Palm Springs, June 10th [1905]
Thanking me for sending them &

Dear Mr. Sukins:-

Palm Springs

We arrived at Palm Springs last evening and were greatly surprised to find Helen here. She was glad to see us as I think she was feeling very lonely and we are all glad to have her here. It is a charming place - a true oasis in the desert, like a Garden of Eden in the Sahara.
We are delighted with the air and with the charming Doctor and Mrs. Murry. We are already "stuck together" - as the Scotch say.
You made no mistake in directing us here for a first camp and we feel truly grateful.

With kindest regards to Mrs.

Subino, and with best wishes for yourself and the young conifers
I am

Faithfully yours,

John Muir
