My dear Mr. Blair:

I appreciate, more than I can tell, your book and autograph. Recession Bill has done some good, this early when it brings me under your notice to receive such a kind favor.

As you probably know the bill comes up next Tuesday <sup>[22]</sup> on special order. Belshaw has been out of town for the last two days, and there is very little gossip around.

Hubens is still non-committed, but I believe he will vote all right.
I can see no discouraging signs to date, notwithstanding the passage by the Senate of Curtis

#300.000 hotel bill <sup>[33]</sup> It went through more or a palace for Curtis than for any other reason. With best regards, Dear Gratefully yours,
Arthur S. B. 107
