WHITE HOUSE,
WASHINGTON.

November 3, 1904.

My dear Mr. Muir:

It was a pleasure to hear from you, and I am glad if my letters were of any assistance to you and Sargent. I am still more pleased that you should say that our brief trip through the Yosemite together was as pleasant as any part of your subsequent travels. It is a memory I shall always cherish.

As to how the election is going, I haven't the slightest idea. In any event, I have ~~got~~ nothing to regret.

Sincerely yours,

Theodore Roosevelt

Mr. John Muir,
Martinez, California.
