is nearly finished.

How are you & how are you getting on?

Best wishes for Christmas for you all.

Robert sends his kind regards.

Yours faithfully,

C. S. Sargent.

Dec. 16

Dear Maria,

The enclosed has been sent to me for you.

The only business is getting on all right, and is gradually settled. The last copy of the volume is in the printing house. As this, for 03479

BROOKLINE.

Courtesy & all
our first Sargents I'm glad to learn the Manual is completed. I congratulate you at once on a little of you busy with a little of back but on account of a mob of compounded interruptions make slow progress.

I haven't written a word for the press about the big trip but <sup>keep me in your mind</sup> am still enjoying it. The Indian Australia, New Zealand
& the Pacific part especially pleasant. Merry Christmas & New Year With best wishes & kind regards from all

I am faithfully yours

J. M.
