I send kind love to you and your family and also to Margt & John and all their family as they have very kindly remembered me at all times

Annie unites with me in kindest love to you all Affectionately
Mother

Portage October 15th 1895

Dear John

I gladly received your letter telling me of your arrival safely at home, after your trip to the wild woods about the same time I received a letter and photo from Mrs Lunam of herself & daughter from Edinburgh where they were spending their vacation as a family

02040 occupied their house during the summer months she wrote that she intended to send you a Shata also as soon as she thought you would be at home probably you have got it by this time

I am much pleased to know that David is getting along so well in his new kind of work, but by this <sup>time</sup> he will be well acquainted with it, his daughter Anne is now married and I suppose is comfortable

We had a letter from Mary a fortnight ago, her home is in Kearney Neb her family are all well, but Willis has not been very well for some time. Nearly all of the children attend School

Several of my old friends have died lately and last week Annie & I went to the cemetery to visit their last resting places —
