Mr. John Muir,

Dear Sir:--

Since the publication of your book "The Mountains of California," we have received inquiries from various sources for titles and prices of your other books, but we regret that we do not find in our regular catalogues any information on the subject. Thinking it possible that you may have published some volumes which are not listed in the regular way, and which are not generally known to the bookselling trade, we venture to ask that you let us know where such volumes may be obtained, or where we may write for information as to the prices of them. If you will kindly address an early reply to our library department you will greatly oblige.

Yours truly,

A.C.McClurg & Co.
