes Faithfully Yours
John Muir
