I hope you will find time this autumn or winter to pay a visit to my brothers at St. Helena.

My mother has been greatly the better of her trip to the West.

We both of us send you & your folks our best regards.

Yours truly
J. Kennie

WELLCROFT,
HELENSBURGH.

28th Sept 95.

My Dear Muir.

By this post I send you 2 photos of Dunbar, (the fishing quarter.) which I took some years ago when on a photographing tour round the East coast. One of our home here, one of myself, & four of my taking of four Scots hills. Names on backs.

Two Sundays ago ^[2] I spent the weekend
with Willie Douglas
in Edinburgh.
We loafed round
the "auld town" &
went up to their flat. He had just returned from a month's climbing
in Switzerland,
where he had been
up the Matterhorn, Rothorn, & some
other breakneck
places -
