[First draft of letter, in note-book]

Martinez, Jan. 28, '05.

Mr. Andrew McLennan,
Newhall,
Dowanhill Gardens,
Glasgow, Scotland.

Dear Mr. McLennan:

A guid bag of plum pudding, or I suppose what in Scotland would be called an English haggis, came safely and was greatly enjoyed by all the family(?) Like the short-bread of last year it brought back our pleasant journeys together in China and Japan with wonderful clearness.

I have little faith in the promise of the professor about your degree, and so I think I had better confer one upon you myself. Here it is - E.F.F., Ever Faithful Friend.

With hearty wishes for a happy New Year,

Faithfully yours,

[John Muir]
