If so I should like to see them immensely.
Also Stickeen (your title was changed by N.Y. editor). If you give me date & place of publication I will go to some library if map cannot now be procured and borrow
it. Kindly give reference whenever you write next. With very many thanks for book.

I am, Dear Mr. Muir,
Yours very sincerely

Dear Mr. Muir,

I ought to have acknowledged long before this the receipt of your most charming book
Our National Parks. You are partly to blame for the delay for I had to read every word carefully

03458

before I could think of any letters to any one and then I began
 again at the beginning.
 You have given me a great pleasure. I now live in earnest hope of seeing something of the Yosemite or other
 of the Edens you describe.

I sent the other day
 my copy of Sir Joseph

Hookers ^[3] Himalayan Journal. I know of another copy I can get sometime when convenient. But I thought you would like mine with Sir Joseph's writing
 within.

Have you done anything towards putting on record your impressions of your Old World travels?
