

John Muir Correspondence (PDFs)

1895-01-01

Letter from Jeanne [C.] Carr to [John Muir], [1895?].

Jeanne C. Carr

Follow this and additional works at: <https://scholarlycommons.pacific.edu/muir-correspondence>

Recommended Citation

Carr, Jeanne C., "Letter from Jeanne [C.] Carr to [John Muir], [1895?]." (1895). John Muir Correspondence (PDFs). 3180.

<https://scholarlycommons.pacific.edu/muir-correspondence/3180>

This Article is brought to you for free and open access by Scholarly Commons. It has been accepted for inclusion in John Muir Correspondence (PDFs) by an authorized administrator of Scholarly Commons. For more information, please contact mgibney@pacific.edu.

Pasadena, Sunday

Dear John.

I have felt like writing you a long, old time letter, in remembrance of August days in 1873; but it is impossible, to reach personal enjoyments in the midst of so pressing family cares. But Mrs Photos, last night recd from Silheim Scidmore, a Madison girl who now hails from Washington City and who has been travelling in Alaskan waters this summer - Photos of the Muir glacier, impel me to ask you to do yourself the pleasure of calling upon her at the Occidental Hotel, S. F. She will be in Fresno all through the Conclave

01908

She is bright, responsive, &
an excellent musician -
You know that both for your own sake, & the darlings of your heart, I rejoice in all that gives you honor and happiness and am always yours faithfully
Lillian Carr,