Martinez, Dec. 13, 1895.

My dear Mrs Sellers,

I'm sorry to learn you are not likely to come over side the continent this year. Hotel Green is said to be a good shelter though the Raymond is smoke. but Mr Sellers business I fear will be the most insurmountable difficulty. So Keith & I will have to pick out a sketch for you instead of waiting to have you do it yourself.

I was in Pasadena a week or two ago & met Mr Rush who showed me many mortars, arrowheads, baskets & other odds & ends of a ramshing race. Also I saw Prof. Loms collection. His railroad etc I had to lecture to the teachers there, & the scholars at the Throop Institute & High School & was badly scared.

I'll see Keith tomorrow & deliver your message.

With best wishes for the New Year to yourself & husband & Frank I am ever
Yrs
John Miller
