Martinez, Feb. 23, 1895

My dear Mr Johnson,

I send you today the Alaska trip by registered mail. I think it reads pretty well though its tail is slightly scrawny after pulling out so many of its plumes for the Glacier Bay article - There is a good deal in it & it cannot I think fail to interest Tourists.

I had a letter the other day from Sir Joseph Hooker saying he had just finished reading the last page of my book & that he didn't know when he had ever read anything that gave him so much pleasure & instruction etc & asks whether I am going to give a book on Alaska I shall now tackle the dog & the adventure -
Ever Cordially Yours
John Muir
