THE INTERNATIONAL QUARTERLY
FOX, DUFFIELD & COMPANY, PUBLISHERS
38 EAST 21ST STREET - NEW YORK

April 25, 1905.

Mr. John Muir,
Martinez, Cal.

My dear Sir:

I know that you are a subscriber to The International Quarterly ~~for a long time~~ and I am encouraged to hope that you will also be interested to contribute to its pages. I shall certainly esteem it a great favor if you will write for this journal, and I suggest that you write upon the Pacific coast, describing its many interesting features.

It would also be of much interest to the readers of the Quarterly to know more intimately of your expeditions in the mountains. These are general suggestions which

I make, and I shall of course be very glad to hear from you and receive your suggestions. I can offer you an honorarium of $75.

Yours very faithfully,

Richard A. Richardson
