Dear Mr. Lummis:-

I want to make you a visit about the end of the month. Will you then be at home? I have to take Helen to Arizona. She had pneumonia two years ago, and the affected lung is not yet sound. You know all about that country and can tell me where to go. I want to start a day or two ahead of Helen and her sister Wanda so as to allow time for the good visit I have long wanted to make, for I am faithfully yours,

John Muir
