OXFORD DEBATE TEAM HERE ON NOVEMBER 11TH

INSTALMENT BUYING TO BE DISCUSSED; WIT
IN ABUNDANCE

Save the date! Monday evening, November 11, the College of the Pacific will be honored by the presence of the most famous debating trio in the world, the Oxford debate team. This will be one of the high-spots of the year, and no one can afford to miss the opportunity for hearing the brilliant and witty contest for which these Englishmen are renowned.

The members of the Oxford team are all outstanding young men, whose debating experience has been very extensive. Richard Thomas Dyke Ackland, who comes from a line of political leaders in England, ran for Parliament on the Liberal platform in the last election, but was defeated. He comes from Balliol College, and is a budding young barrister.

Bernard Joseph Maxim MacKenna, a young Irishman, has had a very extensive college career and is now engaged in writing a thesis on the Greek novel. Mr. MacKenna is also studying law.

William John Kenneth Diplock, the third member of the team, has a decided calling in literary fields. He has contributed to several magazines and essay periodicals. He is a Tory, and expects to represent his party in Parliament some day.

Pacific is noted for her debaters. The Pacific team is composed of Carl Page, James Robertson, and Robert Burns.

The subject to be discussed is the installment plan of buying and its influence on the American public. This is a real problem, which is facing the business men of the country. It will be interesting and valuable to hear the views of these three men on the subject.

Pacific is extremely fortunate to be able to present the Oxford team, because it is appearing before only four collegiate audiences on the Pacific coast; namely, University of California, Stanford, Pomona, and Pacific. Communications from England state that these have been chosen as the representative colleges of the far west.

This debate will serve as a fitting climax to Armistice Day, due to the international features involved. It will be a real event in Pacific's history.

Good entertainment as well as an able treatment of the subject is promised. The jokes that the Cambridge team used on its tour several years ago were so good that numbers of them are still in circulation. Come to get a new supply from these masters of wit and phrase.

Admission will be 25 cents for students, and 50 cents for general admission. Tickets will be on sale by Professor Orton's classes at an early date.

Flaming youth is not always so bright.

RALLY PARADE OPENS ANNUAL 'HOMECOMING'

The bonfire rally this evening begins the Homecoming program. The parade will leave Stadium Drive at 6:30 this evening and will drive down town. The procession will be led by a traffic officer and will proceed down Main Street and back on Weber Avenue. The band will ride on a truck at the head of the parade and behind it will come the speakers' car.

The speakers are Dr. Knoles, Principal Fred W. Ellis of the high school, and Mr. M. P. Shaughnessy, a prominent Stockton lawyer. One of the cars will be equipped with three clanging bells and another will be adorned with a large Pacific pennant. Racing of cars is to be avoided.

The procession will return to the gymnasium at 7:30. A clever stunt will be put on by the student body. Heretofore the program has consisted of stunts by the sororities and fraternities. The feature is a mystery skit and was written by Margaret Jack. Douglas Conway composed the dances. The leading players in the skit are Greydon Milam and J. Henry Smith. There will be a rooting section of sixty girls. Under the direction of the yell leaders and the new song leaders the student body will be led in a hearty response. The college orchestra will also play several numbers. After the program in the gymnasium the students will serpentine out and encircle the bonfire and join together in singing and yelling. The bonfire rally will be over in time for those who wish to, to attend the play, "The Queen's Husband," presented by Pacific Players in the College Auditorium. The curtain will rise at 8:45.

On Saturday morning the Alumni Association will hold its business meeting in Social Hall at 10:00. Marshall Hale, President of the Alumni Association, will preside at the Alumni Luncheon at 12:30 in the Dining Hall. Marshall Hale and Dr. Knoles will address the Alumni. At the speakers table will be seated: Marshall Hale, President of the Alumni Association; Dr. and Mrs. Tully C. Knoles, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas F. Baxter, Dr. and Mrs. A. C. Bane of Berkeley, Dr. and Mrs. John L. Burcham, Mr. and Mrs. N. M. Parsons, Miss Lorraine Knoles and Bernice Fiola, Secretary of the Alumni Association.

A rally program will be given at the luncheon. Pete Knoles will lead the songs, Henderson McGee will lead the yells, and the College Band will serenade the crowd.

At 2:30 the dedication of the stadium in honor of Mr. Thomas F. Baxter will take place. Mr. Baxter gave $25,000 to the college this summer to defray the expenses of the stadium. Dr. Knoles will preside at the dedication. The program is as follows:

The Thunder—Sousa.....
College of Pacific Band
Presentation of Baxter Field.....
Mr. Thomas F. Baxter

Maneuvers.....College of Pacific Band
The play, "The Queen's Husband," will also be given on Friday and Saturday evenings at 8:15 in the College Auditorium.

