to Mono Lake, and I gave her the book which she would so much enjoy. She is a vigorous splendid woman whom you would ~~very~~ have pleasure in meeting. She now lives on the side of the continent

Please give my respects to the members of your family, whom I will try to meet again, when I visit California

Most truly yours
 Al. Conness

Wattapan, Mass
 Aug 8th 1895

My dear Mr Muir

It was due to myself and to you, that I should before this date thank you and the members of your family for one of the most pleasant days of my life, spent in the Alhambra Valley.

I should have also kept my promise for a promise should be a bond, to send 02012

You the volumes of Kings journey.

As every denlick says,
I have not forgotten
my promise for to day and sometime hereofore, my wife has endeavoured to identify the said volumes Vol 5 has thus far eluded our grasp, and we may not be able to find it, but the others and the Atlas will go to you when the search is completed even if the last book cannot be found.

The lady who was with me the day I saw you,
came on to visit us, after my arrival at home, and we had a good time for she is one of the Saints!

A few days since we had a call from Miss Helen McDowell the daughter of the General, when you were the subject of conversation
she went on the route
you describe so well,
