Dear Mr. Miss,

I am wondering if you are all well, and if it would be convenient for Miss Thompson and me to come up next Saturday afternoon (the 26th) and stay until Sunday? I have been wanting to come, - to tell you of how - loved as well as to hear what the Mountains have been saying to you - but this is really the first day it has been possible to drop things and get away.

Please let me hear in time to make arrangements with Miss Thompson at Palo Alto.

With love to all,

Your friend,

Oct. 17th 95 02041 Katharine Gaydon

If we come, we shall take the train which leaves city at four o'clock.
I shall you in