Of especial interest is the art exhibit for Homecoming, held in the Art Studio in Weber Hall. The exhibit includes just the work of this year in sketching, still life and crafts. The exhibit will be open Friday afternoon from 2:00 until 5:00 o'clock, and Saturday from 10:00 until 6:00 o'clock.

The sororities and fraternities are entertaining their alumni members and the dormitories are also welcoming those who are not affiliated with any of the houses.

NOTED THINKER TO SPEAK HERE ON CIVILIZATION

SATURDAY NIGHT TIME
RUSSELL'S LECTURE
IN STOCKTON

The people of Stockton and the College of the Pacific are to be afforded an opportunity which may never be equalled again during this generation, when Bertrand Russell, Philosopher, Essayist, and Publicist, will lecture at the High School Auditorium, Saturday evening, November 2nd, on "The Outlook for Civilization." Mr. Russell is a world famous per-after speaker and thinker to make Stockton one of the points on his sonage and it is indeed a unique thing for such a distinguished and sought itinerary.

IS ALL-AROUND EXPERT
Mr. Russell is noted for his essays, his philosophy, his speaking and for his new ideas. However, his talent and knowledge are not limited to a few narrow fields as are many of our great men. He is world famous for his philosophy, sociology, political science, economics, and for his own system of education. He is besides, an expert on mathematics and physics.

CALLED RADICAL
Prof. Paul A. Schlipf says, "Bertrand Russell is the one man who, more than any other, can lay claim to the proud distinction of being con-

DECREASE IN CINCHES MADE BY STUDENTS

The report on cinches of the scholarship committee for October, 1929, indicates that 21 per cent of college students (except applied music and art students) received cinches. The enrollment of this group totals 723. The report shows an improvement in scholarship since 1927. In 1927 approximately 34 per cent of college students (except music and applied art students) received cinch cards. In October, 1928, 26.7 per cent of the 808 students enrolled in the Liberal College received cinch notices. In November, 1928, 24.125 per cent of the 808 students received cinch cards. In March and April, 1929, 21 per cent of the 730 students enrolled in the Liberal College received cinch cards.

The report of October, 1929, is as follows:
Total number of students receiving cards.....149
Total number of students receiving one card.....122
Total number of students receiving two cards.....21
Total number of students receiving three cards.....4
Total number of students receiving four cards.....3
Total number of cards sent out.....188
Total number of yellow cards sent out.....150
Total number of blue cards sent out.....38
Percentage of college students (except applied music and art students) receiving cards.....21%
Percentage of college students receiving one card.....17.15%
Percentage of college students receiving two cards.....2.96%
Percentage of college students receiving three cards.....0.56%
Percentage of college students receiving four cards.....0.42%
Seventy-two freshmen received cinch cards, so about half the cinch cards were received by freshmen. There are 212 students in the freshman class.

sidered the world around as the greatest, most profound, and most progressive thinker in the English speaking world today. Bertrand Russell owes his fame to the fact that, while himself a creative thinker, he has never lost sight of the immediate practical needs of our modern life, and yet has refused to look at them purely from the short-sighted standpoint of the present moment. The result being that in almost every phase or realm of thought and endeavor he is always just a step or two—yes, and sometimes a mile or two—ahead of everyone else; a matter which has caused him to be called a "radical." And Bertrand Russell is just that."

Truly this is a rare opportunity to improve your mind as well as to be privileged to see and hear one of the greatest men of the present day. Students and the general public will find this lecture well worth their while. You may never have the chance to hear such a profound thinker again as long as you live.

People desiring to see the Little Theatre Homecoming Play can do so on Thursday or Friday night and thus have Saturday evening open for the lecture.

The fact that Mr. Russell is to speak here in Stockton makes it possible for many to hear him who would not have been able to go to Oakland, which was to have been the nearest city at which he would speak. It is expected that many of the alumni and students who will be celebrating homecoming Saturday evening, will attend the lecture.

Inquiries have been pouring in from residents of surrounding towns, from as far north as Sacramento to as far south as Turlock, regarding the lecture.

Tickets are on sale at the Information Office and at P. R.'s as well as at twelve places downtown. Student tickets are being sold for the ridiculously cheap price of fifty cents.

NEVADA WOLVES WILL BE TOUGH FOE FOR BENGALS IN FAR WEST CONFERENCE CONTEST SATURDAY

THE SAGEBRUSH STATE ELEVEN RECEIVES SLIGHT ADVANTAGE OVER RIGHTER'S COHORTS;
SMALL SCORE TO BE VERDICT

By JOE CAPURRO
Sports Editor, Pacific Weekly

Keying the Pacific Tiger to the highest pitch of viciousness this week in anticipation of the big game of the season—the annual Homecoming struggle—Coach "Swede" Righter is hoping to upset the touted Nevada Wolf Pack Saturday afternoon at Baxter Field in a Far Western Conference skirmish.

