My dear Mier -

Your kind note of the 11th inst reached me yesterday morning - Mrs Sellers caught a severe cold the day before we left so that she did not have a very pleasant journey home but we traveled in such royal style, ~~that~~ she having a room all to herself, so that she came through with no more discomfort than she would have experienced at either end of the line - I find the San Francisco matter in such a shape that it looks now as tho' I would have to go out to your city sometime during the coming month (May) and if I have to go will bring Mrs Sellers with me & we will certainly come to see you - Give our kindest regards to Mrs Mier Mrs Strutzel not forgetting our dear little friend Keith. I heartily rejoice that you all the winter by "Aoki" the Japs joined - Yours very truly A.H. Sellers