Indications point to a real red-hot combat—possibly like that of last year when the Bengals nosed out the Wolves 7 to 6 in their own lair—but the Sagebrushes are given the role of the favorites.

The only chance for comparative score doping is in the games that the foes played with the Cal Aggies. Pacific lost by a score of 20-0 to the potential F.W.C. champs, and they were licked 19-0—if that proves anything. In the only other Conference combat that the Wolves have played they snowed Fresno State College beneath a score of 48 to 0.

The season records of the foes:

Much of the Tigers' chances rest on the shoulders of "Moose" Disbrow, nonpareil ball totter of the squad. Disbrow is on the shelf with an injured shoulder. This would keep him out of the contest with San Jose State last week, and weakened the Bengals no little, so that his absence Saturday would just about be the death knell to Pacific's victorious plans.

The passing attack of the Bengals will also be under par since it is Disbrow who is on the flinging end in the aerial game. Even if Disbrow plays—and this is very much in the dark at the present writing—he will be of little use in a Lindy attack, although his lugging of the leather lemon will be a big boom to Bengals' offensive power.

Another warrior who is on the sidelines, is "Silk" Stockings, husky tackle, with a leg injury. This stalwart turned in a dazzling performance when the Tiger line made its marvelous stand against the California Aggies a couple of weeks ago, and if he is kept out of the fray, one side of the Bengal wall will suffer.

Homecoming House Plans Completed; Reunions And Programs Set For Alumni

Sororities

EPSILON LAMBDA SIGMA

This year's homecoming will mark Epsilon Lambda Sigma's seventy-first anniversary. Plans are being made for an alumnae reunion after the game on Saturday afternoon. At 6:00 p. m. a buffet supper will be served, during which a program will be enjoyed. Many of the nine hundred alumnae of the sorority have already sent in reservations. Adella Bristol is general chairman of the affair and she is being assisted by Doris Schroeder and Janis van Thiel.

MU ZETA RHO

The Mu Zeta Rho sorority will hold its third annual buffet supper for the alumni next Saturday evening at 6:00 o'clock, after the game. Preceding the supper, there will be a tea for the patronesses and the mothers who are visiting here this week-end. Entertainment will be furnished for these two events by Miss Virginia Coughlin, Miss Nadine Esrey, and the Mu Zeta Rho instrumental trio.

Miss Phyllis Farrell is making arrangements to accommodate the week-end guests; Miss Eileen Charter and Miss Marjorie Banks are making preparations for the tea and supper; Miss Audrey Holman is sending out the invitations; and Miss Marian Harvey and Miss Mary Liscom are planning the decorations for the house.

Theta Alpha Phi
Honors Alumni
With Breakfast

The organization of Theta Alpha Phi will hold its annual formal breakfast for the alumni at Eden Square on Saturday morning at eight o'clock. Greydon Milam, president, will preside, and he is making preparations to accommodate over fifty guests. Miss Beatrice Churchill has charge of the decorations, and Miss Eileen Charter is sending out the invitations. The faculty members who will be there are Miss William Hinsdale, De Marcus Brown, and Mr. Bodley.

Campus
Gossip

We noticed last night, after a long absence, that D. Vincent Frugoli is again patronizing the Girl's Dorm. And speaking of a lack of interest, we wonder just what has become of Dorothy is just pining away (?) from his lack of attention?

Doesn't Mu Zeta ever give anyone else a chance at Anne Eagle? We admit that she's pretty good, but why are they always hanging on all her arms?

Fraternities

ALPHA PI ALPHA

On the evening of Thursday, October 24, Alpha Pi Alpha fraternity held its formal initiation. Professor Schilpp, honorary member of the fraternity, was the speaker at the dinner given in honor of the pledges at the Eden Square Cafe. His talk on keeping one's individuality through college and fraternity life, was enjoyed by all those present. After the dinner, an impressive initiation ceremony was held at the fraternity house, and five new members were taken into the fraternity. These were: Melvin Anderson, John Atsumi, Reginald Stuart, Kenneth Watkins, and William Watkins.

RHIZOMIA

The Rho Lambda Phi fraternity house will be open to all alumni members and their wives next Saturday evening after the game. The house will be beautifully decorated in orange and black colors. Wesley Sawyer, the president of the house, and the other house officers, including Babe Schader, will receive the guests.

ALPHA CHI DELTA

The Alpha Chi Delta fraternity has planned two events for Homecoming week-end. Friday evening they are giving a dinner and theater party for the members and their guests. The affair will take place in Sacramento, and after an Italian dinner the party will go to the Alhambra theater.

Saturday evening the members of this house will be hosts to the alumni members at a dinner to be held in the new fraternity house on Knoles Way.

ARCHANIA

One of the big events of the year at the Archania house will be that of welcoming the Alumni. A very interesting program will be given, the usual dinner on Thursday night at the dining hall will be held, and many other preparations are being made which will all tend to the welcoming of the old members.

OMEGA PHI ALPHA

The alumni of Omega Phi Alpha will be the guests of the members of the fraternity at an Alumni banquet at the Hotel Stockton Saturday evening. A musical program is being presented by Luke Roberts.

Saturday afternoon, immediately after the game, a meeting of the Mothers' Club will be held at the fraternity house. Mothers of members and alumni will be present from all parts of the state.

Rally Plans Of The Committee Are Announced

Last Friday, Pacific had a fine representation at San Jose, and there were some mighty fine songs and yells from the rooting section, in spite of the fact that classes could not be excused.

The painting of San Jose's High School and the College was an excusable act on the part of some of the Pacific men, and the same applies to the San Jose men. But all things being equal, the competition was perhaps a little keener on both sides and the scores are even.

Painting seems to have been Nevada's pet hobby in the past years, and Pacific is to be the center of this said hobby this year. The bonfire, as well as the buildings and gate will have to be more carefully guarded than in the past. If some of the couples who continually park at the upper end of Stadium Drive would scatter out over the campus a little, we would be almost sure that we would not be unexpectedly invaded by Nevada.

The announcements of the time and place for the events tonight have been made, but just for a reminder, here is the list again.

1. All fraternities, sororities, and the dining hall will have their dinners at 5:30 o'clock sharp.
2. The parade downtown will begin from the Women's Hall at 6:30 o'clock.
3. The parade will end at approximately 7:30, and the skit, talks, and songs will be held in the gym.
4. Then the bonfire, the pride of the Frosh Class, to be or not to be the greatest that Pacific has ever had.

A rally is a rally, but unfortunately for some, and fortunate for others, Pacific Avenue is not a speedway. The parade tonight will be led by two speedsters who will set a pace that will leave some of the old Fords behind; but don't try to pass them or it will be the jail for some of the students who have a little to much sporting blood in their system.

The main skit of the evening in the gym is one of the finest ever written or produced by Pacific students. The authors of the skit are Doug Conway and Margaret Jack, and we will perhaps have an opportunity to hear more from them in the future. These two students have worked hard to make the Homecoming Rally a success, and all the glory they receive in the applause will not be half their deserts for their efforts.

The game Saturday will go down in the history of the college as one of the hardest and finest games that Pacific has ever played. It means a lot to Nevada if they can win a Homecoming game on their opponents own field, and it means even more for Pacific to win. It will be a game that cannot and will

Faculty members and graduate students are requested, by the Alumni Secretary, to purchase their tickets for the Homecoming luncheon Saturday, November 2nd, at the information office today and tomorrow.

Marshal Hale, President of the Alumni Association, and Dr. Tully C. Knoles will be the speakers. Other features of the luncheon program include the singing of Pacific songs led by Peter Walline Knoles, '25; yellow led by Henderson McGee, '26; and music by the College Band.

This luncheon will be served promptly at 12:30. Tickets are 75 cents each.

Omega Phi Frat.
Hosts At Dinner

Omega Phi Alpha fraternity held its first formal Rush Dinner last Thursday evening in the banquet room of the Eden Square Cafe.

Bob Fuller began the varied program by leading school songs and yells, and was followed by a welcome to the freshmen from Russel McPherson, president of the fraternity.

Glen Hallik rendered a group of violin selections, accompanied by Lloyd Adams at the piano.

The main address of the evening was given by Jim Corson, Frosh football coach. Mr. Corson told of his experiences when he participated in the last Olympic games held in Holland and concluded by remarking that he hoped that the foreign athletes who will come to Los Angeles for the next Olympic games will feel the same spirit prominent here as he felt when he was in Holland.

As a concluding number Donald Jones sang "Omega Phi Girl", accompanied by Austin Coggin at the piano. After the dinner, the men adjourned to the fraternity house on the campus.

BENGALS HOPE FOR WIN OVER WOLVES

Pacific Freshmen Score Greatest Conquest In Drubbing Tarzans

DEcisive WIN OVER OUTED FOES LABEL EARLINGS 'WONDERS'

By JOE CAPURRO

A victory scored by a Pacific freshman gridiron eleven since the team was incubated two years ago was recorded last Friday night. The "Hippo" Corson's "wonder" team went on the greatest spree seen in these parts in some time by soundly thrashing the High School Tarzans. The victorious numerals were 19 to 6. The chance of victory, except by their most prejudiced followers, pushed their highly touted prep foes all over the greensward, and administered to them their most ignominious defeat of the year.

It was so decisive in the person clan that the lone at the Tarzans manufactured by a break. During the Bengal babes went down to four to the

GENERALSHIP

Goold, himself a Tarzan tributed much to the de- former mates, with his generalship, and his ability passes. Several times he reeled off gobs of yards in return- ing punts and taking flat passes on the wings.

Blonde Gene Heath, playing at the backfield post opposite Hamilton, ex- celled in the defensive division and also shot through the line for good yardage. Adams also looked good in the backfield.

Hitting the line like a proverbial ton of bricks was Malcolm Hill, driving fullback from Nevada. He knifed through the Blue forwards consistently and it is largely due to his bursts through the line that the Bengals punched over their first touchdown in the second quarter.

SHADES OF STOLTZ

Aided by a strong line, Tarzans tacklers curled up before his mighty lunges. It was shades of the performance of the "Iron horse of Ione" of old—"Pop" Stoltz!

The final tally of the infants was made in the final quarter when a series of passes and runs put the ball on the 25-yard line, where Hamilton hurled a pass to Stark, and that lanky end, in territory which was as free from op- ponents as water is in a service station, walked over the last line.

The Tarzans netted their touch- down near the end of the game. Bain- bridge, Stockton fullback, hurled a long pass from his own 40-yard line to Pacific's 45. Hill batted the ball, but instead of falling to the ground, the oval fell into the mitts of Stevens, Tarzan end, and that young wight trekked the entire distance to the goal- line. The conversion was made.

Tigers Set Oval On 2-foot Line As Time Expires

Gun Checks Bengals In Goalward Drive; Tilt Ends 6 To 6 Deadlock

By CARL PAGE

The timers gun ended a Pacific march that had brought the ball from the Tiger's 32-yard stripe to the San Jose State 2-foot line, and the Bengals had to leave the field with another score in sight. The result of the game has practically eliminated Pacific from any chance of winning the Far Western Conference this year.

Staging a great fight against a team that was rated at least one touch- down better than Pacific, the Bengals held San Jose State to a 6 to 6 tie. The game itself was reeled off in a snappy fashion, and was featured by fumbles, intercepted passes, and what not by both sides.

Vassar led the Tiger attack, running back punts for good yardage, and get- ting away on several nice runs. Cran- dall also played a great game at full- back in the absence of Disbrow.

The Spartan score came in the sec- ond quarter after they had worked the ball to the one-yard line. Cran- dall intercepted a Spartan pass later in this period and ran 45 yards for the Tiger tally.

SPARTANS MAKE FIRST TOUCHDOWN

The Spartan score came early in the second quarter. They had placed the ball on the Tiger 1-yard line as the first period ended and, on the first play in the second quarter, Winters, Spartan back, bucked it over the line.

Vassar received the kickoff at the opening of the game and was downed on his own 27-yard line. After two unsuccessful plays Crandall kicked to Portal, State safety man, who fumbled the ball and Heath recovered.

Crandall kicked to Portal, who was downed by Hurd on the State 44-yard mark. From this point the Spartans on bucks, lateral passes and forward

Win Box Candy; Guess The Score

Guess the correct score of the Nevada-Pacific game and win a big box of candy. P. R. has been giving a bar of candy to the person who guesses the cor- rect or closest score of the games from week to week, but now comes this astounding offer from that worthy gentle- man himself.

Last week P. R. guessed the closest scores of the Varsity and Frosh games so there was no turnover of the candy stock. If two guess the correct score, or a half dozen, the person whose name appears at the head of them all on the sheet wins the candy.

passes placed the ball on the 1-yard line as the period ended and then Win- ters pushed it over for a score. Wool's place kick for the added point was wide. Wool, Winters and Buss were the big lights in the Spartan match.

The Bengals again received the kickoff on the Tiger 27-yard line. Crandall punted to Portal on the State 20-yard mark and the latter ran it back to his 29-yard string. Portal was caught holding a Tiger men and his team received the customary 15- yard penalty. Vassar returned Wool's punt to the State 15-yard string, but the Bengals again lost the ball on the fourth down by failing to complete a forward pass. Wool punted to Vas- sar on San Jose's 31-yard stripe.

CRANDALL INTERCEPTS PASS AND SCORES

After receiving a penalty for being off side, and failing to make yardage otherwise, Crandall passed the ball and Pieri, Spartan wing man, inter- cepted. A pass, Wood to Watenburg, was incomplete. Crandall intercepted a Spartan pass on his own 40-yard line and ran the ball over the goal line for the Bengal's score. His place kick was low.

Early in the third period Vassar made the run that stamps him as the star of the game. In addition to run- ning back punts for big gains at other times, he received a boot on his own 23-yard mark and ran it back 50 yards to the State 27 stripe.

The Bengal march that fell 30 seconds short of scoring a possible touchdown came in the closing mo- ments of the final period.

FINAL GUN ENDS BENGAL DRIVE

The Tigers got the ball on their own 32-yard line when Wool's punt went outside at that place. Vassar and Crandall and a 5-yard penalty imposed on the Spartans made first down for the Tigers. Shuman on a triple re- verse added 20 yards to cause. Vassar in two plays made another first down. A pass Shuman to Carpenter gained 15 yards. It was the only pass the Bengals completed during the entire game. Crandall and Vassar and an- other Spartan penalty made first down. Chandall hit the line for one yard but lost it on the next play. With but two feet to go and two downs to make it, the timer's gun ended the game.

Vassar, Hurd, Moody, substitute tackle, and Crandall were the leaders of the Bengals' attack. Wool, Win- ters, Buss, Portal, Pieri and Cox led the Spartans in the game.

MANY RUNNERS IN HOMECOMING CROSS COUNTRY

Paul Hubbard, Briones, Parsons, Littlefield, Van Dyke To Race

One of the big attractions offered for the entertainment of the spectators at the Homecoming celebration will be the third intra-mural cross-country race. This race will be started promptly at 1:45 in the stadium.

A new system will be used in start- ing the runners this week in order to make a close and interesting finish. The runners will be started according to their past records under various handicaps. The winner will, of course, be determined by the actual running time but this method of starting will provide an exciting and interesting finish for the benefit of the spectators. Any men who have not previously competed in cross-country runs this season will be started at scratch.

Several good men have been turning out for these races so far and a few new ones are expected to appear Sat- urday. Paul Hubbard has won both the previous races this season and unless a dark horse appears at the last minute is expected to carry off the honors again this week. Horace Parsons has placed second, twice, and is picked to hold his place again. Several likely looking frosh have been training and it looks as if some good material for track next spring is in the making. Robertson and Wright have been mak- ing a good showing and may show the veterans some dust in this race.

The rivalry is strong between the fraternities in this, as in all other intra-mural sports, and each race shows large teams entered from sev- eral of the houses. These men usually walk part of the way around the course but get points for finishing. However, the race Saturday will probably be a real thriller in spite of the "bunion

Frosh Eleven Invades Davis

Coach Jim Corson's Frosh gridders, following their sensational victory over the Stockton Tarzans, will try to knock over the California Aggie Freshmen tomorrow afternoon on the Davis field. The Aggies held the Tarzans to a 0-0 score here three weeks ago, and they will give Corson's charges a real tussle.

Rifle Club Wins Pistol Match From Roberts Island Club

While shooting a pistol match against the Oakland Bankers' Pistol Club, the College of the Pacific "ex- pert shots" ran into a tilt with the Roberts' Island Rifle Club. They shot it out for 300 rounds apiece and when the smoke cleared up the "Col- legians," composed of Yancey, How- land, and Tiscornia, had survived. They won by making 243 of their shots hit the bulls eye, compared with 220 by their opponents.

A team made up of Tiscornia, Stew- art, Yancey, Howland, and Gwinn, totalling 388 shots out of 500 in the match with the Oaklanders.

this season—the Santa Cruz boy turned in a wonderful defensive game against the Mustang. He was a bulwark in halting off-tackle smashes of the Farmers.

Cyclone Cy Vassar, who has tram- pled the turf in a most nonchalant fashion this season at the expense of opponents will get another chance to demonstrate Saturday that he deserves the label of the trickiest ball totter in the F. W. C. Vassar played in the San Jose tilt last week with two badly taped ankles, and still managed to get off on several long hikes.

NEW INSTRUCTOR

Coach George Philbrook, who by the way, is another new mentor in the con- ference this season, has a glossy array of talent this year. His linemen will hold an advantage in weight, and only another superlative performance by the seven Bengal stalwarts—like that of the Aggie struggle—will even up mat- ters in this department.

The visitors boast of a couple of crack ends in Levy, who is said to be "one of the best ends to wear a Nevada uniform in years" by the Nevada paper, and Orville Moyes, former Stockton High School star. Heath, Carpenter or Barron will face tough opposition from these wingmen.

Whitehead, Holmes, Lawlor and Parsons have demonstrated an off- ensive which has been sadly lacking for a number of years.

Welcome, Alumni!

Another Homecoming is with us, and all the commotion that goes with it. We are indeed happy that we have the opportunity to welcome back those who have left Pacific in years before our time. The constant question, "Is the old better than the new?" is one that can never be settled, and yet it does both graduates and students good to be able to meet occasionally and to compare notes and opinions.

To make your visit an enjoyable one, an elaborate yet balanced program has been prepared for the alumni. Beginning with the rally, parade, and the play on Thursday until the curtain goes down concluding the play Saturday, something is going on that will let you get into the spirit of the newer Pacific.

Of course we welcome you back to your alma mater. But rather than to merely say that in so many words is inadequate and so a program has been provided. We hope you enjoy it, and may your visit with us help to hasten the progress of Pacific.

A Splendid Opportunity

Whatever may be the difficulties and drawbacks of a lecture on a Saturday night, this much at any rate is certain: no more fitting climax could have been provided for Homecoming than the lecture by Bertrand Russell. While, like in previous years, we are providing our returning grads of former years with the usual rally on Thursday evening, with a splendid dramatic performance (offered on three successive nights), with the usual alumni banquet on Saturday noon, with an exhibition of Pacific's athletic prowess on the football field in the afternoon, and with the exceptional chance of the dedication of Baxter Field as a continuous reminder of the deep interest and munificence of our great benefactor, Thomas F. Baxter, and finally with the usual sorority and fraternity reunions on Saturday evening, we have never before been able to present our homecoming guests with anything like the intellectual treat which awaits us in Bertrand Russell's lecture on "The Outlook For Civilization" on Saturday night. Here is the chance of a life-time both for the former Pacificite and for the present generation of College students. We are more than happy to be able thus to cap off the program for the entire week.

Some of us will miss this rare treat and magnificent opportunity of being able to listen to one of the world's greatest living minds. And the pity of it is that some of us will be missing it, not because we have to miss it, not because there is no way out, but—to be perfectly frank and honest about it—just because we are not intelligent enough to realize how exceptional and great our opportunity is. Some of us will miss it because we feel that we must take our friends or guests to a dramatic performance or to a card party or stay with them around the dinner table, or what have you? When it is probable that we could not offer them a greater or more appreciated treat than to take them to this lecture—a chance which by far the most of our guests never have had and in all probability never will have again. Some day, not very far hence, we shall regret such folly more than we shall ever be able to put into words.

Shall we ever learn and profit by our mistakes—even in an institution of learning, such as College? To say the least, the answer to this question is doubtful. "Let him who has ears to hear, hear!"

Our Part

Beginning with the rally and bonfire tonight the Homecoming activities will assume definite forms. There is a splendid program on tap for the entertainment of the alumni and their families. Everything to make their visit enjoyable has been prepared for them.

There has been a lot said about "Pacific Spirit." Perhaps last week's charges were a little exaggerated, yet many seemed to agree with what was said. This is the time to show that there is a "Pacific Spirit." With a good game, and the enthusiasm of the Homecoming, combined with the old fire that always grips the students at Homecoming, there should be several demonstrations of that spirit.

No apologies or criticisms should be forthcoming after Saturday afternoon's game. The rally committee has planned a lot of new features for the occasion. Let's get hep to ourselves and put over our end of Homecoming.

John Charles Thomas
In Concert Nov. 6

John Charles Thomas, eminent American baritone, who will appear in concert at the Stockton High School auditorium November 6, was born in Myersdale, Pennsylvania, and received his musical training at the Peabody Conservatory of Music in Baltimore. He easily attained stardom in opera but later addressed himself to the more serious realm of vocal endeavor, the concert. Thomas has distinguished himself at Brussels as leading baritone of the Royal Opera and recently made his debut at the Royal Covent Gardens, London, as leading baritone.

Offers from Berlin and Vienna have followed but this season finds him in a concert tour of the United States, his own country. A beautiful voice, trained in the best tradition of the Bel Canto School, and a fine personality, bring Mr. Thomas ideally equipped for the stage.

It has been said of this artist's voice that "its quality actually recalls Caruso's in the matter of golden resonance"—and again "As an interpreter, he has taste, intelligence, versatility and imagination."

There will be no extra admission to those who have Concert Series tickets.

Old Timer Says

It surely is a source of pleasure to Old Timer—to see the way—the old Pacific Spirit—is growing—this semester—it seemed for a time—that there wasn't even—a spark of it left—but in the last few weeks—the few faint sparks—that were left—have been fanned—into a raging—inferno—that is sweeping everything—before it—the two victories—last week—the tie with San Jose—by the Varsity—and the defeat of the cocky Stockton High—by the frosh—capped the climax—and the old fire—is running wild—and here's a tip—Old Timer is expecting—the Varsity to—BEAT—Nevada on Homecoming Day—and he believes—that tonight—at the rally—that the old fire—bonfire and spirit too—will reach a peak—that hasn't been seen—this year—and all the alumni and students—who turn out for the rally in the Tiger Camp—it really looks like it will surpass—any climax of that intangible thing—THE SPIRIT OF PACIFIC—that Old Timer—or any of the other Old Timers—have been seen—for years—

And now Old Timer—wants to extend a hearty—handshake—to all the old grads—who are with us during—Homecoming—many of them were here—even long before Old Timer—and he hopes that they—have a wonderful time—and are as proud of their old Alma Mater—as he is—and he feels sure—that each one of them—when the celebration is over—and they have to go back—to their respective jobs—will be glad—even such a brief chance—to renew contact with the traditions—and students—and professors—and all the other things—that make up the life of the college—and he knows that—it will be with at least—a little bit of regret—that they will leave—because college life has an irresistible lure—for anyone who has lived it for a while—and it is something that is mighty hard to give up—but as long as it is necessary—that we all go out into the world—for ourselves eventually—it is a mighty fine thing—to look back—on college—and its pleasant memories—and that is one reason why Old Timer—is sort of glad—that he is an Old Timer and has—been here for a long time—and he really hates to think—that it won't be much longer—until he, too—will be leaving—and will then only catch a glimpse—of college life—and the old friends—once a year at Homecoming—so—let's make it a joyous occasion while it lasts—and keep those sad memories—for the rest of the year—

And so—Old Timer will see and hear—you all—at the rally tonight—and at the game Saturday—and so forget that old saying—about being seen and not heard—and give a cheer for P—ac—ji—ie!

'Y' Program And Aims
Are Valuable To All

Did you read the list of features, published last week, that the Y. M. C. A. is working on for this year? Here are the other things on the program this year.

The organization is always interested in entertaining the freshmen during freshman week. This year the frosh men were invited on an afternoon and evening boat ride down the San Joaquin river. Also, the publication of that valuable little book entitled "Freshman Handbook" was directed by the "Y." They maintain social rooms above the large Social Hall for anyone who desires to use them. Come up and make yourself at home.

Forum On School Spirit Is Held By
Y.M.C.A. Monday

What do you think is wrong with that much discussed phenomena called "Pacific Spirit"? Some good ideas on this situation at present were brought out in the open discussion held last Monday morning by the Y. M. C. A.

Two factors of the situation were discussed, the team and the rooting section. Coach Cunningham convinced the skeptics that there was no reason to criticize the team. There is no doubt but that Pacific's teams are always composed of the players who come up to the highest standard possible.

Several suggestions were made concerning the rooting section. One was the matter of letting the girls yell. Pacific, as well as other colleges of its character, has observed a tradition which does not include the women in yells. Due to the small size of the school, some thought that it would be a wise move to raise this restriction. There probably are more girls able to attend the games than are boys. If the girls yelled, it was thought that we would present a better front to visitors.

It seems that we can never get away from that over worked word "co-operation." Some students have wondered why the Rally Committee has not planned some bleacher stunts this year. Anyone can see that the students are more important than the committee when a stunt is to be put on. How can a successful stunt be put on when such a small rooting section at the games? Co-operation with the rally committee when they ask you to help them is a very necessary thing if Pacific spirit is to be maintained.

San Joaquin County
Alumni Held Dinner
Meeting Thursday

The annual fall meeting of the San Joaquin Branch of the Pacific Alumni Association was held last Thursday night in the College Dining Hall. President Walter Pickering presided over the business meeting and program.

Plans were made to welcome alumni and former students on Homecoming Day. Mrs. Bradford S. Crittenden was appointed chairman of a standing entertainment committee and will be assisted by Anne Osborn and Birdie Mitchell. The present officers who were re-elected to their respective offices for the ensuing year are: Walter Pickering, president; Jean Humphreys, vice-president; and Agnes Clark, secretary.

George Atcheson entertained the group with vocal solos accompanied by Miss Miriam Burton, and Henderson McGee led Pacific songs and yells. Dr. John L. Burcham addressed the members.

The next meeting of San Joaquin County Alumni will be held December 7th at a dinner preceding the Alumni-Varsity basketball game.

Activities Of Y. W.
C. A. Committee
Are Announced

At the Y. W. C. A. Cabinet this week, plans were discussed the various committee meetings are to be held during the week.

The Social Service Committee Y. W. C. A. will meet Wednesday afternoon at 3:00 in the Y. W. C. A. room. The program to be given at the Social Service Committee will be by Dorothy Evans is the chairman Social Service Committee, and Van Tiel is her assistant.

The Publicity Committee Tuesday afternoon at 3:00 in the Y. M. C. A. room. This committee discusses plans for advertising poster making. The work of the committee is especially interesting to journalism students. Rader is publicity chairman and is assisted in her committee by Jean Lackey.

The World Friendship Committee will meet each Monday at 4:00 in the Y. W. C. A. room. This committee is going to study students' interests and problems of students of other races and lands. Lenoustantman is the chairman of this committee and Miss Lorraine Knoles is in charge of arranging the programs. The committee.

It has been decided by the student body that more effective work can be done by each committee if meetings are held each week.

A committee composed of Bert Barker, Edith Griswold, and Marjorie McGlashan is investigating plans for a new C. A. meetings of the year.
